MRS. CHARITY CRITES.

Mrs. Charity Crites died at the home of her son, S. L. Crites in this city on Saturday, November 8, after a very short illness. She was aged 82 years, 10 months and 8 days. Mrs. Crites had been a resident of this city only a few months, but she made many friends in that short time.

Mrs. Crites, whose maiden name was Charity Williams, was born in Lexington, Missouri on New Year's day, 1837. She moved to St. Joseph, Missouri, in 1862 and in 1863 was married to Adam Crites. To this union were born 12 children, five of whom are living. The family moved from Missouri to Kansas and lived in the latter state for thirty years, moving from there to Oregon in the year 1909.

The funeral was held from the Federated church on Monday afternoon, services being conducted by the Rev. H. A. Noyes, and interment was in Masonic cemetery.

Shepherd is Murdered.

A shepherd on the 7 R Z ranch of Fred W. Falconer and Gay W. Birkit, near Kuna, Idaho, was murdered mysteriously ten days ago. In the morning the man did not show up and his sheep were seen wandering at large. The herder's body was found and his skull had been crushed in with an axe, and several bullets had been fired into his body from his own rifle. Mr. Falconer says the murder has not been explained at all.—Enterprise Record Chiefstain.
