

MOTORISTS

The increase of our business has compelled us to enlist the services of two more expert auto mechanics from Portland.

We are now prepared to take on more customers without that troublesome delay.

We are striving to give you quick, intelligent service at a moderate cost and are now prepared to do so, more than ever.

All of our work is absolutely guaranteed, with no "ifs" or "ands." A guarantee that is everything the word implies. Ask our many more than pleased customers.

Remember, we do Ford repair work at contract prices, also, no job in the auto repair business is "too tough." That's our business.

Yours for complete satisfaction
