

LILLY'S SEEDS

Best for the West
Established 1885

Delicious Sweet
Corn "Golden Bantam"

Exceptionally early and in flavor and tenderness not equalled by any other variety. The ears are short and compact and the kernels plump and creamy. This and a thousand other vegetables best for the West, may be selected from our catalog and found at your dealers.

Write Seattle or Portland for Catalog, Free.

Town and Country.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olden of Rhea creek were visitors in Heppner on Tuesday.

John Cochran, leading trapper of Ione, was a visitor in Heppner yesterday.

Watkins territory for sale—Morrow and Gilliam Counties. Address Box 108, Heppner. $27-4t

Richard McElligott, leading farmer of the Ione country, was in Heppner on Saturday looking after tax matters.

Mrs. Chester Darbee departed on Monday for Portland and will spend the week visiting with friends in the metropolis.

Dave Presley is here from Nevada, where he has been living for several years past. He was a visitor in Heppner on Monday.

Frank Turner is down sick at his home in this city with the mumps. He contracted the disease while at Hot Lake, recently.

Mrs. W. R. Irwin and daughter, Betty, departed for Portland on Sunday to spend a short time visiting with relatives in that city.

Attorney S. E. Van Vactor returned home on Monday from Portland, where he has been during the past week on legal business.

Paul Webb and family returned from Walla Walla on Monday. They have been visiting with relatives in that city for the past two weeks.

Miss Ruby Engleman, of Ione, has been a guest this week at the home of Dr. C. C. Chick and family, in this city.

Mrs. Bob Buschke left for Portland on Monday, going to that city to meet her husband who has been discharged from military duty at Camp Lewis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Tash came down from Walla Walla on Saturday and have been visiting during the week with the family of Fred Tash in this city.

Call at Mrs. Luper's March 15th and see the beautiful and late designs in Spring coats and suits, direct from Olds, Wortman & King, Portland, Oregon.

Henry Smouse and H. R. Smith were Ione farmers in Heppner yesterday working on their income tax reports. These gentlemen are very optimistic over the crop outlook at present in their section.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Berwick returned on Tuesday from Portland, where they have been spending the past week and enjoying Mr. Berwick's vacation from duty as engineer on the Heppner branch.

Mrs. Bertha Drew Gilman of Heppner, Or., department president of Oregon Woman's Relief corps, is a visitor in the city, and while here is being extensively entertained by members of the order.—Oregonian.

Alex Warren, of Hardman, left for Pasco on Saturday and will join a shearing crew there, beginning work this week. He expects to return here at the opening of the shearing season about the middle of April.

Olin Hayes departed Sunday for Southern California, where he goes to take up work as an auto driver. The position was secured for him by his brother, Elra Hayes, who is at the Naval training station at San Diego.

Lewis Padberg was in town on Friday taking care of his income tax affairs. Mr. Padberg was unfortunate enough to be a flu victim during the time that epidemic was making its rounds, and he has not yet recovered his usual health.

C. L. Freeman, head clerk in the dry goods department of Minors, returned on Tuesday from a trip to Vancouver, Wash. Mr. Freeman went to the Washington city to dispose of a tract of fruit land he owns in Clarke county.

E. M. Hulton, who is one of the owners of the Hanshaw farm in Black Horse, came up from Portland on Tuesday. He expects his family here by the first of the coming month and they will make their home in Heppner.

Heppner now has a new band. All the boys have not yet received instruments, but when these arrive and the work of breaking in raw material is actually begun, then will an otherwise tranquil community enter upon an era of actual distress.

E. Nordyke, of Lexington, was in town a short time on Monday. Mr. Nordyke would like to see the weather warm up a little, as it is his opinion that the worms are working to some extent on the grain, he has found evidence of this fact in his fields, which he went over recently.

Mrs. Luper has secured, through the kindness of Lovengart & Co., Miss Mossman, one of the regular trimmers of the wholesale house. Miss Mossman will remain in Heppner through the busy season, only. The first Spring millinery display, March 15th, and will continue through the month.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Olden visited in Heppner on Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Olden had just returned from spending a week in Portland, where they had the pleasure of seeing some of the companies of returning soldiers.

John Troedson and Eddy Reitman, of the Ione section, were in Heppner on Friday, being called to the city to look after tax matters. They report that a very heavy fall of hail was experienced over a portion of the country north of Ione Thursday and the roads were so full that it made traveling very difficult. The hail has done no apparent damage to the growing crops.

J. R. Jackson, who farms an extensive tract of land out southwest of Lexington, was in Heppner for a short time on Thursday last. Mr. Jackson is now busy with the erection of a nice new house on his farm, the material and plans for which were furnished from the Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. at Lexington. Mr. Jackson is also preparing to put up a fine new barn, also, believing in this sort of progression.

B. M. Oviatt, a young man from Wasco, has purchased a half interest with C. D. Watkins in the Peoples Cash Market of this city, the deal being closed on Monday. Mr. Oviatt expects to move to Heppner with his family the first of April and become a fixture here. He is originally a Morrow county boy, having been born near Wells Springs, and left here twenty-five years ago with his parents, who went to Sherman county. The new butcher firm will hereafter be known as Watkins & Oviatt.

B. A. Reynolds, E. D. Nieswander and O. Frost are Portland men in Heppner this week, looking for locations. Mr. Reynolds is a contractor and builder and will put up a home here if he can get a suitable location. He is also interested in raising some cattle which are at present being fed on a ranch out from Heppner, and he desires to get located here that he may be able to enlarge his business and also be in position to take advantage of the school facilities that our city offers. Mr. Nieswander is also a man of family and desires to become a resident of the city.

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cypert of Walla Walla have been visiting the past couple of weeks in Morrow county, at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Frank Parker of Six Dollar. They started on their return on Monday, going by way of Lexington, their former home, where they will visit for a day and then on to Pendleton and Walla Walla.

Pete Prophet and Buck Adams are residents of Hardman that were doing business in Heppner on Friday last.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES.
I. O. O. F. Hall.
Sunday at 11:00 a. m. Subject: "Substance."
Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at Mrs. Gene Slocums.
Everybody is welcome.

S
A
F
E
T
Y
&

S
E
R
V
I
C
E

A FULL MEASURE OF SERVICE

The First National Bank was established to serve the people in a helpful way—not merely today, but tomorrow and every day. A permanent Institution such as the First National renders continuous service to its patrons.

When you become associated with this bank, you receive full measure of service. As time goes on, you will become better acquainted, and the benefits from our service will grow as opportunities to serve you increase.

Now is the time to open that account you have planned on.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Heppner, Oregon

The Universal Garage

HILL & JOHNS, Props.

AFTER THE "FLU"

We are back on the job.

Lieut. C. B. Vickers, lately discharged from the U. S. Aviation Service, a gas engine and Ford expert, is now in our shop in charge of all Ford work. We have lately improved our shop equipment. Bring in your car, whatever make it is, and whatever the trouble is, we will repair it for you.

All Work Guaranteed

ACCESSORIES OIL AND GAS STORAGE

OIL INVESTORS

"INVESTIGATE BEFORE YOU BUY"

Free Information on oil companies and promotions to subscribers for the

TEXAS OIL CRITIC

One Year ESTABLISHED 1915 One Year
$1.00 Sample Copy Free $1.00

THE TEXAS OIL CRITIC is an independent publication issued every Saturday at Fort Worth in the interest of the investors in oil securities. It is not a house organ and is not affiliated with promotions of any kind.

THE TEXAS OIL CRITIC

F. & M. Bank Building,
Fort Worth, Texas.

IMPORTANT TO AUTO OWNERS

HAVING leased the mechanical Department of the new McRoberts-Cohn Auto Company Garage, we are prepared to assume the care and upkeep of your car in a satisfactory manner. The shop is being rapidly equipped with the latest models of machinery and no job will be too intricate for us to handle.

We have had years of experience in this work. Will make prompt delivery.

The season is fast approaching which permits the use of your car. Bring it in and let us look it over. We will tell you what it needs and you can rely upon our advice.

We stand behind our statements and guarantee our work.

Welch & Lininger

What's Your Tailor?

REGISTERED IN U. S. PAT. OFF. 1906 BY ED. V. PRICE & CO.

Personal Distinction

depends so largely upon correct attire that its considerations should not be lightly set aside. To secure the identical fashion and fabrics necessary to bring out your individuality decide today upon selecting

Delivery arranged to suit your convenience

Minor & Company

Exclusive Local Dealers for Ed. V. Price & Co.

