Thos. Ross, the Echo wool buyer, spent Friday in Heppner conferring with local wool growers.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Carlson and children of Gooseberry were chautauqua visitors in Heppner on Wednesday.

Herbert Hynd, recent graduate of Heppner high school, is confined to his home at Cecil with an attack of the mumps.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Anderson and children of Ione were visitors in Heppner on Tuesday, to attend the chautauqua.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Vaughn and little daughter motored to Portland last Friday and will spend several days in the metropolis.

J. H. Frad has sold his residence property in southeast Heppner to Dr. N. M. Johnson. Dr. Johnson takes immediate possession.

Mrs. Lucy T. Wedding, formerly English instructor in Heppner high school, is here on a visit at the home of Mrs. C. W. Shurte.

Percy Jarmon, Butler creek farmer, spent Monday in Heppner looking after business matters. He was accompanied by Ed Ditty.

Mrs. Richard Wells left on Friday in her car for Portland. She was accompanied by the little son and daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Hill.

Paul Delin has arrived from Norway and will spend the summer with his uncle, Herman Neilson, on the latter's ranch near Hardman.

William V. Crawford Jr. returned last Thursday evening from Corvallis, where he completed his first year at the Oregon Agricultural College.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford returned last Saturday from a trip into Eastern Washington and Western Idaho. They visited in Spokane for a few days.

Eddie and David Reitmann of Ione spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Heppner, Eddie coming up to attend a meeting of the directors of the John Day District.

Max Rogers, who has been attending the Oregon Agricultural College during the past year, returned to his home in this city Sunday evening and will spend the summer vacation here.

Mrs. Chas. Sorber of Washougal, Wash., and Mrs. J. E. Lawrence of Portland, mother and sister respectively of Mrs. Gay M. Anderson are here on a visit at the Anderson home.

County clerk Waters issued marriage licenses the past week to Lester Doolittle and Millie Rood and Ray M. Taylor and Loz Briggs. All are well known young people of Heppner.

Mrs. Guy Wilson and two daughters arrived Friday from Laurel, Neb. to visit at the home of Mrs. Wilson's brother, F. R. Brown in this city. They were met at Arlington by Mr. Brown.

R. F. Hynd, former Heppner business man who is now retired and makes his home in Portland, is in the city this week looking after some business interests which he still retains here.

Messrs. Starkey and Irwin have installed a new Wayne air and water station in front of their place of business on Willow street for the convenience of their customers. The service is free.

Relatives of Elbert Lalande in this city received word the last of the week that he was critically ill from spotted fever. Later reports stated that he was improving. Mr. Lalande lives at Cave Creek, Arizona.

"Pat" Crow just couldn't stay away. He returned to Heppner the first of the week to spend a few days on business and visit with friends. Mr. Crow is with the Associated Engineering Corporation with headquarters in Portland.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Coats, who recently sold their Gale street property to Mrs. Ellen Buseck, left on Tuesday for outside points, where they will visit with a view to locating. Just where they will make their permanent home, they have not decided.

Dan B. Stalter, the veteran mining man, left the first of the week for the Mayflower mine in the Greenhorn mountains. The Mayflower mine is owned by local men who compose the Heppner Mining company. Mr. Stalter expects to accomplish a lot of work this summer.

Earl D. Hallock, who looks after the interests of the Hunt Commission company in Portland, spent the week end visiting with old Heppner friends. Mr. Hallock had been to Pendleton on a business trip, and getting so near the old home town, could not resist the temptation to come over for a brief visit here.

O. S. Hodson is down from his home at College Place, Wash., to look after business interests. Mr. Hodson owns a fine wheat ranch near Lexington which is being farmed by his step-son, Bert Smith. While here, Mr. Hodson is making arrangements for a public sale, at which he will dispose of a large number of horses and farm equipment.

Highway Engineer Claims Heppner Girl For Bride

A pretty wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John McCullough on Baltimore street this afternoon, when Mrs. McCullough's daughter, Miss Lorraine Grosheens, became the wife of E. L. Vinton of Portland.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. O. Livingstone and the ring service was used. The bride was dressed in a traveling suit of blue serge and carried a bouquet of lilies. Her sister, Miss Odile Grosheens, attended as bridesmaid and Emil Grosheens, brother of the bride, was best man. A number of relatives and intimate friends were present.

Immediately after the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Vinton left by motor for Portland, where they will spend their honeymoon. Mr. Vinton is a state highway engineer and has been making his home in Morrow county the last several months, while supervising highway construction here.

The bride is a popular Heppner girl, being a graduate of the local high school. During the past two years she has been in the employ of F. A. McMenamin, local attorney, in the capacity of stenographer.

Excellent Talent Brought Here During Chautauqua

Heppner people have been loud in their praise of the programs of high class talent which the chautauqua has brought here during the week. Elsie Mae Gordon in her impersonations made a lasting impression with the Heppner public and many have said that she is as good if not better than anyone they ever heard before in this line of entertainment.

The Harry Davies Singers in musical and light opera filled a big place in the program on Tuesday. Their presentation of "The Mikado" was especially good.

The audience gave a listening ear to Count Tolstoy last night. They appeared eager to get the message which he had to bring and the best of order prevailed, and has prevailed since the opening number.

The first night a number of chautauquans found the crude benches somewhat tiresome, so a large number of folding chairs were installed, which adds greatly to the comfort of those who are fortunate enough to get a chair.

The big musical numbers of the program have been reserved for the last of the week. Today finds Carmelny's Old Colonial Band with us. On Saturday comes the St. Cecilia Singing Orchestra, which is said to be one of the best musical organizations of its kind on the road today.

ROUND UP at Lena next Sunday, June 20. The Lena Round Up is a local institution where there are no trained bronchos and the boys ride them straight up too. Head for Lena Sunday, June 20.—(Adv.)

Alaska Pulp Timber Sold.

Bids for the sale of 100 million feet of pulp timber in Alaska have just been opened in the District Forester's office in Portland. The successful bidder was the Alaska Pulp and Paper company, of San Francisco, California, who submitted a bid of $1.00 per thousand board feet for certain classes of timber and 50 cents per thousand for the remainder.

The higher priced timber includes such Alaskan trees as Sitka spruce, western red cedar, and Alaskan cypress. Western hemlock and other kinds brought 50 cents per thousand. A large per cent of the timber advertised, Forest Service officers say, is suitable for paper making.

This big sale of Government timber is located in southeastern Alaska, on Port Snettisham and Glass Peninsulas, within the Tongass National Forest. The timber has been advertised and sold to the highest bidder, as required by federal law.

The Alaskan Pulp and Paper company are said to have made already heavy investments in waterpower development in Alaska, which may be used in conjunction with pulp plants to be built. From present indications Forest officers predict this pulp sale as the beginning of a legitimate development and use of the timber resources of Alaska to relieve the nationwide paper shortage.

STATE CHAMBER SEEKS TO DOUBLE POPULATION ON FARMS IN 3 YEARS

Oregon has water resources to irrigate 4,000,000 acres of land now unproductive, and which would support in comfort, 200,000 new population, or about 40,000 new families.

If in its three year campaign to put families on Oregon's vacant land, the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce can bring 1,000 families to utilize this land and water, it will mean in expenditures alone for such commodities as clothing, food, furniture, etc., of $1,000,000, calculating the expenditures for an entire family at only $1,000 per year, to say nothing of the wealth produced by these new settlers. Land settlement is one of the chief aims of the Oregon State Chamber of Commerce and its program in its movement to aid in the development of the State.

Oregon has 16,000,000 acres of tillable land now uncultivated. Oregon produced 20,400,000 bushels of wheat in 1919.

If Oregon's 16,000,000 acres of tillable but uncultivated land were planted in wheat and the yield were the Oregon average for ten years—21.9 bushels per acre—new production would be 350,400,000 bushels which, at the price today of $3 per bushel, would mean a cash value of $1,051,200,000.

The Oregon State Chamber of Commerce expects to double the number of farmers in three years. If this means double the wheat crop; it will mean an additional yield of 20,400,000 bushels of wheat, which at the prevailing price would mean a cash value in new money of $61,200,000.
