

ADDITIONAL ITEMS OF LOCAL INTEREST

Horn—in this city on Tuesday, April 29, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Hennig, a daughter.

Max Gorkle, well known Pendleton business man, motored over from Pendleton on Wednesday to look after business interests in this city.

H. W. Snyder says another white mule arrived at his Black Horse ranch the other day, the second one within the year. White mules are considered a rarity in this section but it looks like they were about to become the rule at the Snider ranch instead of the exception.

Did you know that Oregon Jerseys hold 5 of the 8 world records and 13 per cent of all the records for over 600 pounds of butterfat? The Second Annual Jersey Jubilee will be held on May 3, 4, 5, 6, and will include a trip from Portland up the Willamette Valley and a visit to some of the greatest dairy herds in the Northwest. D. Brooks Hogan of Oswego is chairman of the Jubilee committee.

Star Theater

AFTER today our films will come direct to us from the Exchanges instead of from Condon, but the change causes some confusion in dates of programmes for the end of this week.

We will have good pictures every day, but because of the uncertainty of the order of their arrival we cannot advertise definite dates.
