

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Meet me at the Races Condon June 11, 12, 13 and 14.

H. E. Bartholomew, sheepman of Stanfield, was in Heppner on business Monday.

Fred Albert, rancher of the Lena section, was doing business in Heppner on Saturday. We acknowledge a pleasant call from him.

Luther Huston departed Tuesday for Albany, where he goes to be at the bedside of his brother, John who is very critically ill.

FOR SALE—Roan Shorthorn bull, lone, were Pendleton visitors last

3 years old. See animal at Minor ranch just west of Heppner.

Mrs. W. E. Brock, of Pendleton, arrived in Heppner Tuesday and is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. Josie Jones.

Mrs. W. L. Dinsmoor arrived from San Francisco on Friday to be present at the bedside of her father, the late Orin E. Farnsworth.

Judge F. H. Robinson, attorney of lone, is in attendance upon court at Heppner this week, being interested in a number of cases now pending.

Jay E. Berry of Umatilla, was a new name added to our list this week. Mr. Berry formerly resided near Lexington, where his brother, E. P. Berry, now resides.

Rev. J. L. Jones and family of lone, were Pendleton visitors last evening, on their way to Chehalis, Ida., where Mr. Jones assumes a new pastorate.—Pendleton Tribune.

Edgar J. Ball, prosperous young farmer of the lone country, is in Heppner this week on jury duty. He is accompanied by his wife and infant daughter.

Judge Gilbert W. Phelps and J. S. Beckwith, court reporter, arrived from Pendleton Sunday evening to be on hand for the opening of the May term of Circuit court Monday morning.

W. B. Finley was in from the Alpine section on Monday. He reports the crop conditions out his way as being good so far and a little moisture coming within the next few weeks will assure a fine yield.

Mrs. Dr. V. L. Hamilton arrived from her home at Coquille, Oregon on Friday evening last and is visiting at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Clark, and with her sister, Mrs. Albert Bowker of this city.

John L. Rand, prominent attorney of Baker is associated with Judge Fee in handling the case of the plaintiff in the damage suit of James Johnson vs. Ben Colvin, now on trial before Judge Phelps in the Circuit Court here.

Errett Hicks, attorney of Canyon City, arrived at Heppner Monday. He is assisting with the defense in the suit of Johnson vs. Colvin. Sam E. Van Vactor of this city is also one of the associate attorneys for the defense in this case.

James Johnson arrived on Monday from his ranch at Range, Grant county. His brother, Felix Johnson, is also here, they being interested in the suit of Johnson vs. Colvin now being tried out in the Circuit court before Judge Phelps.

W. F. Palmateer, pioneer farmer of the Morgan country, was doing business in Heppner Tuesday. Mr. Palmateer states that the crop outlook is very fine in his section at present but needs some seasonable rains to insure a bumper yield.

Dr. M. M. Johnson, local veterinarian, accompanied by Mrs. Johnson, left for Clarkston, Wash., this morning. They expect to be absent for about six days and will bring back their household effects with the view of making Heppner their permanent home.

Col. J. H. Raley, leading attorney and senior member of Raley & Raley of Pendleton, is in Heppner this week, having charge of the defense in the case of Johnson vs. Colvin, being tried before Judge Phelps on a change of venue from Grant county.

Messrs. C. A. Minor and Robert Thompson, and their wives, of Heppner, were in this city over Sunday returning to their home yesterday morning. The men had been here to interview Supervisor Cryder, of the Forest Service in regard to grazing.—Pendleton Tribune.

Morrow county is calling for the names of all persons who did war work. This is to cover home service work, as well as military service. Oregon is to have a war history, and every county in the state is to have a chapter. Will you kindly hand this information to Mrs. A. E. Binns, Morrow County Historian.

The Cohn Hat shop was sold recently to Mrs. Aura Clinigan formerly of Portland, who has had many years in the millinery business. The store was formerly owned by Mrs. L. E. Cohn, who was assisted by her daughter, Mrs. Gladys Phelps, who will retain her position in the store as an assistant of Mrs. Clinigan.—Pendleton Tribune.

M. Sepanek returned Saturday from Portland where he went with the body of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Streed, for burial. He was at Hood River enroute to Portland last week with Mr. Streed when a telegram notified him of the finding of Mrs. Streed's body at The Dalles. The other child has not been found.—Echo News.

In answer to a telegram received late Saturday evening, announcing the very serious illness of his father, John Huston at Albany, E. R. Huston departed for that city on Monday. He would have gone sooner but for the fact that he was quite ill himself when the news was received. The elder Mr. Huston was a victim of influenza the early part of the year and he was left in very poor health as a result.

Oris R. H. Padberg, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Padberg, of Heppner Flat, was married on Sunday last to Miss Cattie J. Friedley, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Friedley of Clarks Canyon. Rev. H. A. Noyes of Heppner performing the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs. Padberg will make their home on one of the places belonging to the father of the groom in the vicinity of Clarks Canyon.

One, McMillan a sheep shear, was taken in Tuesday night by Sheriff Shutt and presented before Judge Cornett on a charge of being drunk. A bottle was taken from him, which apparently contained beef, iron and wine, it being so labeled, but whatever it was, it had a kick. The Judge assessed a fine of $25 and costs, and McMillan promised to commit no further offenses of this character.

Frank P. Farnsworth arrived from his home at Riverside, Wash., Wednesday morning, in answer to a summons that his father was very low. He did not reach Heppner, however, until Mr. Farnsworth had passed away. It has been 12 years since Frank left Heppner and this is his first visit home. He notes a big change in the looks of the city, but is pleased to see that our disaster is not keeping us down and that splendid improvements are now under way.

Judge James A. Fee, of Pendleton is appearing in court this week. He is attorney for James Johnson in his damage suit against Ben Colvin. This case grew out of the criminal charges against Colvin, in which he was twice tried at Canyon City, the first time for the theft of cattle belonging to Johnson, and the second time on a charge of perjury, the jury in both cases failing to convict. Judge Fee has appeared in court here on different occasions as an attorney, and a number of years ago he was the presiding judge in this district and held court in Heppner. It has been several years, however, since he had business of a legal nature before the Circuit Court of Morrow county.

CHURCH ANNOUNCEMENTS

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SERVICES.

I. O. O. F. Hall.

Sunday at 11:00 a. m. Subject: "Mortals and Immortals." Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at Mrs. Gene Slocums. Everybody is welcome.

THE FEDERATED CHURCH.

Sunday School, 9:45 a. m. International Lesson, "Faith, God's Gift." Morning Service, 11:00. Sermon Theme, "Christian Experience." Baccalaureate services for the graduating class at High School will be held at 8:00 p. m. and for this reason the Christian Endeavor will not meet next Sunday evening. H. A. NOYES, Pastor.

MEMORIAL SUNDAY.

Memorial Sunday, May 25th, the services will be held at the Federated church, Rev. H. A. Noyes, pastor, officiating, 11:30 a. m. being the hour.

All Civil War, Spanish War and Great War veterans, with all their friends are invited to this service. This year should be one in which all services pertaining to Memorial Day, should be fittingly observed by all our citizens. Morrow county furnished her contribution to the casualty list in this great war, tho we were very fortunate in regard to fatalities suffered. Out of the seven boys who have suffered wounds and other injuries, none have died and now the most of these boys are getting home and it is fitting that we meet with all these and remember our soldier dead of the other wars.

TREASURER'S NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that all Morrow county warrants, registered up to and including April 30, 1919, will be paid upon presentation at my office. Interest ceases after the 20th of May, 1919.

T. J. HUMPHREYS, County Treasurer.

WARNING.

Depredations to our flume and interference with the screens and water pipes of consumers must cease. This water way is not a playground, and parents will be held responsible for all damages and costs because of the acts of their children. If your children have been in the habit of sailing their boats in this flume, keep them away, as we have personally warned them for the last time. 11 Heppner Farmers Elevator Company.
