SUMMER SCHOOL WILL OPEN AT PENDLETON

Pendleton, Oregon, June 5.—(Special)—An extension summer school of the State Normal School at Monmouth will be held in Pendleton starting June 21 and lasting for six weeks. The course will be identical with the summer normal course offered at Monmouth and the same credits will be allowed. The course will include instruction in special methods, educational psychology, physical training, public school music, etc. The tuition charge will be $5.00 for the entire course.

Announcement of the course at Pendleton was recently made by President Ackerman of the Oregon normal after consultation with Pendleton school officials. Superintendent Inlow who has been two years with the Pendleton schools was formerly superintendent at Forest Grove and is known as one of the strong school men of the state.
