

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

A. Henriksen, Cecil alfalfa raiser and cattleman, was a Tuesday visitor in Heppner.

C. W. McNamer, retail meat merchant of Ione, motored up from the Egg City on Tuesday to look after local meat interests.

Jesse D. French, leading stockman of Butter creek, was doing business in this city Tuesday. Good rains out his way will help the range.

The Heppner Garage this week sold a one and a half ton Republic truck to E. A. Poe of Ione. Mr. Poe is a wheat farmer of the Ione country.

Mrs. Frankie Reese of Yakima and Mrs. Holmes Holdman of Ione visited several days during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cason in this city.

Roy Wheelhouse, of Arlington, is visiting this week at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Lena Snell Shurtle. While here the young man is having dental work done.

Albert E. Johnson, north Ione farmer, is hauling his wheat crop to the Jordan Siding warehouse in a new Oldsmobile truck. Bert says its some speed wagon.

Mrs. Pearl Hendry, of Yakima, Wash., is visiting this week at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Cason, in this city. She arrived on Saturday last.

County Commissioner Lee Padberg came up from his Ione home on Wednesday morning to be present at the regular monthly meeting of the Morrow county court.

Samuel E. Notson, state central committeeman for Morrow county for the republican party, left Tuesday morning for Portland to attend a meeting of the committee.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Woodson and daughters Margaret and Bernice were passengers on the local Wednesday morning for Portland, where they will visit for several days.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wildenan of Eight Mile were Tuesday visitors in Heppner. Mr. Wildenan expects to finish up his harvest work by the last of this week. He operates a combine.

Dan Barlow, prominent Rhea creek farmer, has purchased the residence property of Mrs. A. G. Devore in this city and expects to move his family into town by the time school opens.

Frank Frates of Eight Mile was a Heppner business visitor last Saturday. Mr. Frates is making preparations for taking over his ranch again after leasing it for a year to Ray Aubrey.

W. T. McNabb, of Ione, was a visitor in Heppner Monday. Mr. McNabb has charge of the warehouse at McNabb this season, and will handle his full quota of the grain crop of that section.

Harlan McCurdy is busy hauling wheat into Heppner with the new Gary truck which he and his partner Lou Davidson recently purchased. He is making two trips per day covering a total distance of 88 miles.

Mrs. Kate Vaughn, who spent the summer in Portland, arrived in Heppner Monday evening by auto. She was accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth K. Mahoney, who have been visiting with Portland friends.

Milt Maxwell will cover his territory for the Watkins people in a new Dodge delivery car hereafter. Mr. Maxwell left for Ione in this new machine on Tuesday morning after buying the same from the Cohn Auto Co., of this city.

Ernest Hellker and family were visitors in Heppner on Tuesday, taking advantage of the excellent weather and better roads to make the trip to the county seat. Mr. Hellker is one of the successful farmers of the Ione section.

Chas. Stanton, formerly a wheat farmer of the Eight Mile section, came down from his home at Dayton, Wash., last Monday and spent a few days on business. Mr. Stanton is still the owner of an excellent wheat ranch on upper Eight Mile.

Mrs. Carrie Vaughn left Tuesday on an extensive eastern trip and expects to spend about six weeks in Illinois and Ohio. Mrs. Spencer Akers went along with her mother, and the ladies expect to spend a very pleasant time with relatives.

Mrs. Marsh White of Lexington had the misfortune to fall and break her arm on Saturday. Dr. Chick was called to attend her, and states that Mrs. White, regardless of her advanced years, is doing well and should recover rapidly from her injuries.

Dean T. Goodman arrived in the city Monday evening, driving up a new Buick Six car from Portland, which has been purchased by Hugh Berry of this city. Mr. Goodman was accompanied home by Mrs. Goodman and young Dean T. Jr., who have been visiting in Portland since early in July.

Fifty-ninth Annual Oregon State Fair, Salem, September 27 to October 2—splendid agricultural, livestock, an industrial exhibits, excellent races, a superb horse show, high class amusements—greater and better than ever before. A. H. Lea, secretary, Salem.

Miss Vieta Hayes returned to her home at St. Johns, Oregon, after a visit of a week with friends and relatives in Heppner. She had been on a visit with her brother, Walter Hayes at Lone Rock. She makes her home with Mr. and Mrs. Ed Day at St. Johns.

Chas. Erwin and wife and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Erwin and children returned to their farm homes southwest of Ione the last of the week after making a visit with relatives and friends at Prescott, Wash. They were accompanied on their return by David Erwin, father of the Erwin boys, who will spend a few weeks on the Morrow county ranches.

Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Notson celebrated their silver wedding anniversary on Saturday evening last, by a quiet gathering at the family home, all members of the family being present on this occasion except their son, Lee, who is living at present in Iowa. Gifts suitable to the event were presented to Mr. and Mrs. Notson by members of the family.

A visit the past week at the home of L. Redding on Eight Mile, reveals what a little water will do, applied at the right time of the year. Mr. Redding has a very fine lawn about his residence, as nice a garden as we ever looked at, and also boasts a strawberry patch that just now has ripening berries, green berries and blossoms on the bushes. Water is furnished from a reservoir on the hill that is kept full by pumping from a well on the farm. Mr. Redding certainly has it over us town folks with his water system.

Hold Money Matters Steady

To have control of money matters, one must have a reliable record of outgo and income, and know the amount of funds on hand at all times.

Such a record is provided by the check stubs in our check books.

On each stub you should make a record of the check, carry the balance on hand forward from the last stub, add deposits, deduct the amount of the check. Then you keep a steady line on finances.
