

BERRIES

Strawberry season is now on. It will soon pass and you should place your order for fruit for canning and preserving now. There is no indication that prices will be much lower, if any.

If You Want Strawberries, See Us Now

We carry Quality Groceries, our service is prompt and you get genuine satisfaction by dealing with us.

Sam Hughes Company

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Walter Smith, lone real estate dealer, has a Heppner business visit on Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Ike Howard were in the city Wednesday from their farm home near Ione.

J. B. Sparks, owner of theaters at Heppner and Condon, drove over from Condon Tuesday.

George Frank, the man who keeps Ione straight, was in Heppner on official business Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. George N. Peck of Lexington were in Heppner Saturday and enjoyed the picnic at the fair grounds.

W. A. Smith of Barnhart Brothers & Spindler, returned to Seattle Friday after setting up the new press at The Gazette-Times office.

Dwight Misner, who farms north of Ione, started his combine Wednesday. Reports would indicate that the grain is making a good yield.

At the annual budget meeting of school district No. 1 last Friday afternoon the budget for the next school year was accepted.

R. D. Watkins left Tuesday for Ho' Lake Sanatorium to take treatment at that well known resort for the benefit of his much run down physical condition.

Jeff Beamer of the local delivery service, is again able to be on the job after being confined to his home. He has completely recovered from his recent illness.

Mrs. H. A. Cummins and daughter Dorothy of Ione have gone to Underwood, Wash., to make a short visit with Mrs. Cummins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Vinton.

Among the teachers in Heppner this week to take the teachers' examinations are Prof. Kellogg and wife of Wasco county. They have a small farm in Tygh valley.

E. J. Starkey, local electrician, motored over to Monument Saturday to do some work for the light plant here. He was accompanied by Mrs. Starkey and their little daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Munkers of Lexington came up Saturday to attend the farmers picnic. They were accompanied by Case Fuqua, formerly a farmer of the Eight Mile section.

H. S. Perry, prominent Gilliam county farmer, was in Heppner Wednesday from his farm near Lons Rock. Mr. Perry says crop conditions and especially hay, are fine this year.

Miss Mary Notson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson, arrived home from Salem Saturday. Miss Notson has been attending the Willamette University during the past year.

Mrs. A. G. DeVore and daughter Loyal and Cecile left Monday for Portland. They will be absent from Heppner all summer and will visit points in the Willamette Valley and the coast before returning home.

Mrs. Luther Huston was called to Portland Tuesday by the death of her mother, Mrs. Jack McHaley, who passed away in that city early Tuesday morning. Mrs. McHaley had been in failing health for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. John Stevenson of Pilot Rock were visitors in Heppner over the week end with relatives and friends. Mr. Stevenson is engaged in the harness and saddlery business in the thriving south end Umatilla town.

Among the many Heppner people who attended the Rose show in Portland were C. E. Jones and family. Mr. Jones returned home and Mrs. Jones and the children went on to Walla Walla to make a visit with relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvie Young were in town from their Eight Mile ranch Tuesday. Mr. Young says his spring grain is looking better now than it did two weeks ago and gives promise of making a heavier yield than was then indicated.

Two former Heppner boys came over from Pendleton with the ball team last Sunday. They are Dave and James Wilson, sons of Wm. Wilson of this city. Dave has a position with the First National Bank of Pendleton and James is employed in one of the stores there. Both are doing well.

There will be a big Round-Up at Lena next Sunday. These events are held there from time to time and are growing in popular favor. It is said that the bull-dogging and roping, as well as the broncho twisting are of a quality that exceeds much of the stuff put on at the Pendleton round-up. Eddie Sheridan has charge of the show.

John Gurdane, pioneer Pendleton resident, has been spending several days in Heppner on a visit with his son, D. C. Gurdane. The town of Gurdane in this county was named for Mr. Gurdane. Although he has rounded out 95 years of a busy life, Mr. Gurdane is still quite active and in appearance is younger than many men of 75.

Louis Padberg, Lexington farmer, spent Monday in Heppner on business.

Norman Florence returned Sunday from a visit to outside points.

The Frank Turner family returned last Thursday from a trip to Grant county.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bisbee of Spray were visitors in Heppner the first of the week.

Miss Beatrice Sperry of Ione was visiting with friends in Heppner Sunday.

Jas. Carty, well known sheepman of the north Lexington section, spent Monday in Heppner on business.

The 26th annual meeting of the Oregon State Dental Association will be held in Portland July 7, 8, 9 and 10.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Cason of Ione were visitors over the week end at the home of Walter Cason in Heppner.

W. B. Barratt, prominent local sheepman, has been re-appointed as a member of the State Livestock Sanitary Board by Governor Ben Olcott.

A. Henriksen, prominent farmer and stockman of Ceell, spent a few days in Heppner last week on business.

Miss Mary Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Clark, has been visiting during the past week in The Dalles as a guest of Miss Cleone Andrews.

Chas. Jayne was taken to the Heppner Sanatorium last week, suffering from an attack of gout. Through medical attention and nursing his condition is improving.

Contractor T. G. Denisse has a force of men busy this week pouring the concrete in the forms for the basement of the new two-story Gilliam & Bisbee hardware building on Main street.

Among the Sand Hollow people attending the Farmers picnic in Heppner Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Turner, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hanshaw, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Swaggart and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Turner.

M. F. Parker, prominent young business man of Lexington, spent a few hours in Heppner last Friday. Mr. Parker is with the W. F. Barnett store in Lexington.

C. B. Vickers of the Universal Garage went on a fishing trip up on Caplinger creek last Sunday and met with fair success. He saw a fine buck deer on the hills near Rhea creek.

C. A. Lansdowne, contractor and builder, who recently completed a number of new buildings in Heppner, was here the first of the week on matters of business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Knotts of Pilot Rock were Sunday visitors in Heppner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wells. Mrs. Knotts is a sister of Mrs. Wells.

County Clerk J. A. Waters expects to leave next week on a trip which will take him to his old home in Kansas, where he will spend a month visiting with his mother.

Ralph Thompson, Willow creek farmer, has bought the Lish Watkins farm which adjoins his place on the south. Mr. Watkins and family have moved into town to make their home for the present.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. MacAnally have returned to Heppner after making a visit to Puyallup, Wash., and Mr. MacAnally has resumed his position at the local office of the Western Union.

Mr. Wageman of Pendleton, who has rented the Bronch ranch, one of the best wheat tracts in the Black Horse section, unloaded a new combined harvester at the local yards Monday.

Jack Mulligan, representative for Sherman-Clay Co., of Portland, was making Heppner and other Eastern Oregon towns this week. Mr. Mulligan makes his territory in Buick and came over from Condon Monday.

W. S. McCracken of the State Industrial Accident Commission spent a few days in Heppner the first of the week on official business. The territory covered by Mr. McCracken takes him over a larger part of Eastern Oregon.

A new subscriber to The Gazette-Times this week is Miss Alice Cummings, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Cummings. Miss Cummings has been visiting with relatives and friends here. She makes her home in Portland.

C. D. Mory of Alpine was a Heppner business visitor Wednesday. Mr. Mory has begun combining the rye crop on the Alfred Schaefer ranch and says it is the best crop of rye ever grown in that part of the country. Wheat is also ready to cut, according to Mr. Mory.

Ross Brown, formerly a high school student in Heppner and Miss Luella A. Pearson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pearson of Lena, were married at the Federated church parsonage in this city Monday, Rev. H. A. Noyes officiating. The young people will make their home in Jones canyon where the young groom is employed on the Walter Kilcup ranch.

S
A
F
E
T
Y
&

S
E
R
V
I
C
E

BUILD NOW!

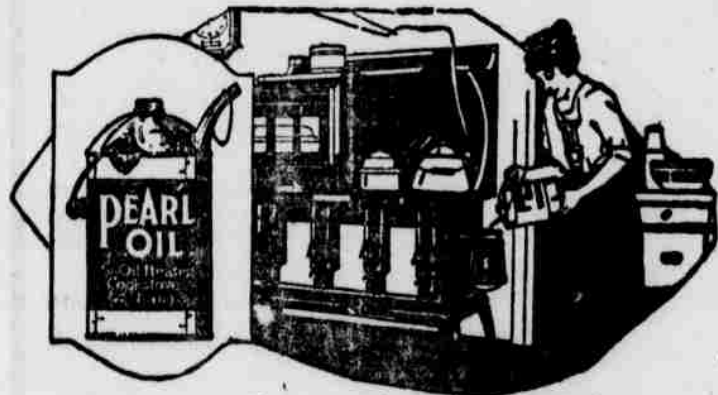

A man can borrow money on what he puts into a home. He can't do it on what he pays out for rent.

The First National Bank is deeply interested in the future welfare of each individual in this community—his financial success, personal interests and social comfort.

FIRST NATIONAL BANK
Heppner, Oregon

THE GAZETTE-TIMES, Your Home Paper. $2.00 Per Year.

A good cooking fuel—easy to handle

Pearl Oil, the Standard Oil Company's kerosene, is a most convenient and economical fuel. Gives all the convenience of gas—without the dust and dirt of coal or wood.

With a good oil cookstove you will cook in comfort all year 'round. Bakes, broils, roasts, toasts—economically. Lights at the touch of a match. No waiting for fires to come up, no unnecessary work, no waste. Concentrates a steady heat on the cooking—leaving the kitchen cool and comfortable.

Pearl Oil is refined and re-refined by our special process which removes the impurities. It is clean burning.

Pearl Oil is for sale in bulk by dealers everywhere. It is the same high-quality kerosene as the Pearl Oil sold in five-gallon cans. There is a saving by buying in bulk. Order by name—Pearl Oil.

We recommend New Perfection and Puritan Oil Cookstoves

PEARL OIL
(KEROSENE)
HEAT AND LIGHT

STANDARD OIL COMPANY
(CALIFORNIA)

Geo. W. Milholland, Special Agent, Standard Oil Company
Heppner, Oregon.

Look for the name:

All in sealed packages.

WRIGLEYS

Helps appetite and digestion. Three flavors.

IT'S not enough to make WRIGLEYS good, we must KEEP it good until you get it.

Hence the sealed package—impurity-proof—guarding, preserving the delicious contents—the beneficial goody.

The Flavor Lasts

SEALED TIGHT KEPT RIGHT

