Ben And Sam Brown Trade For Wheat Land In Alberta

Ben and Sam Brown, who have been farming in the north Lexington section the past few seasons, have traded their property there for wheat land in Alberta, Canada, and expect to leave Morrow county immediately after harvest to take possession of their land in the north. Since first engaging in the wheat growing industry in this county, the Brown boys have met with marked success and as Ben Brown says, "There has not been a year but what we have taken off of the land more than what we paid for it." They plan to take a large part of their farm equipment
