

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

John R. Olden of Rhea creek was in the city Tuesday.

W. H. Padberg of Clarks Canyon was a Heppner business visitor Tuesday.

Chas. Valentine was in the city Wednesday from his farm home northwest of Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. John Padberg were in Heppner Monday from their farm home west of Heppner.

Ben Anderson was in from Eight Mile Tuesday and reports that his grain is making a satisfactory yield.

Miss Clara Miller, who has spent the past five weeks at her father's ranch, will return to her home in Salem Friday.

A baby was born to Mr. and Mrs. F. A. McMenamin in this city on Tuesday, August 4. Mac is now the father of four fine girls.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo left the first of the week on an auto trip to Portland and coast points. They will be absent from Heppner about two weeks.

Miss Lucile Elder left on Sunday for Astoria on a vacation visit to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vance. She will spend some time at Seaside and other beach resorts while away.

L. W. Briggs has taken a position with the Phelps Grocery Company. Mr. Briggs is an experienced salesman, having followed that profession for a number of years in times past.

H. H. Hoffman arrived in Heppner Wednesday from Kennewick, Wash., and will leave this week with a number of other Heppner Elks for the big convention at Klamath Falls.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Sweek expect to leave about the middle of the month on an auto trip to Seattle and other northern points, to be absent from Heppner until the first of September.

County Clerk Waters post cards from Salt Lake to Gay M. Anderson that he "will arrive home August 7, 8 or 9, sooner or later." He stopped at the hotel Utah while in the Mormon city.

F. A. Anderson, owner and manager of the Morrow County Abstract Company, is able to be at his office again after being confined to his home for several weeks with an attack of small pox.

W. R. Irwin returned Tuesday from Rockaway beach, where he spent the past three weeks with his family. Mrs. Irwin and daughter Betty will remain at the beaches until about the middle of September.

Mrs. Ella Russell of Portland arrived in Heppner Tuesday to make a visit with her sister Mrs. John Iler. Mrs. Russell was visiting here last fall when called to Portland on account of the serious illness of her son.

Mrs. Luther Huston was hostess on Tuesday afternoon to a large number of members of the C. W. B. M. A program in charge of Mrs. T. E. Childsey was rendered and later in the afternoon light refreshments were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Celous Keithley came down from their camp at the Parkers Mill forest station the first of the week. Mr. Keithley returned to the mountains Wednesday and Mrs. Keithley remained in the city to visit for a week.

Mayor Vaughan left by auto Wednesday for Arlington, accompanied by Mrs. Vaughan and her sister, Miss Hyde, who has been visiting for several weeks at the Vaughan home. Miss Hyde will return to her home in Baker and Mrs. Vaughan will go to the coast. Mr. Vaughan will go on to Klamath Falls to attend the Elks' convention.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Miller, farmers of the north Lexington section, expect to start next Monday on an auto trip to Illinois. They will spend a week with Mr. Miller's brother at Litchfield, Neb., and will then go on to Illinois to make a visit with Mrs. Miller's relatives. Mr. and Mrs. Miller expect to return in November, accompanied by Rev. J. L. Miller and wife. They will return over the southern route and up through California to their winter home in Salem.

A man who can bring a carload of hogs to market these days is more than a mere capitalist. John Monahan of Condon piloted a carload of grunTERS and another of sheep to Portland and the check he received in exchange for these animals would even make John D. Rockefeller sit up and take notice. Men who are giving a little attention to pigs are living on easy street. Some idea of the prosperity of the Condon section is attested by the report that James Murtha sold his ranch recently for $115,000, and this didn't include the stock. Mr. Murtha still has 10,000 head of sheep.—Portland Oregonian.

Having brought to Portland five carloads of cattle, H. S. Neal, mayor of Lone Rock, returned home last night. There are about 200 people at Lone Rock, but they had a Fourth of July celebration, with the mayor as master of ceremonies, which made history. Arthur and John Madden, sheepmen of Lone Rock, have also returned home after a week-end visit in Portland. The town derives its name from a gigantic rock, which is one of the many natural freaks to be found in Oregon. If you ask anyone from Lone Rock what the rock is like, they sum it all up as follows: "Well, it is the darndest thing!"—Portland Oregonian.

Field Army of 1,250,000 For U. S. Proposed in Bill

Washington, Aug. 4.—Maintenance of one field army of a war strength of 1,250,000 officers and men, proposed in a bill establishing a permanent military policy, was sent to congress by Baker. The active force of this army would be 510,000 regulars; the remainder would be young men who had taken a three-months' training course, compulsory for 19-year-old youths. No change would be made in the existing law regarding the organization of a national guard and its relation to the regular army.

Washington, Aug. 4.—Plans for a permanent peace army of 510,000 officers and men, and a system of universal military training was transmitted to congress by Baker, in a bill representing the war department's policy. All special services of the army built up during the war would be maintained. Three months' military training for youths of 19 would be compulsory, and promotion of officers by seniority would be abolished. Baker said that the war showed this system of promotion to be defective. Youths would be subject to military service for two years after completing the course of military training, and in the event of war, a selective service act would become operative.

"Morrow county was first settled by Virginians from Possom Hollow and Piper's Gap and later by the Irish," said Dr. A. D. McMurdo, Heppner, who drove down to the Imperial with his wife. A year ago, July 4, when everyone was away, the town took advantage of the absence of the population to burn itself up. Dr. McMurdo's home was the only house left standing in the burned district. The Palace Hotel, which Phil Metchan Jr. used to run, was destroyed by the flames. The doctor says that the people are now figuring on financing a new hotel and they have subscribed about $30,000, but more will be required. One of the drawbacks to Heppner is the kind of water prevalent. Dr. McMurdo says that there is a movement on foot to furnish the city with water from a mountain 15 miles away.—Oregonian.

Wm. Lillard is busily engaged this week in wrecking the last remaining shed of the former McRoberts Livery Barn. This building has stood at the rear of the lot and before the day of the automobile was filled nearly all the time with freighters' teams from the interior.

Two Hundred Million Dollars

Represents the amount which the public has paid for previous Maxwells.

The Greater Maxwell is now here

It is not a New Maxwell. It is in fundamentals the worthy descendant of 300,000 Maxwells that grace the highways of the world.

But it is a greater car in many ways. There are the Hot Spot and Ram's-horn, for instance. Then there is a much improved electric system, a development in upholstery, a far more durable top, and so on.

You find in the greater Maxwell a whole automobile show in itself. You will see things developed during the war.

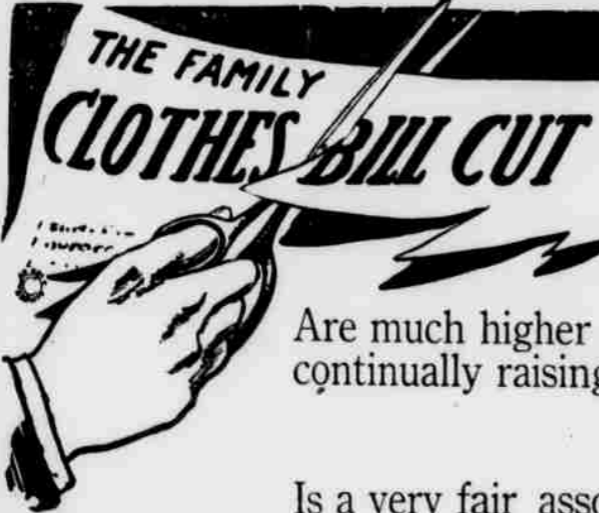

It is like a "river of engineering ideas, dammed up, and suddenly let loose." To spend an hour in examining this Maxwell is a rare treat that any one will enjoy and long remember.

Your Banker Should Take Interest IN You as Well as FROM You

Truer words never were said. You, as an American farmer, are facing a new day—a day in which you will be a business man as you never before have been a business man, when the financing and executive side of your farm will demand just as much of your time and ability as the actual growing of crops and feeding of stock. There is a great deal of help that the banker can give the farmer in this reorganization of farming on a business basis. We place primary importance on co-operation with farmers on real business basis.
