

Local News

W. B. Tucker was in the city on Saturday from Lexington.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Swanson of Ione were visitors in Heppner on Saturday.

David Hynd of Sand Hollow was a business visitor in Heppner on Tuesday.

John F. Vaughn local garage man, made a business trip to Condon last week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Mink, who reside north of Lexington, were visitors in Heppner last Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. John Widenan were Sunday visitors in Heppner from their farm home on Eight Mile.

F. A. McMenamin, local attorney, was called to La Grande last week on business of a legal nature.

Miss Isabel Wilson, popular Heppner young lady, is visiting this week with friends at Eugene and Corvallis.

Frank Munkers, who owns a wheat ranch in the Social Ridge section, was a Saturday business man in Heppner.

Alva W. Jones, of the Peoples Hardware company, was called to Portland last Sunday on very important business.

Ralph Corrigan, Butter creek sheep man and farmer, was in Heppner last Sunday, driving a beautiful new Haynes car.

E. M. Hilden and family have returned to their farm home on Black Horse after spending the winter months in Portland.

H. Fred Tash of the Peoples Hardware company, returned Tuesday evening from Portland, where he was called on business.

C. D. Robinson and family, who have been spending the winter in Portland, have returned to their home at Lone Rock.

John Olden, who was a business visitor in Heppner on Saturday, says Khe creek is lower than he ever saw it before at this time of year.

Among the new subscribers to The Gazette-Times this week are Sheridan Brothers of Ione, Eddie F. Shorger and T. W. Lowe of Heppner and Ben P. Thomas of Eight Mile.

Charlie "Chuck" Bell returned from Portland Sunday, driving up a Federal truck for Chas. H. Latourell. He was accompanied by his brother, B. C. Bell, who will visit here.

Lawrence Palmer and family were here on Saturday from Lexington. Mr. Palmer is a prominent wheat farmer of that section, having a ranch on the outskirts of Lexington.

A. M. Mallory, formerly deputy county clerk under Walter Hill, spent Monday in this city, being called here from his Portland home on some legal matters.

W. O. Hill, cashier of the Lexington State Bank, spent a few hours in our city on Saturday. He was accompanied by his son Herman, who is a student in the Lexington high school.

The continued freezing is holding back the growth of grass and keeping down feed on the range, according to John Kikenny, prominent sheepman, who was a Saturday business visitor in Heppner.

Karl L. Beach and wife of Lexington were Sunday visitors in Heppner. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. F. R. Bennett of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett are instructors in the Lexington high school.

R. J. Caraner, well known local stockman, was in the city Tuesday rejoicing over the heavy precipitation of moisture which the early days of March are bringing forth. It will be a great help to grass on the range.

A recent new subscriber to The Gazette-Times is W. H. Clark of Sweden, Mo. Mr. Clark was one of our old time readers, having lived for many years near Lena on Butter creek. At the present time he is in the East on a visit.

Picking oranges and lemons in mid-winter was a novelty recently enjoyed by J. W. Vaughn of this city, who has just returned from a visit of six weeks to the San Joaquin Valley, California, at Exeter and Visalia. He reports a most enjoyable trip.

A. E. Hall, recently of Tacoma, Wash., has accepted a bookkeeping position with the pioneer mercantile firm of Minor & Co., and took up his duties there the first of this month. Mr. Hall has moved his family here and was fortunate in being able to find a house.

John Monahan returned on Wednesday from a visit to Heppner where he was attending to business matters. He was accompanied by his niece, Miss Anna Monahan, a daughter of Frank Monahan of Heppner, who is attending the local academy.—Condon Globe-Times.

J. E. Craber, who recently sold his farm near Hardman to D. M. Ward, is contemplating a trip to Canada in the near future with a view to looking over the farm lands of the north country. It is not altogether unlikely, however, that he may decide to again invest in land right here in Morrow county.

Robert Jordan, who represented the Heppner Garage Machine Shop at the automobile show, returned from Portland the first of the week. Mr. Jordan has attended all the shows of a like nature in Portland for the past five or six years and he says this had them all beat by long odds. There was a bigger and better display of cars, everything from a Pierce-Arrow down to a Ford being shown for the delight of the autist. A great number of new models were shown for the first time.

Lawrence Rodding, Eight Mile farmer, was in the city attending to business on Monday.

Mr. Hally, the Standard Oil agent at Ione was in Heppner on business Tuesday.

John H. Wilt, Ione business man, motored up from the Egg City Tuesday afternoon.

Oscar Keithley of Eight Mile was here on Saturday to attend a meeting of the Morrow County Fair Board.

Ike Howard and Eddie Reimann of Ione were in the city last Saturday to attend a meeting of the Morrow County Fair Board.

BORN—In this city on Friday, Feb. 26, to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Emery, a daughter, weighing three and three quarters pounds.

FOUND—Policy for $2000 issued by Knights of the Macabees to Chas. Richards. Owner may have same by calling at Gazette-Times.

Matt T. Hughes took his 400 head of cattle to Rood Canyon the last of the week, where he has rented pasture land from Joe Woods.

Eddie Reimann, prominent Ione farmer and a director of the John Day Irrigation District, was a Heppner business visitor on Tuesday.

W. Claude Cox, manager of the Morrow County Creamery company, has been released from quarantine after being confined to his home for several weeks with the small pox.

W. B. Finley, accompanied by his son Ralph, was in the city last Saturday to attend a meeting of the executive committee of the Morrow County Farm Bureau. The Finleys have extensive holdings in North Sand Hollow.

Stephen H. Doak, Ione farmer, was here the last of the week to receive a Fordson tractor, which he purchased from Chas. H. Latourell, the local dealer. A number of farmers in the Ione and Lexington sections are buying these machines. W. F. Barnett having also placed his order.

Fred Mankin, Ione wheat farmer, spent a few days in Heppner this week getting ready to take out a new Fordson tractor, which he has purchased from Chas. H. Latourell. Mr. Mankin says he has seen the Fordson demonstrated on a ranch adjoining his place and he is thoroughly satisfied the tractor will do the work.

Word has been received in Heppner that W. W. Cryder, for the past several years supervisor of the Umatilla National Forest, has been transferred to the Malheur National Forest with headquarters in John Day. The transfer is considered as a promotion, as the Malheur National Forest is considerably larger than the Umatilla forest and will give Mr. Cryder a wider scope of activity. He has made many friends in Morrow and Umatilla counties since his residence here and they will regret his moving away.

INFLUENZA starts with a Cold
Kill the Cold. At the first sneeze take
HILL'S CASCARA QUININE BROMIDE
Standard cold remedy for 20 years
—in tablet form—safe, sure, no opiates—breaks up a cold in 24 hours—relieves grip in 3 days.
Money back if it fails. The genuine box has a red top with Mrs. Hill's picture.
At All Drug Stores

Fred Lucas and E. Nodyke of Lexington were Monday visitors in Heppner.

MORGAN NEWS ITEMS.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwards and family of five children arrived Thursday night from Vancouver, Wash., but as we have no hotel here, they went on to Ione and came back here Friday morning. They have purchased the H. M. Swank place in Morgan.

The children of the Morgan school have joined the Audubon Bird Club. There are twenty members. They have received pictures and pamphlets with which to carry on their work.

W. F. Palmateer started his Holt caterpillar on Friday morning. He is pulling nine plows. Ollie Forbes of Ione is running the tractor.

Mrs. J. W. Hardesty of "Willow Creek Poultry Farm" has set seven chicken incubators the last week.

R. E. Harbeson is in Morgan on a short business trip.

Born, Saturday February 28th, to Mr. and Mrs. Matt Hughes a daughter.

Born in this city on February 29, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Garver, a daughter.

Born, on February 18, to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Steers of Hardman, a daughter.

READ—Gazette-Times advertisers have something of interest to you. They present something definite each week that may mean the saving and the making of dollars for you. Read the ads.

FOR SALE!

A Holt 75 Caterpillar Tractor, completely overhauled, ready to go into the field. Price on car Walla Walla, Wn., $4000.00.

THE FARMERS SAVINGS BANK, Walla Walla, Washington.

SAFETY &

SERVICE

Greater Production

Get the Top Market Price for your

Raw Furs

Send them to
The GOLDEN RULE FUR CO
603 First Ave., Seattle, Wash.
WRITE FOR PRICE LIST AND TAGS

MURINE A Wholesome, Cleansing, Refreshing and Healing Lotion—Murine for Redness, Swelling, Granulation, Itching and Burning of the Eyes or Eyes. It will soothe your eyes, soothe your eyes, soothe your eyes. Ask Your Druggist for Murine when your eyes need care. Murine Eye Remedy Co., Chicago

CANCER

NO KNIFE OR LOSS OF BLOOD
No Pains and Pains for Hours or Days
TUMORS PILES FISTULA GOITRE
DISEASES OF WOMEN
SKIN STOMACH BOWELS
FOUR YEARS STUDY IN EUROPE
OVER THIRTY YEARS EXPERIENCE
Portland Physical Therapy Laboratories
412-417 Journal Bldg., PORTLAND, ORE

THE FIRST NATIONAL BANK

Heppner, Oregon

Resources over $1,500,000.00

The Store That Can Supply All Your Wants

Grape Fruit, Oranges

Lemons, Bananas

Candy, Nuts

Pop Corn

Raisins, Citron, Figs

Dates, Mince Meat

None Such

Jellies, Jams, Preserves

All Seasonable Fresh

Vegetables

SAM HUGHES COMPANY

Phone Main 332

Auction Sale

Saturday, March 13, 1920

On the above date I will sell at Public Auction on my ranch located 17 miles south of Ione, 20 miles west of Heppner and 1.2 mile south of Swedish Church, the following property:

1 Deering Combine in good condition.
1 new Double Disc, 11-foot cut.
1 new Hero Fanning Mill.
1 new Oliver Plow, 16-inch, three-bottom.
1 new Empire Jr. Drill, 13-foot cut.
1 new heavy Iron Harrow, 20-foot cut.
1 Shenadonian Hitch for 14 head of horses.
1 McCormick Reaper, 6-foot cut.
20 tons Fortyfold Wheat Hay.
1 new Winona Wagon, 3 1/4.
1 Bain Wagon, 3 1/4.
1 Studebaker Wagon, 3.
Water Tank, 350 gallons.
2 Good Wheat Trucks.
1 Hay Rack, 1 Trail Tongue.
15 sacks Fortyfold Wheat.

6 Sets Harness.
Good heavy set. Breeding Harness.
Halters, Collars, Halter Chains.
1500 feet new pine lumber.
One piece 2x24x16 feet Trough Lumber.
4 Vitroling Trough.
200 Posts. 5 Sacks Spuds.
15 head of Horses, 15 head Work Horses.
10 head Colts, ranging from 1 to 4 years.
15 head of Stock Cattle, some cows with young calves.
Singletrees, Doubletrees, Log Chains.
125 Laying Hens. New washing machine.
Cook Stove, Heating Stove.
Household Goods and other things too numerous to mention.

FREE LUNCH AT NOON

TERMS

ALL SUMS UNDER $10.00 CASH; OVER $10.00 APPROVED NOTE PAYABLE NOV. 1, 1920; 5 PER CENT DISCOUNT ON SUMS OVER $10.00.

C. F. Brenner, Owner

F. H. ROBINSON, Clerk.

E. E. MILLER, Auctioneer.

First Harbingers of Spring

A LONG with the robins and the pussy willows that are the first to announce the coming of Spring we wish to announce the arrival of a shipment of our

New Spring Coats

New Spring Dresses

New Spring Suits

Jackets with pleated peplums, trimmed tailor braid and buttons--and more buttons. In serge, tricotine and wool jersey. Neat, natty models that you will like, we are sure.

COME IN AND SEE THEM

Minor & Company