E. is the largest of the Greek letter societies, having ninety two chapters in the Universities and colleges of America.

Heppner Man Weds Pendleton Young Woman.

The D. A. Peebler residence, 701 West Court street, was last evening the scene of a pretty home wedding when Miss Ruth Aura Peebler became the bride of Lee C. Cantwell. The ring ceremony was read at 8 o'clock by Rev. Robert E. Gornall, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church in the presence of only members of the families and neither of the couple was attended.

Chrysanthemums and ferns decked the rooms of the Peebler home and preceding and throughout the service wedding music was played by Miss Katherine Grandholm. The bride chose a becoming costume of blue cut on tailored lines and she carried a cluster of Ophelia roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Cantwell have departed for a short motor trip to Heppner but after a fortnight the popular young couple will return here to make their home where the groom is associated in business with the Western Auto Company.—Pendleton E. O.

Mr. and Mrs. Cantwell arrived in Heppner Sunday and are visiting for a week at the home of Mr. Cantwell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Cantwell.

THE LARCHMONT DISASTER.

Ed. Note.—Aboard the good ship Larchmont were 19 Scandinavian Salvation Army delegates, men and women, bound for a convention in Boston, Mass. As the ship was sinking, they knelt in a circle, one lassie in the center, and went down to their death singing "Rock of Ages." One hundred and eighty lives were lost.

I doubt if in the realms of light
A ray effulgent ever shone
On hand as noble, pure and bright
As Larchmont's fated bark swept down.

To those who've passed the veil of tears
And round the throne accepted are,
Bethink ye, have the passing years
Brought spirits brighter, braver far?

I know you must have stilled
The voice of Heavenly Choir
And Angels' hearts with pity thrilled
As o'er the storm the song rose higher.

I know not what your anthems be,
If golden harps be ever strung,
But Rock of Ages seems to me,
A staff that all may lean upon.

—Thomas Murray Spencer.

Give the world the once over

LISTEN, fellows, to some straight talk. Many a man when he gets to be 40, misses something. He may have lots of money, and a fine family but—
He never "got out and saw things". After he gets settled down, it's too late.
Every man wants to see the world. No man likes to stand still all his life. The best time to TRAVEL is when you're young and lively—right NOW!
Right NOW your Uncle Sam is calling "Shove off!" He wants men for his Navy. He's inviting you! It's the biggest chance you'll ever get to give the world the once over!
The Navy goes all over the world—sails the Seven Seas—squints at the six continents—that's its business. You stand to see more odd sights, wonderful scenery and strange people than you ever dreamed of.
You'll work hard while you work. You'll play hard while you play. You'll earn and learn. You'll get, in addition to "shore-leave", a 30-day straight vacation—which is more than the average bank president can count on.
You can join for two years. When you get through you'll be physically and mentally "tuned up" for the rest of your life. You'll be ready through and through for SUCCESS.
There's a Recruiting Station right near you. If you don't know where it is, your Postmaster will be glad to tell you.
