On the way east he will stop at Denver to visit the reclamation heads there and secure the balance of necessary data needed on the reservoir site for presentation on reaching Washington, D. C. Mile Ranch of 1000 Acres

Ray Young closed a deal the past week with his father, J. S. Young, for the transfer of 1000 acres of land, the old home place on Eight Mile. The consideration was $30,000.
The ranch is considered one of the best in the Eight Mile country. The younger Young will take possession in the fall. He is now farming in that section and has a good equipment of stock and farming implements.
The elder Mr. Young expects to go to Portland in the near future.

Buys California Orange Grove.
W. E. Brown of Walla Walla, who formerly farmed in the Black Horse section, was spending a few days in Heppner the last of the week on business. His father, John Brown, has been making his home in California for the past several months.

W. L. Copenhaver of Sand Hollow has chosen Heppner for a home for his family. Mr. Copenhaver has just purchased the N. E. Winnard property in the western part of town and will take possession at once. The children have been attending school in Heppner and they will find it more convenient by having their own home here.

College Poultry Pays Profit.
Profits of $1300 were netted by a Lebanon poultryman who used O. A. C. stock. His 600 hens, half of which were pullets, averaged 150 eggs a year. Another with 35 leg-horns sold 214 1/2 dozen eggs, set 24 1/2 dozen, and used 83 1/2 dozen on the table. His feed cost was $62.50, leaving his net gains $102.07.

Oregon Jerseys Beat Sale Record.
Thirty-eight Jerseys brought an average of $1097 at the Jersey sale held by Ed. Carey at Carlton, June 16. Mr. Carey had bred all but six on his farm, and these 32 brought an average of $1132. Three cows went to the Hood Farm, Mass., where a certain well advertised brand of sarsaparilla is made. Two went to California. "The best of it is," says Prof. E. B. Fitts of the O. A. C. dairy department, "the others were grabbed by Oregon breeders and dairymen who refused to let some high eastern bids by wire deprive the state of these high-producing cattle."

O. A. C. Holds Military Rank.
Distinguished college rank has been bestowed on Oregon Agricultural College the third time by the U. S. war department. This is granted for excellence in military science and drill. This high honor is accorded only 10 colleges in the United States.

Willis Ward and family came in from their farm home in the Black Horse section Saturday to attend the picnic.
