

LOCAL NEWS OF THE WEEK

Jess Dees and family came up from Willows on Tuesday.

A. H. Nelson, prominent wheat farmer of near Lexington was here on business Tuesday.

Joe Kenny returned to his desk at the First National Bank after enjoying a vacation of two weeks.

Walter Dobyns returned Tuesday from Lehman Springs, where he went to help celebrate the Fourth.

W. P. Prophet, Hardman merchant, spent a few hours in Heppner Tuesday looking after business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Cronk returned Monday from a visit of two weeks to Portland and the Grays Harbor country.

L. P. Davidson and Harlan McCurdy, prominent farmers of the upper Eight Mile section were in the city on Tuesday.

N. S. Whetstone returned the last of the week from an extensive visit to friends and relatives at Pendleton and Walla Walla.

Wm. Haylor, local jeweler, went to Portland last Saturday and spent the week end on business. He returned home Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Frad left on Monday for the Coast, where they will spend the summer months for the benefit of Mrs. Frad's health.

The W. P. Mahoney family is enjoying a visit this week to their old home at Bonners Ferry, Idaho. They made the trip over in their car.

Ed Bennett was able to return to his duties at Minor & Co's, the first of the week after being laid off for several days on account of injuries.

Dean Truman Jr. arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Goodman in this city last Friday. Mother and son are doing fine and Dean Sr. is all smiles.

Owing to the fact that the family of G. Franzen is quarantined with small pox, the Heppner Tailoring & Cleaning Shop will be closed for an indefinite period.

Lena Snell Shurte, county superintendent of schools, left last Friday for Salt Lake City to attend the annual convention of the National Educational Association.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Thornton and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fritsch visited over the week end with friends in Pendleton. They also motored over to Walla Walla for a day before returning home and enjoyed a very delightful trip.

Richard Smith and wife, who have been working during the winter and spring at the Parker & Vaughan ranch just below Heppner, have gone to the ranch of Jerm O'Conner, where they have accepted employment for the coming year.

J. L. Wilkins, former Heppner hotel man, who now resides at Stevenson, Wash., was in Heppner the first of the week on business. While here he made a proposition to the directors of the new hotel, for taking charge of that property.

Miss Gladys Lane is visiting a short time with her mother, Mrs. Wm. Luttrell. Miss Lane formerly attended high school in Joseph and is now a student at the University of Oregon. She makes her home with an aunt, Mrs. M. D. Clark of Heppner.—Enterprise Record-Chieftain.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Turner returned on Friday from Portland. While in the Valley, Mrs. Turner had a pleasant visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Edwards, formerly of this county, who now reside at Forest Grove. The Edwards only recently sold their farm home near Hillsboro and have purchased a fine modern home at Forest Grove.

The local school board received a telegram the first of the week from Miss Gertrude Urton, who is now in California, stating that she had accepted a position in the south and therefore tendered her resignation as instructor of English in the local high school. Miss Urton taught at Lexington last year and had been employed to teach here the coming year.

Dr. and Mrs. M. A. Leach and children of Corvallis visited over the week end at the homes of Mrs. Leach's brother, J. O. Hager and sisters, Mrs. Clifford Sims, Mrs. A. D. McMurdo and Miss Lulu Hager. Dr. Leach was a practicing dentist in Heppner for a number of years and is now prominent in the profession at Corvallis. They are traveling by auto.

Mrs. T. J. Humphreys and daughters Leta and Evelyn, accompanied by Rev. W. O. Livingstone and wife, departed early Monday morning by auto for Turner, Oregon, where they will attend the annual convention of the Christian churches of Oregon during this week. Before returning home, Mrs. Humphreys will visit her mother who resides at Hillsboro. Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone expect to return on Saturday.

Oscar Brower, a brother of Mrs. Richard Smith came up to Heppner after the Shrine festivities closed at Portland, and spent a few days visiting with his relatives here. Mr. Brower joined his wife here, she having visited with the Smiths during the time her husband was with his Shrine band in Portland. It had been more than twenty years since Mr. Brower had seen his sister and they had a very pleasant reunion. Mr. Brower comes from Coffeyville, Kansas, is a musician by profession, and was with his band from Pittsburg, Kansas. He entertains thoughts of returning to Heppner, or some other part of Oregon in the near future and engaging in business. He has attended many Shrine conclaves, as well as other lodge conventions, but the one at Portland far excelled them all.

Ed Buckman and his men have just finished a piece of concrete walk along the Morrow property leading to the school house which is an added improvement to that part of town.

Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Lamley spent a few hours in Heppner on Tuesday while on their way to Pendleton after making an extensive motor trip thru this section of Eastern Oregon. They were accompanied to Pendleton by John F. Vaughn, local garage man. Mr. Lamley is traveling representative for the Goodyear Tire & Rubber company.

Carroll Morrison, former well known Heppner boy who has been making his home in Portland for a number of years, arrived Sunday, a visit at the home of his sister, Mrs. W. O. Hill of Lexington. Mr. Morrison spent 11 months overseas with the Portland Base Hospital Corps in the late war. This is his first visit to Heppner in five years and of course notes many beneficial improvements here. He may decide to spend the summer in Morrow county.

Ole Johnson is sick at the home of Wightman Bros., as the result of a fall from a hay wagon on last Friday while helping in gathering in the alfalfa. Just how Mr. Johnson came to fall from the top of the load of hay and over the rack in the manner in which he did, is not known. He dropped a distance of some eight feet and lit in a sitting position on the hard ground and the impact practically paralyzed one leg and has left him in quite a serious condition from which his recovery will be slow. He is being cared for at the Wightman home.

I. C. Cox and F. N. Whitney, prominent alfalfa growers of the Hermiton project were in Heppner on Tuesday visiting with friends and attending to business matters. Mr. Whitney came over primarily to visit with his old school chum, Sam E. Van Vactor. These two men used to fight each other when they were boys, but evidently by-gones are by-gones, for when they met Tuesday they fell on each other like a French general greeting a hero. Mr. Whitney admits that his heavier adversary usually got the best of the battle. Messrs. Cox and Whitney returned to their homes Wednesday.

Doric Lodge No. 26, K. of P. duly installed their newly elected officers on Tuesday evening. Chas. Thomson acting as installing officer and inducting the following into their respective offices: L. A. Hunt, Chancellor; Chas. Barlow, Vice Chancellor; Chas. Thomson, Master of Work; W. W. Smead, Keeper of Records and Seal and Master of Finance; Vawter Crawford, Master of Exchequer; Ira W. Thornton, Master at Arms; J. W. Fritsch, Prelate; W. O. Dix, Inner Guard; Dr. M. M. Johnson, Outer Guard. Doric Lodge has made an excellent growth the past year, has purchased a good lot on which in the not distant future they hope to be able to erect a Castle Hall, and their prospects are bright.

One sacrifice, one assist, no errors!

EVERY WILD-EYED fan WAS ON his feet. OR SOMEONE else's. AND THEIR soft remarks. REACHED THE next county. AND WHILE I'm not. EASILY EXCITED. I GUESS I was helping. THE PITCHER bean. THAT CLEAN-UP litter. AND MY good south paw. HIT A fat fan. RIGHT IN the vestibule. AND HE said "Phooo. A FOUL tip. RIGHT ON my last cigar." AND I was sorry. AND GAVE him one.

OF MY cigarettes. AND HE saw the package. THAT I took it from. AND SMILED and said. "THEY SATISFY! AND THAT smoke you smashed. WAS ONE my wife. BOUGHT AT a bargain. SO THAT makes it. A SATISFY. DOUBLE HEADER." AND AFTER that. I EVEN saw him. ROOTING FOR the umpire. TWENTY hits—twenty chances with never a goose-egg—that's Chesterfield's average on every package. Trust the fans to pick them out. An unusual blend of Turkish and Domestic—it can't be copied. These cigarettes are there—they satisfy!
