Honey Is Sugar Substitute.
 Lucky is the owner of an aplaya in these days of high priced sugar, for honey is an excellent substitute for sugar, declares Sara W. Prentiss, instructor in household science at O. A. C. The little busy bee is one producer not contaminated with the strike germ, and no profiteer has cornered the honey market. By using at least the part of the home-made honey crop not in marketable condition, the big item of sugar cost can be almost, or altogether eliminated from the monthly bill. The college has prepared a number of recipes for the use of honey as sugar substitute.

Oregon Cow Makes New Record.
 A new high-water mark in production by testing association cows in Oregon has been set by "Pennie," a grade Jersey in the dairy herd of L. A. McCormack of Tillamook. Pennie gave 1896 pounds of milk, 115.66 pounds of fat, in the month of June. About $70 worth of fat alone in a single month. D. A. Wilbur, tester for the Tillamook association, reports an average yield of 40 pounds of fat. E. B. Fitts, in charge of association testing for O. A. C. reports 166 honor cows in all associations for June.

New Debate Trainer for O. A. C.

A Sore Point.
 In a case tried in the South the judge very sternly demanded of the defendant:
 "Why did you strike this man?"
 "Your Honor," was the reply, "he called me a liar."
 "Is that true?" asked the judge, turning to the man with the battered countenance.
 "Certainly, it's true, your Honor," said the accused. "I called him a liar because he is one, and I can prove it."
 Then the judge turned to the defendant with, "What have you to say to that?"
 "I don't think it has anything to do with the case, your Honor. Even if I am a liar, I reckon I've got a right to be sensitive about it, 'aint I?"—Harper's.
