Snow Heavy on Forest.

Twenty-six inches of snow on Wiltson creek, near Heppner on the Umatilla forest was reported today by supervisor W. W. Cryder. No other stations have reported recently but it is believed that this last storm left some snow almost all over the forest.—Pendleton Tribune.

Arrested for Larceny.

Harry Manger and Charles Travis were arrested here yesterday and taken to Pendleton today to answer to a charge of larceny of several sacks of barley from W. E. Wiglesworth. Deputy sheriff Blakeney came down this morning to get the men.—Echo News.

NEW CAPITAL BUD

Her daddy is Franklin K. Lane, Secretary of Interior. Her name is Miss Nancy and she is one of the most popular Washington buds, a debutante of the season.

Echo Residents are Married.

Miss Beulah Barker and Frank A. Helms were married at the M. E. parsonage in Pendleton January 3rd by Rev. R. E. Gornall. Mrs. Jos. Cunha Sr. of Echo was present at the ceremony.

Altho Miss Barker and Mr. Helms have resided in Echo several years, and are well known here, their marriage came as a surprise to many of their friends, as they let only a few know their plans. Miss Barker, whose parents were well known pioneers of this section, taught in the schools in Echo, Pine City and Stanfield. Mr. Helms has for some time been employed by Joseph Cunha Sr. Mr. and Mrs. Helms are living on the Barker place on the west side of the river.—Echo News.

Wood Club Will be Formed at Pendleton.

A Leonard Wood Club for president will be organized at Pendleton. Dow. V. Walker, overseas veteran who has charge of the Wood campaign in Oregon is an enthusiastic supporter of the general and says the fight in Oregon will be between Wood and Johnson. Mr. Walker started the work of organization in Pendleton, after visiting in La Grande, where he found an active Wood organization, Co.

The Heppner Gazette-Times issued a holiday number this year that is a credit to everyone connected with that paper and to the town in which it is published. It is full of interesting matter, and the merchants and business men gave it generous support. Typographically it would be a credit to any office.—Candon Globe-Times.

Portland club women have started war on risqué movies and have decided that they will not confine their crusade to the movies but will carry the battle to vaudeville and road shows. A recent picture "The Thirteenth Commandment" shown in a Portland theatre, aroused a storm of criticism.

Total receipts for the month of December from the national forests in the district of Oregon, Washington and Alaska reached $35,220.29, almost four times the amount received in December, 1918, which was $9,224.03. Of the total, $27,518.15 came from timber sales. Water power revenues amounted to $2,515.85, and grazing trespass and fire trespass fines and grazing permits made up the remainder.

Charles H. Collins, 49 years of age and a switchman in the O.-W. yards at Pendleton, committed suicide at his home last Saturday night by hanging himself to the door of the kitchen with a bath-robe cord. He leaves a wife and two small children. Ill health is believed to have been the cause of his rash act.

Hardee Is New War Loan Director.

San Francisco, Cal.—Governor John U. Calkins of the Federal Reserve Bank has just announced the appointment of Theodore Hardee of San Francisco as director of the War Loan Organization for the Twelfth Federal Reserve District, which comprises the seven Pacific Slope States of Arizona, California, Idaho, Nevada, Oregon, Utah, and Washington, as well as Hawaii.

Hardee succeeds Robt. E. Smith of Portland, and in this capacity, with Clovis A. Farnsworth as Associate Director, will direct the 1920 campaign for distribution of War Savings Stamps and Certificates, and any similar securities the Government may offer, throughout this extensive territory. The District headquarters will remain at 420 Sacramento Street, San Francisco.

In the conduct of his former duties as Executive Secretary of the Twelfth District's General Executive Board for all five Liberty Loan campaigns, covering a period of nearly three years, Hardee has made a host of friends and acquaintances, all of whom will be glad to learn of his promotion to the highly important office he now occupies. He plans an active campaign during the present year and counts upon the earnest cooperation of all loyal and intelligent Americans in this District to make it live up to the Treasury Department's expectations.

The Patron-Teachers Association will meet at the high school auditorium on Friday, January 23. A program is being arranged.

R. E. Jones, who sold his farm below town the past week to C. W. Lawson, has purchased the interest of Phil Jones in the Heppner Delivery Co.

Democratic Women Organize National Party

CARPENTIER GETS CHAMPIONSHIP CUP?

European sportmen have some funny ideas of things. Frinstance—here is Sport Promoter Coghane of London, presenting the Gant gold cup to Georges Carpentier, the French heavyweight champion, after his defeat of Joe Beckett, British champion, in one round, at London recently. The cup is all right and the idea of awarding, fine—but they inscribed it—"Heavyweight Champion of the World." American sportmen call this "junk" and the champion, Jack Dempsey, will "sure" "junk" that cup when he gets Carpentier into a ring.

Some Real Estate Deals.

W. S. Smith, lone's live realty agent, has this week handled the two real estate deals mentioned below and has several more in prospect for the near future.

Fred Mankin purchased from Gustave Friewald 480 acres lying five miles northeast of Ione for a consideration of $10,800. No improvements are on this tract with the exception of a drilled well but Mr. Mankin will at once erect buildings and make other permanent improvements.

Walter Reitmunn has transferred title to 194 acres of land lying northeast of Ione and known as the Davis place to John McDevitt for a consideration of $4000. This tract adjoins the 480 acres previously owned by Mr. McDevitt and gives him a comfortable little patch of land to handle.—Ione Independent.

SMILE AWHILE.

A Hopeless Case.

A doctor came up to a patient in a lunatic asylum, slapped him on the back and said: "Well, old man, you're all right. You can run along and write your folks that you will be back home as good as new in two weeks." The patient went off gaily to write his letter. He had it finished and sealed, but as he was about to affix the stamp the latter slipped through his fingers to the floor, alighted on the back of a cockroach that was passing and stuck. The patient hadn't seen the cockroach. What he did see was his escaped postage stamp zigzagging aimlessly across the floor and following a crooked trail up the wall and across the ceiling.

In depressed silence he tore up the letter he had just written and dropped the pieces on the floor. "Two weeks!" he said. "I won't be out of here in three years."—London Tit-Bits.

Johnny Was Literal.

Little Johnny was discovered in the library, busily snipping away at an open dictionary. "Johnny," asked his father, "what

Make a Trap!

Kiddies! Do you want to catch a mouse? Here's a simple diagram for a trap which gets 'em every time. A cardboard box—round hat box preferred. A piece of common wrapping paper for a top—ties with a string. Then cut a square X—(No. 6) and hang a piece of cheese or cake directly over the center. A thin board or strip runway for Mr. Mouse to get up to the top. He walks out to get his supper, the paper bends under his weight and he slips down into the box—trapped.

in the world are you doing?" "You see, father," answered the bright and shining light of the household, "today at school the teacher said there was no such word as 'fail' so I'm cutting it out of the dictionary."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Marriage Is A Lottery.

Mrs. Dearborn—Did you ever win a prize in a lottery? Mrs. Wabash—Why, of course, I'm getting alimony.—Yonkers Statesman.

Telephone Co. Held Meeting In This City Last Saturday.

The stockholders of the Black Horse-Sand Hollow Telephone Company held their regular annual meeting at the court house in this city last Saturday afternoon, with a fair representation of the shareholders and patrons of the line present. Among other business attended to, Chas. Hemrick, was granted the right to change the location of a number of the company's poles which cross one end of his place in Sand Hollow.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMillan and young son, of Lexington, were visitors in Heppner on Tuesday.

HER JOB IS TO WAR ON BEARS, LIONS AND BOBCATS

Mrs. Ada Tingley of the Bureau of Biological Survey in the Department of Agriculture, does her work in Idaho—that of trapping or killing predatory animals. In 17 months she silenced the ravaging destruction of 278 stock-destroying animals. She is shown here with pelts from coyotes, bobcats and badgers she has killed. Three hundred such men agents have killed over 70,000 animals in the last three years, saving stockmen over five million dollars annually, it is estimated.

For Disabled Soldiers

HON. BURTON E. SWEET.

Representative Sweet, Republican, of Iowa, is author of the bill recently enacted by Congress, awarding an additional $80,000,000 per year to disabled soldiers. Under the Sweet bill, which was endorsed by the American Legion, totally disabled service men who formerly received only $30 a month will receive $80, with liberal additional allowances for their wives, children and dependent parents. This is a notable piece of "soldier legislation" and has made the New Year bright in thousands of patriotic homes.
