County Agent Thought Divine. Benton county's agricultural agent is serving as chairman of the county inter-church world-movement survey committee, and as vice chairman of the county salvation army board. This, says the O. A. C. press bulletin, may explain his receipt of a telegram recently addressed "The Rev. Mr. Geo. Kable." Mr. Kable merely remarked that evidently the writer had never been in a county agent's office on Sunday.

A new subscriber to The Gazette-Times the past week is J. F. Furlong. Mr. Furlong formerly resided at Hardman but is now making his home in Heppner.

Star Theater Friday, April 2 CHARLES RAY, DOROTHY DALTON AND LOUISE GLAUM in "The Weaker Sex" A strong, virile, big-hearted play is this latest Triangle-Kay Bee. The story of a real woman, who disproves the "weaker" charge. It rings true. It is full of incident, full of plot, full of character. A capital story admirably presented. Saturday, April 3 JACK PICKFORD IN A DRAMA OF BOYHOOD AMONG THE HILLFOLKS OF KENTUCKY SUNDAY, APRIL 4-----DOUGLAS FAIRBANKS IN THE ARTCRAFT PICTURE "SAY! YOUNG FELLOW" The story of a young "cub" reporter who delivers the goods and will give you a good time watching him do it. Tuesday, April 6th Means matrimony, of course—"The Hope Chest". But don't think the marriage is the end. Not when the husband's family are rich snobs and the girl a common waitress! But she teaches them some lessons in democracy before she gets through. Come and see her do it. THE NEW ART FILM COMPANY PRESENTS Dorothy Gish IN "The Hope Chest" From the book by Mark Lee Luther
