Kennedy Will Meet Portland Man in Finished Match Here

Eastern Oregon's premier wrestler will meet Henry Jones of Portland at the Star theater in this city next Saturday evening when the two grapplers will try out their mat science for two falls in three. Jones is not known in Heppner at all, other than that he is being brought here by Eddie O'Connell.

Kennedy succeeded in getting two straight falls out of O'Connell here a week ago last Saturday and at the conclusion of the match O'Connell announced that he had a man in Portland who would like to have Kennedy meet Jones in the man. There is a side purse of $500 as well as the gate receipts which the winner will take home with him.

Jack Kennedy has made a record for himself, in that he has been matched in recent months with seven good men, some of them exceptionally good, as Thye and the Montana Wonder, and has won every match and at no time has he been thrown. His last bout was won in Condon last Saturday night when he took two straight falls from Anderson, a man who made a big reputation wrestling while with the American Expeditionary Forces in France. Kennedy will weigh in at 160 and Jones at 162.

The match next Saturday will begin promptly at 9:45 and 40 ringside seats have been reserved, at $1.50. The general admission will be $1.00.
