Is Your Hook Baited Right?

For every species of fish and condition of water there is the proper bait which, when used, will give the greatest number of finny beauties in the basket at the end of the day's sport. The wise angler acquaints himself with this lore and his efforts are productive of greater results than the one who uses any kind of bait for any kind of fish in any kind of water.

Just so, there are in every locality certain ways for the merchant to increase his sales and among these advertising stands out preeminently. But the wise advertiser soon learns that advertising in itself is but a medium for results if the medium used is not the best. In Heppner, close attention to the mediums the advertiser has at his command shows conclusively that The Gazette-Times is the choice of local advertisers, and what is just as significant, the choice of large national advertisers, with whom advertising is a science and who judge a medium solely by the standard of the results obtained. That these large contracts are renewed every year is one of the strongest recommendations of the effectiveness of G.-T. advertising.

Place your advertising in The Gazette-Times and your judgment will be vindicated by the results obtained.
