

Town and Country.

W. P. Dutton is up from Portland to look after business affairs in this city.

W. P. McMillan, wheatbuyer of Lexington, was doing business in Heppner yesterday.

John Olden, Rhea creek ranchman and farmer, returned the end of the week from Portland, where he had been on business.

Mrs. Clifford M. Sims departed on Monday for Eugene, where she will spend a few weeks visiting with friends and relatives.

Mrs. Neal White and Vivian Neal, of Lexington, Oregon, are the guests of Mrs. White's brother and sister, Verna and Lenna Wade.—Stanfield Standard.

FOR SALE—Second hand—one wood heater and two vacuum cleaners, cheap. f27-21
MRS. H. SCHERZINGER.

Otto Lindstrom, extensive farmer of Morgan, was a visitor in Heppner on Tuesday, and made this office a pleasant call.

Frank Gilliam went to Portland the first of the week to look after matters pertaining to the new business block of Gilliam & Bisbee in this city.

Dr. McMurdo reports the arrival of a son at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. Mulvaney on Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Mulvaney reside on the F. J. Lucas farm.

After being up and around the house and apparently on the road to recovery from his long spell of sickness, Orville Rasmus this week suffered a relapse and has had to take to his bed again.

Chas. F. Royce was over from Spry for a few days the past week. He came across on horseback and reports more than two feet of snow on the divide.

Mrs. Arch Cox arrived from her home near Weiser, Idaho, on last Thursday and has been spending the week visiting with her mother, Mrs. R. W. Robison, of this city.

Dr. C. C. Chick and family this week moved from the J. H. Kinsman property into the residence just vacated by E. F. Clark and wife at the west end of Center street.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. McCaleb have moved up from Arlington, and at present have rooms at the residence of W. T. Campbell, where they will live until they can secure a residence.

N. M. Johnson and B. D. Peterson were visitors in Heppner on Monday from Gooseberry, and made this office a pleasant visit. Mr. Peterson is a brother-in-law of Mr. Johnson's.

Gus. Liebel, extensive farmer and owner of the west end, was in Heppner a short time on Monday, looking after income tax matters. He was accompanied by A. M. Cogswell, another farmer of his section.

Dr. McMurdo was called to Hardman Monday to attend Kinnard McDaniel who is down sick. The doctor was unable to tell whether Mr. McDaniel was coming down with the flu or small pox. He had been exposed to both.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys was hurriedly called to Hillsboro on Friday, in response to a telegram announcing the very serious illness of her mother, who had suffered a stroke of paralysis. It is feared that Mrs. Rood will not recover.

Wm. Kick of Umatilla, was in Heppner on Tuesday. Mr. Kick has just received his discharge from the service and returned home from Camp Lewis, where he has been stationed. He is on an irrigated tract near the Columbia river city.

Henry Blahm came down from Walla Walla on Tuesday evening and will remain in this vicinity for some time. Mr. Blahm says the winter in that section of Washington has been very similar to what we have had here. The crop outlook there is fine so far.

The trench for the foundation of the warehouse at the rear of the M. L. Case building has been dug and the pouring of concrete will be started at once. The Case building is to have a pressed brick front and it will present an imposing appearance.

Howard Swick, nephew of Mrs. Lillie Turner of this city, arrived here on Saturday from Camp Lewis, having received his discharge from the service. He went on to the home of his parents at Monument, Mr. and Mrs. Lime Swick, the first of the week.

O. M. Scott, young farmer of the Blackhorse section, is able to get about his work again after his serious tussle with influenza. Mr. Scott was very sick for weeks during January, and while he feels ambitious to work he finds that he has to go slow, as his strength is pretty much impaired.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McMenamin enjoyed a short visit from Mrs. McMenamin's father C. M. Pessemier, of Tacoma, the first of the week. Mr. Pessemier is president of Pessemier Bros., wholesale and retail shoe dealers of Tacoma, in which city they have three stores. This being his first visit to Heppner, Mr. Pessemier was well impressed with the business spirit manifested here.

Manager Cox of the Morrow County Creamery Co., states that the ground for the new creamery building has been secured and that the contract for the new concrete structure will soon be let. Thus the spirit of improvement is growing and Heppner is fast taking on the appearance of progressiveness. Soon will be heard the sound of hammer, saw and trowel from all quarters of the town.

Waldo Vincent returned to Heppner last week from a stay of several weeks in Portland. He was at the Portland Sanitarium and took a course of treatments for the after effects of the influenza. He is yet far from being well but appears to be on the road to permanent recovery. After spending a few days in Heppner, he went on out to Butter creek with his family.

John F. Lentzey, an aged land owner and real estate dealer, died at lone on Tuesday morning, after an illness extending over many weeks. He had suffered with influenza and partially recovered, and upon a relapse which brought on complications, he died after an illness of some two weeks. Funeral arrangements have not yet been made, awaiting the arrival of a sister from Portland.

Dan Stalter this week disposed of his residence at the north end of Gale street to Willie Wilson. Being away from Heppner for the greater part of each year, Mr. Stalter has found it hard to properly look after the renting of these properties, so decided to let them go. Dan informs us, however, that he has just as much faith in Heppner as ever, and still believes it to be the only town in Eastern Oregon. It is the prediction that within the next two or three years our population will reach the 3000 mark. Hope he is a true prophet.

FOR SALE—Ford Car. W. W. SHAMHART. f27-1m-p

Cashier W. O. Hill of Lexington State Bank, was in Heppner a short time on Friday last on business.

The Future Before Us

America has learned her strength. The energies that were organized so quickly for war will now be turned to better farming, better manufacturing, better transportation—and to new markets abroad.

We have reached new levels in efficiency and thrift. The new period in the world's history will be momentous for all of us. We must lead in supplying the needs and restoring the faith of the war devastated countries.

This institution desires to express confidence in the future which lies before the American people.
