Lads Took Car At Lexington And Road That Led To Jail

Taking a car without leave from Taylor Brothers at Lexington and driving it up to Heppner, thence east up Hinton creek over Freeze-out ridge, back down Willow creek and into Lexington again brought one Lexington boy and two Portland boys into the minions of the law last Friday.

It was Thursday that Cecil McCormick, 17, of Lexington, Rufus Estes, 16, and Arthur Snow, 15, both of Portland, appropriated to their own use a Ford belonging to Taylor Brothers. The car was later returned with slight damages and it was through tracks left by the boys that the officers were able to get a clue as to who had taken the car.

The boys were rounded up Friday, two of them at Ione on the train and one, young McCormick, at Lexington. They were held in the county jail by Sheriff Shutt until the parents of Snow and Estes came up from Portland. The boys were later fined the costs, which amounted to about $7.20 apiece and turned loose pending their good behavior.
