FARM BOYS ON 4000-MILE TOUR

One hundred and fifteen farm boys, who have recently won a competitive examination in agricultural subjects, were rewarded with a 4000-mile tour through the principal farming regions of the country. The trip took them through New York, Chicago, Detroit, Cleveland and Washington, ending at College Station, Tex. The tour was financed by the business men of Texas. Its purpose was to broaden the viewpoint of the future farmer boy and to enable him to meet agriculture problems with more intelligence.

PETITION OF ANNEXATION

Residents of Northeast Corner of Wheeler County Would Join Gilliam County.

For a long time the residents of the northeast corner of Wheeler county have been considering the matter of having their property included in Gilliam county, and now they have taken action in regard to the matter. This is the territory in Wheeler county known as the Ward voting precinct, and is located in the Lone Rock neighborhood.

Petitions to have the matter placed on the ballot at the November election were filed at the courthouse in Fossil during the past week. The petition was signed by 14 voters, a majority of those residing in the district, and is filed under provisions of Chapter Ten of the General Laws of Oregon for 1913.

In all, the change would involve 42 sections of land, being sections 7 to 36 inclusive in Township 6, Range 24, and sections 1, 2, 11, 12, 13, 14, 23, 24, 25, 26, 35, and 36 in Township 6, Range 23.

The assessed valuation of this territory is not great, and the loss in this respect to Wheeler county would not be serious if the change were made. On the other hand, people of the territory in question naturally come this way, and if the change is to their advantage and the majority desire to make it, then not to allow them to do so would be an injustice.

Following are the signers of the petition: J. B. Huddleston, T. S. Lyons, Merta J. Lyons, Viola Ward, S. P. Crenshaw, Jennie Crenshaw, A. L. Rondeau, Teresia Rondeau, by Ivan L. Hobson, of the United States Department of Agriculture, Anna L. Brown, Bess Huddleston, T. E. Brown and Cora Moore.—Completion of ten sets of instruction, and don Globe-Times.

OREGON FARMERS NEED NEWSPAPER AD SERVICE

$300,000 Worth of Surplus Produce Could Be Marketed Best Through Community Press.

Oregon Agricultural College, Corvallis, Aug. 25.—Oregon farmers could market at least $300,000 worth of farm produce that now either goes to waste or is sold as common stuff while qualified for high class specialties, said C. J. McIntosh, agricultural press editor of the state agricultural college, to the members of the State Editorial association at Astoria, August 14.

"The farmers need this service much more than the editors need the business of advertising," the speaker asserted. "It would add not less than $200 profit to the average farm, and greatly benefit the community by supplying the best produce in the most economical manner possible."

It was shown that as many as eight hahis, long and short, with double that number of handlings, five commissions, and often a few speculations, intervene between the Oregon grower and the Oregon consumer of potatoes. This ties up much labor, many cars, and some good money, causes deterioration of the commodity, and contributes to industrial unrest.

Editors were urged to go after the business in order to help the farmer market to the best advantage. Since the average newspaper serves 250 farms, it should advertise $50,000 worth of stuff annually. Three per cent of the total volume of business for advertising, the rate used before the war by big business, would bring to the average home paper an advertising revenue in farm stuff alone of $1500 a year. "The college is ready to help develop this business. Let's go get it," he concluded.

Better Seed Needed.

The nine home-making club girls of Donald, Marion county, have the best home-making club so far visited by Ivan L. Hobson, of the United States Department of Agriculture, Each girl was given a bead on completion of ten sets of instruction, and don Globe-Times.
