Dated this 17th day of February, 1920.

LOTUS ROBINSON.

Curl is Candidate.

Pendleton, Feb. 18.—Frank S. Curl, one of the most prominent and influential republicans in Eastern Oregon, has announced that he will be a candidate for delegate to the republican national convention in Chicago, June 8, from the second congressional district, comprising the counties of Eastern Oregon. Mr. Curl has been a life-long republican and for the past twenty-five years one of the big workers for the success of the party in the state, being long considered the leading republican of Umatilla county. He is a substantial wheat farmer and has never been a candidate for any office and would not be a candidate at this time except that his many friends have urged him to go as a delegate from this district.

Relief Corps Meets.

A meeting of Rawlins Relief Corps No. 23, was held at the home of Bertha D. Gilman, Wednesday, February 11.

Three candidates were admitted by initiation, a short, but interesting program was presented by Patriotic Instructor, Mattie T. Smead, in honor of Lincoln's birthday. After the program a social hour was spent, a dainty lunch was served and Mrs. C. C. Hayne rendered some musical selections on the piano. The next meeting will be held on February 25 at the home of Mrs. Gilman. At this time a vote will be taken to decide on a future meeting place. Every member is urged to be present.
