

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

John Viegas, Monument garage man, spent Wednesday in Heppner on business.

Mr. and Mrs. O. T. Ferguson of Sand Hollow were Heppner visitors on Wednesday.

E. O. Neill, who runs several bands of sheep, was in Heppner for a few hours last Sunday.

W. E. Wiglesworth, Butter creek sheepman, was a Heppner business visitor on Tuesday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stieckler at their home in Black Horse on Thursday, July 29.

Chas. Chick has returned to Heppner after attending the summer session at the University of Oregon in Eugene.

Roy V. Whiteis, local real estate and insurance man, made a business trip to Monument and Long Creek this week.

George L. Baker, mayor of Portland, has finally conceded to the demands of the people and will run for re-election.

Mrs. Frank Engleman of Ione spent a few days in Heppner this week as a guest at the home of Dr. and Mrs. C. C. Chick.

J. M. Morrow, who travels for the Pendleton Marble Works is spending a few days in the Heppner territory this week.

Ed Buckman returned home Sunday from a trip to Omaha, where he had accompanied a trainload of cattle for Matt Hughes.

Eddie Reitmann, a director of the John Day Irrigation District, was in the city on Tuesday evening from Ione to attend a board meeting.

Dan Engleman is over from Wapato, Wash. this week visiting with old friends. Mr. Engleman is quite impressed with the Wapato country.

Miss Virginia Currin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George J. Currin of Gresham, arrived in Heppner on Saturday to make a visit with relatives.

W. O. Dix left last week for Monmouth to join Mrs. Dix, who has been attending the summer session of the Oregon State Normal School.

Miss Mary Notson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson, who has been attending Willamette University at Salem, arrived home on Friday evening.

H. D. Fear, local truck dealer, delivered a United States truck the first of the week to Francis Griffin, a young wheat farmer of the southwest Ione section.

Lee Padberg of Ione and G. A. Bleakman of Hardman, county commissioners, were in the city on Wednesday to attend the regular session of county court.

Bert Gurdane returned the first of the week from Pendleton with his Chandler, which he treated to three coats of paint and one of varnish. As a result the car looks like new.

Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brady were up from Ione on Monday. Mr. Brady recently bought the Shutt ranch just below Ione from Ellis Minor and he and Mrs. Brady are now living there.

Miss Ruby Corrigan of the First National Bank and Miss Odile Groshens, stenographer in the office of county agent L. A. Hunt, left last Sunday for a visit of a week to Portland and the coast.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Haynie and daughter Dona returned to Heppner Sunday after spending two weeks at Portland and the coast. Mr. Haynie says the weather at the coast just now is a little too cold for comfort.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Swindig and children returned to their home at Dayton, Wash., the first of the week after visiting here for a few days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Starkey. They made the trip in their car.

Mrs. Frank Anderson of Eight Mile has purchased the Clyde Wells residence in southeast Heppner and will take possession about the middle of September. The price paid was $4,800.

The new farm residence of Arnold G. Piper north of Heppner is rapidly nearing completion and will be ready for occupancy in about two more weeks. It is one of the most thoroughly modern farm houses in Morrow county.

Joseph Delmar Waters, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Waters of this city, will attend the Hill Military Academy in Portland in the fall. The term opens on September 15. Young Waters will be enrolled as a cadet in the academy.

Howard M. James and family have established a camp at the lake where they will remain for about a month. Upon returning to town they will prepare to move to Heppner, where Mr. James will have charge of the school.—Enterprise Record-Chieftain.

William F. Pettyjohn of Butter creek was in the city Tuesday to make final proof on his homestead before J. A. Waters, county clerk. His witnesses were Mack Gentry, Fred Coxon, George Cummins and W. E. Wiglesworth, all of Butter creek.

Arcle and Banner Zeek, brothers from Sherman county, have purchased the E. F. Clark ranch south of Heppner. In the deal is included a large amount of personal property. The price paid was $62,500. Ray M. Oviatt of this city handled the deal.

Mayor Vaughan has been spending several days the last week on his wheat ranch in the upper Gooseberry section, getting harvest under way. The mayor found some difficulty in securing enough men to operate at first, but everything is running smoothly now and the golden grain is pouring into the sack.

S. E. Notson returned Saturday from Portland, where he attended a meeting of the Oregon republican state central committee. Mr. Notson says the committee decided, among other things, to work for the election of R. N. Stanfield for United States senator.

Sam H. Boardman and John Jenkins, prominent boosters of the Boardman project, were meeting with Heppner friends last Friday. Mr. Boardman is the father of the town which bears his name and he was the man who virtually put the town of Boardman on the map.

Mike Zepanek, who used to wield the hammer at the anvil when he was in the blacksmith business in Heppner, but who now tills the soil out in north Morrow county, was here on Wednesday attending to business matters. W. B. Finley, another prominent farmer of that section, was also here.

Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Christensen left on Monday for Moscow, Idaho, where Mr. Christensen expects to become identified with the farming industry. Mr. Christensen has been with the Morrow County Abstract company during the past six months and during their residence here, the Christensens have made many friends who will regret their departure.

F. E. Bushnell, a band leader of many years experience, was here the last of the week looking over the local situation with a view to taking charge of the Heppner band. Mr. Bushnell had charge of the bands at Baker and Huntington for a number of years and has high recommendations. He is still undecided as to where he will locate, as he has received several flattering offers.

The validity of Heppner's $100,000 water bond issue never was questioned by Attorney General Brown, all reports appearing in the city dailies to the contrary, notwithstanding. There was one step in the proceedings which did not appear when presented to the attorney general for approval. This has now been supplied as well as a certificate setting forth that the city is not involved in any litigation that might endanger the value of the bonds.

Hanson Hughes returned last Thursday evening from the middle west and more particularly Springfield, Missouri, where he made a visit with relatives. Mr. Hughes took a shipment of cattle and sheep to Omaha and says the stock made the trip through in good condition, most of the losses occurring between Heppner and Huntington on the first division. Mr. Hughes says that politics were getting warm in the "Show Me" state. The Missouri primaries were held on Tuesday.

Here as in every community, there are farmers who are doing a little more than others, whose stock and crops are above the average. They are the men who make money and keep up the fertility of their farms.

These are the men from whom we can learn the most. Study their methods and management. Perhaps we too can help you to improve your plans and methods from our experience in aiding these farmers who have already reached a larger success.
