

JUNE BRIDE NOTES

A good looking bride deserves a good looking home

Every bride is entitled to a house as much as she is entitled to a wedding ring.

"You can't make a silk purse out of a sow's ear," nor can you make a home in a rented house. Buy a home for her wedding present.

Brides are entitled to something besides credit at the grocery store. Let her credit you with a home.

Share something with your bride besides a rent receipt. Live in a home of your own.

Your children won't understand the meaning of the Declaration of Independence in a rented house.

We haven't any ruined castles in Morrow county, but we have some buildings not nearly so old that look just as bad.

The face of nature takes on a new appearance when viewed from the porch of your own home.

Think it over and then look us up.

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mrs. Chas. Vaughn has returned to Heppner after an extended visit in Portland.

Joe Simas, Grant county stockman, was over from Monument the first of the week.

Tom Ross, the veteran Echo wool buyer, spent Wednesday in Heppner on business.

Ralph H. Weeks of the Hamilton ranch was a Heppner business visitor the first of the week.

John J. Kelley, Rock Creek sheepman, spent a few days in Heppner on business the last of the week.

John Calmus is the owner of a new Reo car, which he purchased during the past week from the McRoberts-Cohn Auto Co., the local agents.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Hemrick of Sand Hollow were Sunday guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Clark in this city.

Frank Glasscock and Ed Craber, well known young farmers of the Hardman section, were Tuesday callers in this city.

J. E. Cronan, president of the Bank of Ione and prominent financier of Portland, spent a few hours in Heppner Tuesday on a brief business visit.

Mrs. John F. Vaughn entertained informally for a number of her friends at the Vaughn home on Baltimore street last Monday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Case and family left Saturday for Portland and Newport for their summer vacation. They expect to be gone about two weeks.

Leo Hill and D. E. Gilman will return today from an extended motor trip which extended over several hundred miles and two weeks time. They went up into western Washington.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Bennett and young son returned to Heppner Tuesday. Mr. Bennett has been shearing sheep in Montana and Mrs. Bennett has been visiting with relatives in the Willamette Valley.

E. G. Noble, who sold his residence property a few weeks ago, now has plans for a new bungalow which he will build on an adjoining lot. Mr. Noble is undecided as to when he will start construction, but probably not before Fall.

O. L. Blayden of Boardman was arrested by deputy sheriff George McDuffee last week on request from the sheriff who came over from that city, charged with non-support. He was taken to Boise Friday by a deputy sheriff who came over from that city.

A number of local Elks are planning to attend the grand convention which takes place the middle of next month at Klamath Falls and Crater Lake. Among those who are arranging to make the trip are S. W. Spencer, Dr. R. J. Vaughan and Harold Cohn.

The fire laddies enjoyed a treat of ice cream and cold drinks at the Fountain of Sweets on Tuesday evening as the guests of the Heppner Herald. The boys are drilling regularly now and will form two hose teams at their meeting next week. New badges for the members have arrived and were distributed by Fire Chief Huston on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. George Stevenson and her mother, Mrs. T. A. Driskell, left Wednesday for Pendleton. Mrs. Stevenson will remain there for a short visit and her mother will stay for some time at the home of another daughter, Mrs. Glen Hays, hoping that the change may prove beneficial to her health.
