

LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

E. S. Duran and George Peck of Lexington were Saturday visitors in Heppner.

The family of B. F. Sorenson again have their freedom after being quarantined for several weeks with small pox.

D. C. Gurdane and son Bert returned Monday from Portland and are now busy installing a new snooker table in their billiard hall.

Henry Schwarz, who used to be in the retail meat business in this city, is over from his Cottonwood ranch in Grant county this week.

Dick Gentry, Grant county sheepman, has been spending several days in Heppner the last of the week, attending to business matters.

Vane Jones returned Sunday evening from Newberg where he spent a few days visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jones.

E. C. Hensley and wife and daughter of Hermiston were in Heppner this week. Mr. Hensley is traveling for a well known sewing machine firm.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Akers and daughters, Mrs. Chas. Barlow and Miss Alma Akers left on Tuesday for Goldendale, where they will visit with relatives.

Frank W. Turner left Tuesday for Portland in response to word that Mrs. Turner would undergo an operation. She has been in Portland since Saturday.

Jos. Devine of Lexington and J. H. Carmichael and Gene Gentry, who hail from the same place, were students at the grain grading school held here the first of the week.

W. A. McClintock of Gooseberry spent Monday in Heppner on business. He says he will have a big wheat harvest this year and while here was looking for a combine harvester.

Oscar Keithley of Eight Mile was in the city the first of the week attending the grain grading school which was conducted under the direction of Professor Hyslop of the Oregon Agricultural college.

LOST—Bay mare, 8 years old, weight about 1500, branded JM connected on left side. Reward for information leading to recovery will be paid by E. P. Berry, Heppner, Ore. 2tp.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vinton returned the first of the week from Portland. They will make their home for the present at Ione, where Mr. Vinton is in charge of the engineering work on the Willow creek highway.

County Clerk Waters issued a marriage license last week to Louis Marquardt and Mrs. Brewer of Lexington. They were married Saturday, June 26. Mr. Marquardt is a well known young wheat farmer of the Lexington section.

Mr. and Mrs. S. G. Linsinger and nephew Clifford M. Boone of Los Angeles, Cal., will motor to Portland for a week end visit with relatives.

Judge Campbell, W. L. McCaleb and W. O. Minor made a tour of inspection over the Ritter road last week. They were accompanied by Geo. Milholland.

Jim Burnside and wife of Hardman were here on Tuesday. According to Mr. Burnside, there will be a big yield in his locality this year in spite of the late season.

Otto Robinette, who runs the Groshens ranch on upper Rhea creek, returned the first of the week from Idaho, where he took a bunch of sheep for summer range.

W. E. White, erstwhile prominent merchant of Monument, who spent the winter at Prairie, is over from Grant county this week on a visit with his many Heppner friends.

Karl Hoppold returned Tuesday evening from a business trip to Sherman county. Mr. Hoppold says his Sherman county wheat is looking good and believes it will make a yield of about 12 sacks per acre.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. McNamer of Ione were Tuesday callers here. While in the city, Mr. McNamer called attention to the fact that Ione will put on a fine chautauqua on the 14-18 of July and on behalf of the people of Ione extended a cordial invitation to all Heppnerites to attend. The program in detail will be found in another column of The Gazette-Times.

L. N. Traver of the firm of Snoox & Traver, contractors, is now in Corvallis, where his firm has taken building contracts from the state to erect structures at the O. A. C. Mr. Traver recently completed the Elks building here and will soon turn over the new hotel to its owners.

An infant industry that Heppner may be proud of and an industry which is rapidly growing out of its swaddling clothes, is the Morrow County Creamery company. Under the management of W. Claude Cox, the business of the creamery has grown by leaps and bounds. Last week at this institution over two thousand pounds of butter were produced. The biggest problem of the company at the present time is keeping the dairymen supplied with cans. There is a great future for the industry.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer and Mr. and Mrs. Roy V. Whites returned Sunday from Portland where they spent the week attending the Shriners' convention and the annual Rose Festival. In speaking of the convention Mr. Spencer said it was wonderful, something he had never seen before and never expects to see again. In fact the whole affair was pulled off so successfully by Portland that many cities shook their heads in refusal for taking on the convention next year, as they feared they would not be able to come up to the high standard set by the Rose City. Atlantic City gets the convention next year.

E. J. Merrill was in the city on Tuesday from his farm near Hardman.

Jason Biddle, Rhea creek farmer, spent Saturday in Heppner on matters of business.

That office boy was a good picker

IT WAS my busy day.
AND I told the boy.
I COULD not see.
ANY VISITORS.
AND HE popped back.
AND SAID there was.
A GENTLEMAN outside.
WHO WISHED to see me.
AND I said "No."
BUT I guess the boy.
IS LIKE my wife.
AND DOESN'T know.
WHO'S BOSS.
FOR BACK he comes.
AND SAYS the man.
WANTS JUST a word.
AND I told the boy.
I COULD tell the man.
JUST WHERE to go.

IN JUST three words.
BUT THE boy came back,
AND SAID the man.
COULD SPOT me one.
HIS BUSINESS needed.
JUST TWO words.
AND I'M a sport.
AND CURIOUS too.
SO IN he came.
AND HANDED me.
SOME CIGARETTES to try.
AND SAID "They Satisfy."
AND I will state.
HE SAID something.

"THEY satisfy"—that says it. Never were finer tobaccos used in any cigarette and never were tobaccos more carefully and skillfully blended. Chesterfields give you all that any cigarette could give, plus a certain "satisfy" quality that is exclusively theirs. The blend can't be copied.

True Independence

"No man is truly independent who has no other source of income than his daily wages or weekly salary because, if for any reason, that income is permanently or even temporarily cut off, the man instantly becomes dependent."

Therein lies the most valid argument for good investments. Time and continuous service are back of our ability to make this institution useful to your interests. With a fund of accumulated experience at our command, we are ready and willing to apply this ability for your benefit, when you have your financial headquarters here.

Financial guidance is as desirable as a safe place for funds. We offer you both.
