

Mrs. Emmett Cochran Has Thanks of Library Board

Mrs. Emmett Cochran has the thanks of the Heppner Library Board for her donation of 24 volumes to the library. The library is in need of many such donations as this, and the board is hoping that other public spirited citizens will follow Mrs. Cochran's example.

Albany Man Now With Moody Bible Institute

Dr. W. P. White, for nineteen years pastor of the First United Presbyterian church of Albany, Oregon, recently resigned to become Regional Director of the Moody Bible Institute of Chicago for Bible conferences up and down the coast and in British Columbia.

Dr. White's pastorate in Albany is the longest coast record for a continuous pastorate save one. He has seen forty-seven ministers come and go in Albany while serving there. He has been associated recently with Dr. James M. Gray in Bible Conferences on the coast, also with Drs. W. B. Hiley and A. C. Dixon, is well known in the East as a deep student of the Bible and has made a name for himself by lectures on Biblical archaeology.

A Beautiful Window Display.
Robins and Meadow Larks tell of the near approach of Spring, but probably the women do not watch these signs as closely as they watch for the appearance of millady's hat in the milliner's window. According to the appearance of Mrs. F. Luper's window Spring is here. The window of her store is decorated in a most artistic manner.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES
Senior Items.

Violette and Ruth on entering restaurant: "Do you serve people here?" "Yes," said the waiter, looking them over. "But we don't fill silos."

Do not mistake Everett Pattison for a freshie just because he wears that green lid on Sundays.

We are glad to note that the Juniors are making preparations for the Senior and Junior banquet. They made paper flowers for the decorations at their last Busy-Bee meeting.

We are glad to see Ruth Huddleston and Erda Frad back in school once more. Ruth was especially welcomed in the Domestic Science department, where she is known as champion dish washer.

The Seniors are busy preparing material for their department in the Heppner, the school annual.

The annual promises to be better than ever this year. Each class is taking a great interest and some excellent cartoons have been turned in. Andrew Baldwin of the class of '23 has left school on account of his health.

The Student Body play will be given Saturday, March 13th. It is planned to give a matinee Saturday afternoon for the school children. We expect a large crowd.

LEXINGTON NOTES

Lewis Frederickson, local garage man, was among those who attended the automobile show, recently held in Portland.

Considerable grading is being done in the vicinity of the Leach & Scott warehouse which will make the loading and receiving platforms of the warehouse easier of access for wheat haulers. The work is being done under the supervision of W. G. Scott, manager of the warehouse company.

J. W. Sparks of Lexington Passes.
J. W. Sparks, a resident of Lexington, passed away last Thursday after a lingering illness. The immediate cause of death was heart trouble. Mr. Sparks was 55 years of age and is survived by four children. The funeral was held at Lexington on Saturday afternoon.

"The Hoodlum A Big Character Success."

"The Hoodlum," declared by critics to be the greatest character success in Mary Pickford's screen history will be seen at the Star theater, on Monday. This picture is the second production from Miss Pickford's own studios of which her mother is the business manager. Her role takes her from the luxury of a mansion to the squalor of a tenement street.

Billy Duncan is down from Spokane and will join a crew of hand shearers now being formed at Heppner to help get the wool off the backs of a large number of Morrow county sheep. Mr. Duncan was here last spring, and since leaving Heppner he and his family have been residing at St. Maries, Idaho. They have now returned to Spokane to live. Billy expects to be here for a couple of months.

Miss Katie Minert has received a letter from Mrs. Stacy Roberts, who with Mr. Roberts, is spending the winter at Pasadena, California; in which Mrs. Roberts states that Harley Wright of Hardman, who is staying with them there, is improving greatly in health and may be able to return with them before long.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jones returned to Heppner last evening after spending ten days in Portland on their honeymoon.

Mrs. A. E. Binns is spending the week in Portland on business.

John Calmus, who has been spending the winter in Montana, has returned to Heppner and we understand has purchased the Henry Ashbaugh blacksmith shop at the corner of Main and Center streets.

MACK PERFORMANCE COUNTS

MAKE YOUR 1920 TRUCK A MACK

You Will Earn and Save By Doing So.

A good motor truck is the means of earning money but it must be a high-grade, thoroughly engineered and manufactured truck.

That is, because it will do you no good to earn money through the operation of a truck and then have to pay all you make (and probably more, too) to keep the truck on the road.

At this time you probably are thinking about how to increase your business for 1920. You must have a truck or you must have another one—on that you have decided.

Then it becomes a question of selection. You should buy a truck as you make an investment of any other sort. Knowing your needs the choice should not be difficult.

MACK trucks are recognized as the standard of heavy-duty transportation. There is a size that is right for your needs. We would appreciate an opportunity to tell you about MACK trucks.
