HE'S UNDERSTUDY TO SAM GOMPERS

Matthew Gompers, eighth vice president of the American Federation of Labor, is known as the "understudy" to Sam Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. During Gompers' absence in Europe, Will was editor of the American Federationist. He has been Gompers' assistant for the last year.

GOOD ROADS

The New State Highway Commissioner

The governor has honored both himself and Umatilla county in the selection of J. Newton Burgess as the successor of W. L. Thompson in the important office of highway commissioner. There is no man better fitted to undertake the duties of this difficult station than Mr. Burgess. He possesses a comprehensive grasp of the affairs of the state. He has a wide acquaintance gained from contact with leaders of the business world, and as a senator in the parliament of the commonwealth. He is an intimate friend of the retiring commissioner, and will have the advantage of his experience and technical knowledge of road conditions. If any man can take up the threads broken by Mr. Thompson's retirement, it is assuredly Mr. Burgess, and the state is to be congratulated on his appointment.

Thin, Dainty and Awful Fussy

The old joke "that when goods is too thin to make window curtains from—then sister makes a waist from it"—is still good, judging from new fall styles in frivolous blouses. They are dainty and fussy as the illustrations will show. The blouse on the left and in the lower center are of that indestructible voile with plenty of frills from neck to skirt band. On the right, the dainty collarless blouse of ecru depends on a three-inch band of fine tucks for trimming.

JUN BLISTERS APPLES

Some Damage Done in Various Hood River Orchards.

Hood River, Or., Aug. 17.—Although the temperature lacked six degrees of reaching the July record of 101, no wind prevailed yesterday and a blistering sun, according to orchardists today, burned apples in many sections of the valley. The bank of smoke hanging over the Columbia held the heat and added humidity and last night was the warmest here for the summer. A cool west breeze sprang up today, providing a return to physical comfort and relieving growers from fear of further damage.

U. OF O. STUDENT IS MURDERED IN N. Y.

New York, Aug. 16.—A man murdered mysteriously at the McAlpin hotel here Thursday has been identified as Cecil Landon, of Portman, Oregon, and student at the University of Oregon. The police had no clue but believe he was lured to the hotel with a view of robbery and was murdered when it became evident that it was the only means of securing the money. Landon returned from ser-

LUDERUS SETS WORLD MARK IN PLAYING

Fred Luderus, first baseman for the Philadelphia Nationals, breaks into baseball's hall of fame this year, setting a world record for continuous play. When he played in his 479th game at Chicago Club park recently he was in his fourth season without missing a game in which his team had played and he bettered the mark set by Eddie Collins of the White Sox who previously held the record.

Bankhead Father and Son In Congress

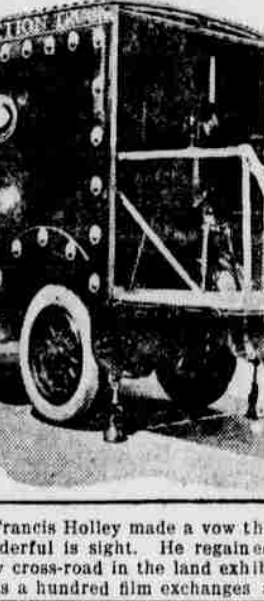

To have two members of any one family in the U. S. Congress from the same state at the same time is an honor seldom bestowed by voters, still this is the distinction of the Bankheads of Alabama. Senator John M. Bankhead, the father, is in the upper branch while the son, William B. Bankhead, is congressman from the tenth Alabama district. Another son is Colonel Henry W. Bankhead of the U. S. Army. Reading left to right they are, Colonel Henry, Senator John and Congressman William.

Seattle, Aug. 17.—"United we'll ride in high priced cars, divided we will have to ride in flivvers. There is nothing penurious about Oregon. We would have paid it had the amount been twice what it is—yes, even three times."

Movie on Wheels Brings Educational Films

Blind for 27 years, Dr. Francis Holley made a vow that if his sight was regained he would devote his life to teaching the world how wonderful is sight. He regained his sight and this followed, one of the 12 traveling movies which is to visit every cross-road in the land exhibiting educational films. It operates under the Bureau of Commercial Economics, has a hundred film exchanges and cooperates with scores of governments.

Bear Plentiful

Bear are said to be very plentiful in the mountains this summer, according to the sheepmen who are on their summer range with their sheep. A number of complaints have reached Deputy Game Warden Hazeltine, and the stockmen claim that the bear have destroyed some of their stock. One of the reasons ascribed is the fact that berries are very scarce this year and it has caused the bear to search in quest of other food, consequently their visitations on bands of sheep. Mutton is worth to much money for bear food, in the opinion of stockmen, and they have appealed to Mr. Hazeltine for his assistance in ridding the range of bruin.—Blue Mountain Eagle.

DOHERTY IS ANOTHER NEWSBOY TRIUMPH

The day President Garfield was assassinated, Harry L. Doherty was newsboy on the streets of Columbus, Ohio. Today he is one of the richest men in the world, president of over 200 public utilities and second largest producer of refined oil in the world. Despite wealth and position he lives in the tenement district of New York—because it is close to his office. The interior of his home is elegant.
