

Going Forward

EVEN before the doors of the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank were opened two years ago—the policy adopted had been one of PROGRESS. We don't believe for one instant we have overlooked that element in the service we have rendered our constantly increasing number of patrons.

If YOU want to progress join us.

FARMERS & STOCKGROWERS NATIONAL BANK

Heppner Oregon

Corona Wool Fat Compound

(FOR MAN OR BEAST)

Thrush, Grease Heels, Horses' Hoofs, Cows' Sore Teats.

The above and many other afflictions successfully treated with this ointment. A good article to have about the barn.

PUT UP IN 50c AND $1.00 SIZE TINS.

Heppner Farmers Elevator Company

SHOULD CALL ON

Sam Hughes Co.

FOR YOUR

Table Groceries and Provisions

WE CARRY CHOICE GOODS

LIVE CECIL NEWS ITEMS

Jack Davis spent Thursday and Friday in Arlington.

Mrs. Bennett of the Last Camp, spent the week end in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Jean Penland of Heppner were Cecil callers on Wednesday.

Fred Pettyjohn and family were visiting at the Ben Barnes home on Sunday.

Geo. B. Whitcomb, late of Morgan was doing business in Cecil on Sunday.

W. Brown who has been visiting around Cecil lately left on Thursday for Blalock.

Mrs. R. A. McFadden and Miss Helen McFadden were Cecil callers on Saturday.

Mrs. R. E. Duncan and daughter Mildred were doing business in Cecil on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Lowe and Geo. A. Miller were doing business in Arlington on Tuesday.

Dan Nash of Wyoming who has been visiting with his relatives left for LaGrande on Monday.

Mrs. T. H. Lowe and Miss A. C. Lowe were callers on Mrs. Ben Barnes on Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Owens came in from Heppner to work on the Butterby Flats ranch for Jack Hynd on Friday.

Jack Hynd accompanied by Miss Annie C. Lowe were Heppner visitors on Thursday returning home on Saturday.

Blakely Pearson who has been visiting in and around Cecil for the last few weeks returned to Heppner on Sunday.

Thomas A. Vass of Berkeley, Cal., arrived in Cecil on Monday to work for Messrs. Pepper and Nash on the Fairview place.

Miss Etta Barnes and Miss Georgia Summers spent Sunday with the Winters family at the Shady Dell ranch, in Four Mile.

M. L. Williams left Butterby Flats with three horses which he bought from Jack Hynd on Saturday for his ranch at Boardman, accompanied by Jim Kiernan.

Bob Pope, who has been working at Heppner Junction for the last few weeks came in to Cecil on Sunday to visit his brother Walter for a few days before leaving for Walla Walla.

Jack Fenwick of Ione has been busy during the week finishing off the front of the Cecil store. Tom is awful proud of his store front now since its got its finishing touch with the painter's brush.

Messrs. Minor and Matlock have shipped two cars of ewes and lambs during the week to the Hager place above Heppner. Bill says so far everything is doing fine, he is kept awful busy these days.

Jack Hynd and T. H. Lowe were visiting over at the Leon Logan ranch on Wednesday. Leon remarked that he never saw so much moisture and such good prospects as there are this spring for the farmer.

Oral Henriksen of the Willow creek ranch left on the local for The Dalles Tuesday to meet his father and brother, Clifford on their return from Portland. Mr. Henriksen we understand invested in another automobile while in Portland.

Frank Turner returned home Saturday from Hot Lake Sanitarium, where he has been for the past four weeks taking treatments for rheumatism. He feels much improved.

Mrs. Maud Pointer and Mrs. E. R. Beach, Lexington ladies, visited the officials at the Court house on Tuesday.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

Did the world war ring down the curtains on the greatest baseball career of them all? Is Captain Ty Cobb of the Gas and Flame division of the United States army still the Peerless Ty who has dominated the great Yank game for 11 years? These are questions which only the coming season can answer as Ty answers the Detroit Tiger training call from his Georgia home—where he went after being mustered out of service upon his return last week.

KICKS AGAINST Y. M. C. A.

The Hoisington Kansas Dispatch.

George V. Funk, of Larned, who has just returned from Y. M. C. A. work on the Lorraine front in France, has had many interesting experiences. Of course he is asked again and again in regard to the carping criticism of the Y. M. C. A., which has become quite popular in some quarters, but which in the light of real facts seems to have no real foundation.

Mr. Funk has only the highest praise for all the American organizations who were in war work in France, the army, navy, Red Cross, Y. M. C. A., Salvation Army, Knights of Columbus, and all others. What was accomplished by the United States, considering the difficulties to be overcome, was nothing short of miraculous, Mr. Funk says, and there is glory enough for all. Some few mistakes were made by all the agencies at work there, but these are all overshadowed by the big things accomplished.

If every kick and knock against the Y. M. C. A. service overseas had been handed as one American captain treated a case in his company, which Mr. Funk tells about, there would be more praise of what the "Y" did and less criticism of what it failed to do.

"The censor one evening came across a letter from a boy to his folks back home in which the 'Y' was panned and served on toast with a garnish of all the Scotch blessings and reverse English the boy had on hand. Now the censor is a pretty tired man and I should not have blamed him if he had let that letter go. But there was an extra strong touch of exaggeration in it that roused the censor's sense of justice.

"So he sent the letter to the captain of the boy's company and the captain called the boy in. This is the conversation that followed:

"Did you write this letter?"

"Yes, sir."

"Read it over. Is there anything you'd like to change before it is sent?"

"No, sir."

"Then there was an extra strong touch of exaggeration in it that roused the censor's sense of justice.

"So he sent the letter to the captain of the boy's company and the captain called the boy in. This is the conversation that followed:

"Where did you write this letter?"

"The Y, sir."

"Who gave you the paper?"

"The Y, sir."

"It's warm and cozy and something like home there, isn't it?"

"Yes, sir."

"Where do you get your cigarettes, candy, etc?"

"The Y, sir."

"You're always sure of finding what you want here?"

"Yes, sir."

"You go to the movies and a real show occasionally?"

"Yes, sir."

"Who runs them?"

"The Y, sir."

"Doesn't cost you a cent does it?"

"No, sir."

"There was another pause, and the boy's face was redder and his expression softer. Then:

"If you don't mind, sir, I'd like to see that letter again."

"Without a word he took it from the officer's hands, tore it once across, and dropping it into the basket, made his salute, turned on his heel and walked out."

Will Tell Investors Facts About Oil Stocks.

The Texas Oil Critic, published in Fort Worth, edited by Garfield Crawford, with Frank T. Crittenden, general manager, is the latest oil publication to make its appearance in Fort Worth. The Texas Oil Critic for some years was known as The Critic, but oil, the all-absorbing topic of the day, led the publishers to make their paper an organ of oil.

The Texas Oil Critic is not a house organ, but a free and independent paper published in the interest of oil stock investors. It promises to give the facts about stocks and promotions just as it finds them without fear or favor.

For the past four years Garfield Crawford has been engaged in turning the light on fakers of all kinds. His publication has always been a free lance and will continue to be so, favoring legitimate promotions and wildcatting when wildcatting is properly done. It is opposed to fake advertising or any other destroying agency. Crawford believes that the Texas oil fields are too big and permanent to permit fake stock selling schemes to throw distrust into the game.

Garfield Crawford for years was connected with the Fort Worth Star-Telegram and the Dallas News as commercial and industrial writer, coming to Texas eleven years ago from the Pacific Coast where he was a special writer on many leading papers of that district. Frank T. Crittenden is one of the best known advertisers in the Southwest, and The Texas Oil Critic, filling a much needed want in the investment line, will surely prosper.—The Southwestern Oil Journal.

Wm. Haylor returned Sunday from a visit of a week in Portland, where he was called on business. While at the metropolis he took in the big automobile show, and returns home quite an auto ent'usiast.

WRIGLEYS

5 long-lasting bars in each package.

The biggest value in refreshment you can possibly buy.

A BENEFIT to teeth, breath, appetite and digestion.

The price is 5 cents.

The Flavor Lasts

WRAPPED IN UNWRAPPED COUPONS

106

Dependable

"Red Crown" is straight-distilled, all-refinery gasoline. Look for the Red Crown sign before you fill.

STANDARD OIL COMPANY (California)

Geo. W. Milholland, Special Agent, Standard Oil Company, Heppner

Let G.T. Ads Help Swell Your Bank Account

MEATS and POULTRY

AT THE HEPPNER MEAT MARKET

H. C. ASHBAUGH, Proprietor.

FRESH AND CURED MEATS, POULTRY AND LARD. FISH IN SEASON.

Finest quality meats at the lowest possible price.

Phone Main 203