Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer, of Ione, were visitors in Heppner Saturday. Mrs. McNamer is one of the instructors in the Ione High School.

J. G. Thomson was among the Heppner people attending the airplane performance at Walla Walla on Sunday. A break on his car made him late in getting home on Monday.

J. F. Lucas and family went over to Pendleton Friday afternoon, and from there on to Walla Walla Saturday to take in the big airplane circus.

Mr. and Mrs. B. R. Patterson were among those of this city who attended the flying circus at Walla Walla on Sunday, going over in their big touring car.

H. M. Olden, Fairview farmer, was in Heppner Saturday and wearing a smile that will not come off.

His prospects for a good crop were never better.

W. H. Cronk, manager of Tum-A-Lum Lumber Co. for the Heppner branch, has been in Walla Walla all this week on business connected with the head office.

R. R. Lewis, who drove over to Heppner this week reports that the crop outlook in the country between Echo and Heppner is the best he has ever seen in this section.—Echo News.

John T. Kirk and family departed this week for the Alsea country, where Mr. Kirk owns a place. They will spend the summer in the coast country, making improvements on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Anderson and Miss Lucille Elder went to Pendleton on Saturday afternoon, and on Sunday they motored on over to Walla Walla to take in the airplane maneuvers.

Anson Wright was down from Hardman Tuesday. He delivered a bunch of coyote scalps at the court house for his boy who captured a lot of seven young ones the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Hunt who reside southeast of Lexington, rejoice over the arrival of a daughter at their home on the 14th inst. Dr. Chick reports all parties concerned as doing well.

Leonard Gilliam and wife and Misses Rubina and Violet Corrigan visited Walla Walla Sunday to see the flying circus. Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward were also among Heppner people that were there.

Miss Avilla Walker of Hardman, underwent an operation at the hands of Dr. C. C. Chick, at the Heppner Sanatorium on Thursday of last week. Miss Walker is getting along well at the present time.

A deed was placed on record this week from Mary A. Morris, of Portland, transferring Section 36, Tp. 1 N. R. 23, to Walter I. Wood, of Lebanon, Oregon. The consideration named was nominal.

Beri Gurdano, Walter Moore, Spencer Crawford and Marshall Phelps motored to Pendleton late Saturday evening, and from there on to Walla Walla Sunday morning to view the airplane maneuvers.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Furlong, of Eight Mile, were visitors in Heppner Saturday. These people are figuring very strongly on getting them a home in this city, in order to take advantage of our school facilities.

Peter Benson of Morgan, recently disposed of his wheat land near that place to Fred Mankin, and the latter this week sells the property to his brother, Homer Mankin, according to a deed filed in the office of Clerk Waters.

W. O. Bayless this week sold his property in South Heppner to D. C. Watkins of the Cash market. Mr. Watkins moved into this property last week, and to make himself secure in a home, he decided to purchase the place.

E. J. Merrill was down from Hardman Sunday, getting the necessary supplies for his district to aid in putting over the Victory Liberty Loan. He expects that Hardman and vicinity will line up in its usual patriotic manner.

Mrs. Dr. Hennig, who has been visiting with her husband in Heppner during the past week, returned to their home in Ione on Monday. Dr. Hennig is at present assisting Mr. Dickman with the plastering on the Gillman building.

W. T. McRoberts, who recently retired from the garage business in this city, will now enter the field of ranching of the community. He has purchased the place of Orve Rasmus on Balm Fork and expects to move on the same immediately with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Keene were visiting at the home of Judge and Mrs. W. T. Campbell Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Keene are well pleased with their new home on Rhea creek, now owning the old Billy Gilliam place which they recently purchased from Glenn Hayes.

J. A. Lovgren, who farms quite extensively in the Gooseberry section, was a visitor in Heppner for the first time in many moons. He states that prosperity is staring the Gooseberry people in the face at the present time and there is an abundant prospect for good crops.

Edgar Copenhaver is home on a two weeks furlough from the naval station at Mare Island. It has been almost two years since Edgar visited with the home folks and during this time he was on patrol duty about the Philippine Islands. He will return to Mare Island next week.

R. E. Johns, boss carpenter in charge of work in this city under Contractor Lansdowne, departed Monday morning for Pendleton, having completed his work here. Mr. Johns may return to Heppner later on, when further building operations are under way in this city.

A. Henriksen and son passed through Heppner Saturday morning with their bunch of cattle, taking them to the mountain ranch from their alfalfa farm near Cecil. The cattle all seemed to be wintered well, and Mr. Henriksen states that they will have good pasture in the timber.

J. B. Sparks and wife and young son, departed Sunday for Portland, and after spending a day in that city, will go on to Seattle to attend a meeting of the Exhibitors League of Oregon and Washington, held in that city this week. They expected to witness the "Flying Circus" in Portland on Monday.

Dr. Fred Ferrer, dentist, is expected to arrive at Heppner by the first of the coming month. He will have offices upstairs in the Fair building over the postoffice. Dr. Ferrer was in the city a short time ago and made arrangements for his offices and the rooms have been placed in nice shape to receive his fixtures.

Ed Reitmman, young farmer of the one section, was doing business in Heppner Tuesday. Mr. Reitmman states that crop prospects throughout his part of the county were never better, and there is an excess acreage sown this season. Should nothing unforeseen happen, he looks for a very heavy yield in that part of the country north of Ione.

Following the Liberty of their company during past Liberty Loans, W. S. Bowen, manager of the Oregon Life Insurance Co. subscribed for a $1000 bond, upon the opening of the loan campaign this week, to be applied to Morrow county's quota. The Oregon Life made similar subscriptions to this in the last three loans, and they have followed the policy of distributing their bond subscriptions over the various counties of the state in which they have a volume of business, and their subscriptions have been very generous.

D. B. Stalter returned on Saturday after a visit of a month with his daughter, Mrs. VanValkenberg at Payette, Idaho. He also enjoyed a visit there with a sister from Nebraska, whom he had not seen for thirty years. Dan reports that there is evidence of much prosperity in the section of Idaho where he visited. He will now prepare to go to the Greenhorn for the summer's run at the Mayflower mine.

On account of illness, the date of Bess Gearhart Morrison, as the last number on the High School Lyceum Course for last evening had to be cancelled. Mrs. Morrison is a fine entertainer and it was a disappointment to the patrons of the course that she was unable to meet her engagement in Heppner.
