

LAST THOUGHTS OF ROOSEVELT

Desired Republicans to Close Ranks and Give Attention to Domestic Issues.

TANGIBLE EVIDENCE OF WISH.

Theodore Roosevelt's last thoughts were of the great domestic issues of his country, issues whose determination will decide the weal or woe of the next generation. He saw in a united Republican party, just given a vote of confidence and a commission to formulate and carry into action policies of reconstruction, the guarantee of the prompt recognition and successful handling of these domestic problems.

Tangible evidence of this is a memorandum, the last penciled thoughts of the late President. To Colonel George Harvey and the North American Review the country and the Republican party are indebted for the publication of this interesting document which carries a message from him "who, being dead, yet speaketh." In the leading article of the current number of the North American Review Colonel Harvey sets forth the vital import of this last penciled notation of Mr. Roosevelt. He says:

"Mr. Roosevelt died the acknowledged leader of the great party into which he was born. His last written words, penciled by his own hand a few hours before his death and addressed in the form of a memorandum for the brilliant young man for whose selection as Chairman of the National organization he was largely responsible, were these, as reproduced above in facsimile:

"Hays see him; he must go to Washington for 10 days; see Senate and House; prevent split on domestic policies."

"Here is evidenced as clearly as if the few words filled a volume Mr. Roosevelt's realization of both his responsibility and his obligation. The simple memorandum marked the inauguration of a definite party policy, to be carried through to a no less definite conclusion. It was more than a passing thought or a mere suggestion. It was a Message, signifying the need of immediate and unremitting vigilance in achieving complete unity of action in resolving domestic problems before attacking those of wider range soon to be thrust upon the country—a true soldier's call first to close the ranks.

"Nothing could be more characteristic or more clearly illustrative of the breadth of vision, the foresight, the directness in method and the painstaking attention of the man. Nothing, too, probably could have served his purpose better than that these words should have been his last. Difficult as it is to reconcile oneself to the decree of Divine Providence that the removal of that great patriot at this crucial moment was not untimely, we cannot but realize, as he would have been the first to acknowledge, that the last vestige of animosities which might have continued to impair his highest aspirations was buried with him, and thereby the perfect union which he so ardently desired against all things un-American was attained.

"Thus we find the Republican party resuming full legislative authority thoroughly united and invigorated by the peculiar confidence which so often carried it to victory in former years."

ROOSEVELT'S DEPARTING WORDS TO HIS COUNTRYMEN

Col. Roosevelt died about 4 o'clock on the morning of January 6. The previous evening at a great patriotic rally in the New York Hippodrome a message was read from him, written especially for the occasion. In it was this striking sentence:

"We have room for but one flag, the American flag, and this excludes the red flag, which symbolizes all wars against liberty and civilization just as much as it excludes any foreign flag of a nation to which we are hostile, and we have room for but one loyalty, and that is loyalty to the American people."

METHODISTS GET READY FOR GREAT CENTENARY DRIVE

Campaign For $105,000,000 To Rebuild World On.

DOING, NOT TALKING, IS AIM

Forty Million Dollars to Be Spent on Home Programme, $40,000,000 on Foreign Field and $25,000,000 For War Reconstruction.

The church in America intends to take its place in the forefront. From now on, its motto will be "doing," not talking.

Hence, in celebration of the 100th anniversary of the foundation of Christian missions, the Methodist Episcopal church and the Methodist Episcopal church, south, have joined in a nationwide Methodist centenary campaign.

Every phase of Methodist church life has been enlisted. The aim of the colossal campaign is the rebuilding of the world.

$140,000,000 to Be Raised. In brief, the Methodist Episcopal churches of both branches will ask for a total of $140,000,000 for their joint aims. Especially detailed are those aims so far as they concern the Methodist Episcopal church, which in the seven-day period of May 18-25 will ask for $105,000,000.

Here is how that money will be spent:

Forty million dollars on the greatest foreign mission programme ever conceived, lasting five years; embracing the building and operating of schools, hospitals, dispensaries, colleges and everything that will benefit mankind. Christianity will be preached too, but the aim of this new and bigger Methodism is to live Christianity and the brotherhood of man.

$40,000,000 at Home. Forty million dollars will go for a carefully detailed programme of home missions. But the programme again

BRILLIANT PREACHER IS CENTENARY LEADER

DR. A. L. HOWARTH Dr. A. L. Howarth is the associate executive secretary of the $105,000,000 Methodist Centenary movement for rebuilding the world, with headquarters at Portland, Or. Dr. Howarth is one of the most brilliant preachers in the northwest and during the Centenary campaign his every Sunday has been occupied with demands for addresses. As executive secretary, he supervises the business details of the vast Centenary plans in the Portland area, which consists of the state of Washington, a large part of the state of Oregon and northern Idaho.

calls for living Christianity and doing Christian things, rather than preaching Methodism. Great community churches in the big cities where there will be healthy amusements and where the church buildings will be open seven days a week; community churches in the country—$11,000,000 alone will be spent on helping to make the country church a real factor, building cross roads churches, making allowances so that the rural church can get the best of pastors and pay them a salary that will interest them; educational work in the cities; help pastors to get a living wage.

Twenty-five million dollars will be expended in the next five years at the rate of $5,000,000 on direct war reconstruction work equally divided between Europe and this country. Close on $3,000,000 has already been spent by the sending to Europe of the first Methodist mission ship. Perhaps there were Bibles on board, but there were a great many more plows and tractors. That great ship was loaded to the gunwales with everything that could help a people to rebuild.

United Church is Aim. Methodism is preaching a united church—a common church. It is urging that churches unite, the smaller churches closing that the stronger ones may be stronger yet. "Let us have a strong, dominant Christianity," say the Methodist leaders. "Never mind about the special brand. "With Christianity and the golden rule ruling the world, peace, democracy and Christianity will be unitedly safe forever."

SEVEN AIRPLANES AT PORTLAND ROSE SHOW

Portland, Oregon, June 4.—On the eve of the Victory Rose Festival, June 11, 12 and 13, every indication points to the most successful of all festivals.

A squadron of seven—possibly eight—airplanes, six JN4H, one de Havilland and one huge Martin bomber, will fly from Mather Field, Sacramento, under the command of Lieutenant Colonel Watson. It is possible that General Monohor, commanding officer of the field, will take the flight in the Martin bomber which is being tuned up in anticipation of the flight. These planes will arrive in Portland late June 10th, after the trip over the Siskiyou and stops at Medford, Roseburg, Eugene, Salem and possibly other Western Oregon cities. They will remain here to take part in the huge aerial circus and at times will carry civilian passengers on flights over the city.

Rear Admiral Fullam aboard his flagship, the Minneapolis, will bring a fleet of warships from southern waters. Two seaplanes will be brought by the Minneapolis, the first to be seen in action in the Northwest. Salem, Oregon City, Eugene, Madras, Roseburg, Brownsville, Hillsboro, Prineville and LaGrande in Oregon will all enter floats in the festival pageants while Seattle, Tacoma, Port Angeles, Chehalis, Montesano, Ridgefield, Kalama, Camas, and Centralia in Washington will take part. Other Oregon and Washington cities have yet to make formal entry although their presence has been assured. Vancouver, B. C., with its float will give the festival an international rating.

The Victory Industrial parade will be held June 11th under the joint auspices of the festival and the 16th annual convention of the Pacific Coast, Advertising Mens' Association. The monster military parade will follow June 12th in which the principal military units and organizations and their auxiliaries will play leading parts. The huge floral parade, the feature of every festival, will be a glorious climax for the Festival June 13th.

In addition to the fleets of warships and aeroplanes, the parades and many other features, a street carnival of several blocks in the heart of the city will be another magnet.

Under the direction of the Progressive Business Men's Club, the housing situation will be handled in a manner that will provide accommodations for everyone and eliminate all possible overcharges.

Portland's gates are to be thrown open and a royal reception for the men home from military service will be the keynote of the 1919 Victory Rose Festival.

LOWER WILLOW CREEK PROGRESSIVE.

The lower Willow creek section is taking on progress and now boasts of the Lower Willow Creek Booster Club, which was organized by the people of that section on Saturday evening, May 24th.

The report given this paper is to the effect that the meeting was a very interesting one and the Willow Creek precinct was largely represented. They grew enthusiastic over good roads and resolutions for the betterment of community interests were passed unanimously.

Everett Logan was elected president and O. L. Lundell, secretary of this new booster club, and Lower Willow creek is now united in a determined effort to work for those things that will help to build up their community, and we shall expect to hear further good reports from them.

New Restaurant Building Going Up.

Frank Roberts has purchased the Mollie Reed lot just west of the Gazette-Times office on Willow street and is now busy getting the same in shape for the erection of a new building thereon. This building is to be of concrete, 34x50 feet, one story, and when completed is to be occupied by Ed Chin, the present owner of the Elkhorn Restaurant. It is planned to have a thoroughly equipped and strictly up to date restaurant and Mr. Roberts will rush the building to completion just as rapidly as possible. The deal for the lot was closed during the past week.
