

Local News

R. E. Crego, local manager of the Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., went to Arlington Wednesday on a business trip.

Mr. and Mrs. M. B. Haines of Ione were Hoppner visitors on Wednesday. Mr. Haines is the proprietor of the Ione hotel and was engaged in the restaurant business here several years ago.

W. H. Cronk, local manager for the Tum-A-Lum Lumber company, left Wednesday for Boise, Idaho, where he will attend a convention of retail lumbermen. He expects to return home the last of the week.

R. W. Snider of Black Horse returned Tuesday evening from Spokane, where he went earlier in the week to attend the funeral of the late Frank E. Bell. Mr. Snider is farming the Bell ranch on Black Horse.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Erwin and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Erwin of Ione were here on Tuesday to attend the funeral of the late Robert Neal Crawford. The Erwins and Mr. Crawford were chums of boyhood days at Prescott, Wash.

J. H. Lang of the Heppner Garage Machine Shop, left on Wednesday for Portland to make a brief visit with Mrs. Lang. Mrs. Lang will join her husband in this city just as soon as they are able to obtain a house.

Ora E. Adkins is reported to have purchased the Claude Keithley wheat ranch in the Eight Mile district this week. The ranch is composed of nearly 1000 acres and is considered one of the best in that section. The consideration has not been made public.

N. Paulsen, traveling inspector for the Canadian Pacific railway, is spending a few days in Heppner this week in the colonization interests of his company. A large number of excursion trains will be run from the Northwest into Alberta, Saskatchewan and other provinces of Canada, this summer.

The Wiglesworth residence, on the corner of Willow and Alta streets, was sold by Mrs. R. F. Wiglesworth to Frank Peters, who owns adjoining property. The deal was made thru E. T. Wade, local real estate man. Mrs. Wiglesworth moved to Portland recently to make her home.—Pendleton East Oregonian.

Building material gives no promise of getting cheaper soon. This spring will be the logical time to build that new house, barn, garage, site or chicken house that you have put off building for so long. Tum-A-Lum Lumber Company furnishes you with free plans and specifications. Look up their ad in another column of The Gazette-Times.

C. A. Minor, local sheepman, who was a business caller here from Cecil on Wednesday, says that lambing is under way at his various Cecil ranches. Minor & Matlock are lambing a band of five thousand ewes on one of their lower ranches and the lambs are doing far better than the average April lamb. The weather is ideal for lambing, says Mr. Minor.

County Judge Campbell, Roadmaster McCaleb, Road Viewer Minor, County Clerk Waters and S. A. Pattison were a party of local men who went down to Cecil last Friday to see how Oskar Huber is getting along with the road work. The men returned home feeling satisfied that the road contractor is right on the job and making an excellent showing.
