BARNARD & EMRY

Mystery Tied With Red Tape

The time has long passed when a bank was surrounded with so much mystery and red tape that customers felt ill at ease every time they went to the bank to transact business.

Today, the progressive bank is a FRIENDLY INSTITUTION—designed to give service cheerfully and as a BUSINESS DUTY rather than as a favor.

At least, that is how this bank regards it.

Perhaps that is one of the good reasons why many refer to this bank as "my bank," based on the spirit of friendliness and co-operation they encounter whenever they call.

Perhaps, too, it is another reason why people like to save where they think they are welcome, and where, in addition, they know their money is absolutely safe.

Whether you wish to open a savings or checking account, or wish to transact business in one of the other departments of this bank, you will appreciate this spirit of friendliness which we believe is good business.

JOHN D., JR., ON WORLD CHURCH TOUR

Those promoting the welfare of spiritual man have learned that to interest the world it is necessary to employ attractions which, even outside the aim, will at least make the people listen. Into such place has come John D. Rockefeller Jr. heir to all the Rockefeller millions, now touring the country in the interests of the "World Church Movement. That Rockefeller Jr. is a sincere, forceful worker for the cause is conceded by all. He is attracting great crowds.

GETTING PLENTY OF CHANCES WITH REDS

If Charley See, now with the champion Cincinnati Reds, does not make good in the big league he can never blame fortune for "not giving him a chance."
Bought from the Buffalo club for $10,000, See went to the Reds at the same time Duncan, regular outfielder, came from Birmingham. Both tried for the outfield post, Duncan winning out. See started in the game as a pitcher, then switched to the outfield. Now Manager Moran of the Reds may try him in the box again.

MARY AND HER LAMB JOIN IN PARADE

If Mary Rogers of Atlanta City, N. J., has her way there will be an addition in the future to the Easter living symbols.
Mary would have neither a bunny nor a lamb with her. She has baby chicks for her Easter parade on the board walk at Atlanta City—instead Mary and her lamb were there—as shown here.

Condon Sheep Man Meets Death In Fall Over Bluff.

Patrick McNamee, for the past nine years a resident of the Condon section and extensively engaged in the sheep business with the Barker estate on Hay creek, was found dead at the foot of a cliff on one of the ranches last Wednesday. It is presumed that he was making his way home when overtaken by darkness, walked too near the edge of the cliff and slipped over. He was leading his horse at the time of the accident.
The body was found 24 hours later.
The body fell for a distance of fifty or sixty feet and from all appearances death must have been instantaneous.
Pat McNamee was a native of Clonely, Ireland and was 35 years of age.
He is survived by his father and a brother John in Ireland, two brothers here, Pete McNamee, who has been out here for six years, and Frank Mc-Namee, who came to Condon a day before his brother's death.—Condon Fossil is growing. P. N. Shown is erecting a 44 by 66 foot addition to his large garage which will be used for a machine shop, says the Fossil Journal.

Robert N. Stanfield will have opposition for the republican nomination for United States senator, as Albert Abraham of Roseburg came into the race at the eleventh hour. Seven candidates have filed for secretary of state, all republicans. Republicans will vote for Johnson, Hoover, Low-den and Wood for president and the democrats will vote only for William Gibbs McAdoo, the president's son-in-law.

America's Tribute to Its Heroes

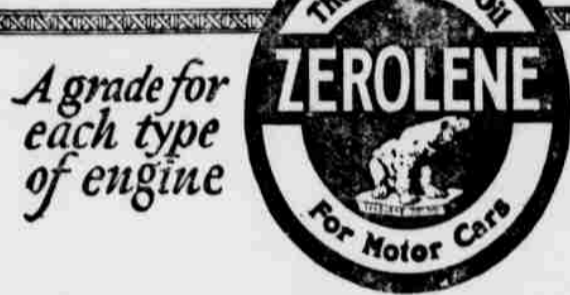

The Arlington Amphitheater, the United States' great tribute to its soldier, sailor and marine hero dead, located at Arlington Cemetery on the Potomac at Washington, D. C., is nearing completion and will be dedicated this year. G. A. R., Spanish-American and World War commanders will officiate. The structure cost a million dollars.
In the chapel are tombs for 60 bodies. It will require a special act of Congress to inter within the memorial President Wilson and General Pershing have been asked to make the principal addressers.
