FORERUNNER OF WHAT MAY BE EXPECTED LATER

Difficult Even Now to Get Men to Volunteer for Military Service in Europe.

Washington, June 2.—Congressmen have discovered a keen resentment among officers in the regular army establishment against the recently announced policy of the War Department to send all permanent officers overseas. The policy just adopted calls for the use of these officers as replacements with indications that their services will continue as long as it is necessary to maintain American forces in Europe.

When General Pershing first called for 50,000 men to take the place of the men on the Rhine who wanted to return to provide for their families at home, an intensive recruiting system was inaugurated. At the same time commanding officers were instructed to compile a list of officers in their units who were anxious to serve overseas.

While practically every man holding a commission in the United States Army used every influence at his command to get "over there" while the war was on, the department has discovered a marked disinclination to go to France and Germany at this time. As the officering of the forces is an imperative necessity, the department has issued orders to select officers regardless of the preference of the individual.

Men experienced in American military matters point to this as having a potent bearing upon any agreement guaranteeing this country's participation in any war that may break out in Europe or elsewhere in the world in the future. If officers, whose life work is military work, are not willing voluntarily to offer

APPLES AND MILK IS CHO-CHO'S TEXT

Cho-Cho the highest paid circus clown in the United States, goes about getting his smiles in a scientific way. He has been employed by the government, working from the Interior Department—and he tells the kiddies, "to eat red apples and drink a pint of milk a day, you will smile to see how much you weigh."

their services to police Europe or the uttermost parts of the earth in order to prevent war, students of the situation cannot see how it will be possible to enlist men actively to engage in actual war brought on by the United States being compelled to interfere in European affairs, or affairs elsewhere which involve European nations alone. Yet this is conceded to be the undoubted result of this nation's being a party to guaranteeing existing boundaries in Europe and the disposition of colonies elsewhere.

There is no doubt that in time of peril to America's honor or in time when America's safety and rights are at stake, not only the regular army officers and men but the great mass of Americans would volunteer to protect the country and defend its honor. But it is pointed out that even now there are about twenty small wars raging in Europe over boundary lines and between jealous nationalities, between some of which there has been racial hatred for generations. It is obvious that one of two alternatives are just ahead. Either these wars will continue and grow and involve all of Europe, as the small Balkan wars did, or the larger nations must step in and put an end to the conflicts. In either event it means that boundary lines and decisions made by the present peace conference will have to be propped up with bayonets.

Hey Winn Buys $100,000 Ranch.

Hey Winn of Weston has purchased the 1920 acre ranch of W. B. Potter, located nine miles west of Winona, Wash., for a consideration said to be in the neighborhood of $100,000. Of the land purchased 950 acres is in wheat.—East Oregonian.

Mr. Potter was formerly in business in Heppner, going from here to Spray, where he ran a stock ranch for a number of years, disposing of this some three years ago for the wheat land at Winona. From this item it would appear that Billy had struck it pretty rich.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Anderson left on Friday morning last for a trip through Central Oregon, their destination being Bend. The trip was taken purely for pleasure.

R. V. Whitels is sojourning in the Grant county country this week, on a trip of business and pleasure combined. He expects to be absent some ten days and will visit Mt. Vernon springs.

F. A. McMenaugh went to Portland Friday on legal business. He

HINTON'S LAME DUCK MADE AIR HISTORY

From enlistment as common seaman to the hero of the American navy in six years, reads in the life of Lieutenant Walter Hinton, commander of the NC4, the "lame duck" of the ocean flyers and the only seaplane to fly the Atlantic trials, but made history when its test came. Hinton enlisted in 1913 returned home on Tuesday via Boardman, where he assisted in boosting Morrow county's good roads program in that locality.

Misses Elaine Sigsbee and Mary Crawford spent the past week at the country home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Turner, where they enjoyed themselves to the limit.

Gene Jones is over from the Spray country, where he has been ranching for the past three years. He has closed up his interests there and will try to get located in the ranch business in the vicinity of Heppner.

Come and See the New Chandler Touring Car

Most Beautiful Big-Car Offering of the Season, and the Price is Only $1795

THE new Chandler touring model is here. We waited for it. Old Chandler owners have waited for it. It's here now and we are all proud and happy.

The Chandler of the past has had splendid bodies, but the new Chandler touring car even surpassing its immediate fore-runner in workmanship and in its lustrous finish.

The new Chandler Touring is a big car. Its high hood and radiator, its broad cowl, its wide and deep doors give it distinctive appearance.

And it RIDES,—it rides like a dream

Nothing has been cut out to permit the delivery of this fine big touring car at the Chandler price. Indeed, many little details of nicety are added. The back curtain window is beveled plate glass. The clear-vision side curtains fit snugly and open with the doors. There are detachable rear quarter-bow curtains. There are outside door handles.

Features which have been standard Chandler qualities in the past are continued. The cushions are upholstered in genuine hand-buffed plaid leather. The front compartment floor boards are covered with heavy gray linoleum, aluminum-board. The two comfortable auxiliary chairs fold away, entirely concealed, when not in use.

Carrying this Handsome Body Is the Famous Chandler Chassis

You will choose the new Chandler touring for its bigness and its comfort and its handsome dignity. But you will choose it, too, for its mechanical excellence. Fifty thousand Chandler owners know, better than we can tell you, what a good car the Chandler is. The famous Chandler motor and the sturdy chassis of the whole chassis make the Chandler notable among fine cars.

The Chandler continues for 1919 all its distinguished mechanical features; solid cast aluminum motor base extending from frame to frame, silent chain drive for the auxiliary motor shafts, annular ball bearings, Bosch Magneto ignition and many other features of design and equipment characteristic of the highest-class motor car construction.
