STATE NEWS

Terrebonne, Ore., June 23.—What old settlers thought was chalk and what sugar refiners knew to be diatomaceous earth is being taken from the Western Diatomite company's mine at Lower Bridge in such quantities that warehouses here are unable to accommodate it and erection of a new one is to be begun within a few days. Diatomite is valued as a paint and rubber filler and as an insulating material.

Portland, Oregon, June 23.—Lanterns designed especially for the camper and hiker are to be turned out by a new manufacturing concern, the De Luxe Electric Lantern company, which has just decided to locate here. It will ship to all Coast cities and Alaska.

Astoria, Oregon, June 23.—Pulpwood is probably soon to come from the former holdings of the Hammond lumber company in Clatsop county, which has just been purchased by the Crown-Willamette Paper company. The price is known to range between $1,500,000 and $2,000,000.

Astoria, Oregon, June 23.—Logging operations involving expenditure of over $1,500,000 in the developing of a tract of 600,000,000 feet of timber in Clatsop county have started by the Saddle Mountain Logging company.

Portland, Oregon, June 23.—Much after the fashion of collecting maple sap, the Northwestern Turpentine company has been gathering pitch from fir stands in this section and has begun production of turpentine and rosin. Leases have been secured on certain tracts of timber, providing that all holes bored in the trees shall be plugged up when the pitch has been removed. After securing the turpentine by distilling, it has been found that a small amount of balsam could be obtained from old growth yellow fir.

Portland, Oregon, June 23.—Logs from many coast sections of the state are to go over the great log booming plant being completed on the Willamette slough. Terminals and dumps, the largest on any rivers of the Northwest, are being installed at a cost of $250,000. The first timber to go through is that being cut in the virgin country on the Nehalem-Tualatin watershed.

ence in military training for the year 1920. Each year war department officers inspect and grade the military work of schools having military departments and award 15 of the best of the rank of distinguished institution. Military science and training have been in charge of Major Joseph K. Partello for the last two years.

FACE COURT WITH THEIR BOY, CHAMP DEMPSEY

Parent-like—when their boy was in trouble—they dropped everything and rushed to his aid, even though he be the champion fighter of the world. This shows Mr. Hiram Dempsey and his wife—with their boy, Champion Jack Dempsey, at San Francisco as the trial started in U. S. federal court charging the champion with having evaded the draft during war.

NORTHWEST SEEDSMEN USE TESTING PLANT

Progressive Dealers Send Many Samples to College Laboratory, and Train Samplers.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, June 23.—Several seed firms of the Northwest states have not only sent in many seed samples for testing in the seed laboratory conducted by the farm crops department, but in the last few months have dispatched a number of seed analysts to the laboratory for additional training.

"The seed laboratory for all states of the northwest has been located so long at the Oregon college, and has served so many persons, that seed firms avail themselves of the
