Mr. and Mrs. Gus Wilcox came in from their south Heppner ranch Saturday. Harvest is under way on their place now.

Mrs. Roy Cochran returned last week from a visit to Rockaway beach, where she was a guest for several days at the summer cottage of Mrs. W. R. Irwin.

Fred Tash arrived from Portland Saturday with a new Moon car, for which the Peoples Hardware Co. is now agent. The Moon is a beautiful car and sells for $2250.

A number of Ditch creek campers came home Sunday after spending several weeks in the tall timber. Among them were Mrs. Minnie Gaunt, Mrs. Fell and Miss Lola Matteson.

Miss Louise Nimmo returned to her home in Albany Wednesday after spending several days in Heppner as a guest of Miss Leta Humphreys. Miss Nimmo is a teacher in the Albany schools.

Waldon Straight, one of the star performers of the Lena Round-Up, was a visitor from his Butter creek home in Heppner Monday. Waldon is figuring on riding some of the wild bronchos at the county fair.

D. E. Gilman, who spent last Saturday night up on Ditch creek, says the same dry conditions prevail up there in the timber as down here in the open country. Its hot up there, too, according to Mr. Gilman.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Freeman left Sunday morning for Vancouver, Wash., on a two weeks visit with relatives. The Freemans own a thirty acre tract near Vancouver, which is given over to apple orchards.

Arthur I. Bowker, son of Albert Bowker of Heppner, will enter Hill Military Academy in the Fall, the term starting September 17. His credits have been accepted at the Academy and he has been enrolled as a cadet.

E. R. Huston returned the last of the week from Portland where he had gone to be with his son John Huston, who underwent an operation for appendicitis. At last reports, the younger Mr. Huston was recovering satisfactorily.

Berl Gurdane, Ray Rogers, Will Ball and Marshall Phelps motored up from Portland last Friday. Messrs. Gurdane, Rogers and Ball have been spending a few weeks at the beach and Mr. Phelps just completed a term in a tractor school in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Gentry and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Patterson returned last week from a motor trip to Klamath Falls, where they went to take in the Elks' convention. They took four days in making the return trip and announce a most enjoyable time.

Mrs. Leo Hill and little son left Friday for Woodland, Wash., where she will visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dart. On her return home she will be accompanied by her other two children who have been spending the summer at Woodland.

Dr. and Mrs. A. D. McMurdo returned to Heppner last Friday after spending several weeks in Portland. The McMurdos had planned a trip by auto to the coast but Dr. McMurdo took sick when they reached Portland, and underwent an operation there.

Andy Rood, Heppner Flat farmer, finished up the 1919 harvest season on his ranches last Thursday. Mr. Rood had a quantity of grain that yielded better than twenty bushels per acre. He has purchased a big Holt caterpillar tractor and will use it in plowing his land this Fall.

County Agent Hunt, accompanied by W. P. Mahoney, cashier of the First National Bank and W. Claude Cox, manager of the Morrow County Creamery Co., left last Friday morning for Boardman and other North Morrow county points. They returned home the first of the week.

Mrs. E. S. Duran of Lexington entered the local hospital on Monday, where she will receive medical treatment. The nature of her case has not been fully determined, but it may be found that an operation will be necessary. Mrs. Duran was accompanied to Heppner by Mr. Duran.

Theodore Anderson, Eight Mile farmer, has just completed the harvest season on his ranch by threshing his twenty-bushel crop. The Anderson-Allstott thresher, a Rumley machine, has pulled on to Mr. Allstott's fields, going there last Friday. Mr. Allstott's grain is number 1 quality.

Mrs. Fannie Rood, of Portland was spending a few days in Heppner last week visiting with relatives and attending to some business matters. While in Morrow county, Mrs. Rood bought the Jake Bortzer ranch in the Ione section for a consideration of $60,000. She has rented the ranch to J. W. Christopherson, who has been farming in Gooseberry. Mrs. Rood spent Saturday in Ione making out contract papers with Mr. Christopherson, and he will move on to the place this Fall.

E. G. Noble, local business man, has bought a new Ford from Charles H. Latourel, the local agent. Mr. Noble recently sold his old Ford for as much as he paid for it, after he had driven it about four years.
