James Carty, prominent north end sheepman, spent Saturday here on business.

Mrs. Jas. Wilkes has been quite ill during the week at her home on Chase street.

G. M. Schemp is just finishing up a new residence on his property in north Heppner.

Mrs. Lea Taylor and Miss Edythe Poyd are new operators on the local telephone exchange.

David Hynd, of the Hynd Bros. Co. of Sand Hollow, was doing business in Heppner yesterday.

Mrs. E. M. Shutt and daughter, Miss Essie, returned Sunday evening from a month's visit to Portland.

Mike Donnelly, leading citizen of Irrigon, was in Heppner several days the first of the week on business.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George L. Morey at their home in Lexington on Saturday, September 4th.

Mrs. Blanche Brady of Ione and her friend, Miss Madeline Cherry of Portland, were Friday visitors in Heppner.

W. S. Smith, Ione realty dealer, and John H. Blake, farmer of that section, were business men in Heppner on Monday.

Mrs. Jay Harris has gone to The Dalles to join Mr. Harris, who works on the O.W. She was accompanied by her mother Mrs. J. E. Johnson.

G. W. Moore, Willow creek mill man is getting the lumber down from the mill and on his lot here, preparatory to putting up his new residence.

Mrs. R. J. Howard and children, who have been living during the summer at Condon, have moved to Arlington, where the children will be in school for the winter.

Mrs. O. M. Whittington of Bend was here the last of the week for a brief visit with her sister, Mrs. N. A. Clark. Mrs. Whittington was a guest at the Frank Winnard home above town on Saturday.

Miss Frances Rose of Mannington, West Virginia, has been visiting the past ten days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Gemmell in this city. Miss Rose will teach in the schools at Pocatello, Idaho this fall.

Mrs. Arthur Miller (nee Marcia Winnard) arrived the last of the week to visit with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winnard. She was met at Echo by her brother Willis and sister Miss Elvada Winnard.

A son arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James E. Berwick in this city on Saturday the 4th inst. He is a husky boy, according to Dr. Chick and should develop in time into just as good a locomotive driver as his daddy.

Announcements received this week by his friends in this city, proclaim the arrival of a son on August 29th, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kenton. Mr. Kenton, formerly a Heppner boy, now resides in Albany, Oregon.

W. O. Hill, cashier of the Lexington State Bank, accompanied by his son Herman, returned last week from Portland, driving up a new Paige car, which he purchased in the Rose City. Mr. Hill was a business visitor here on Labor Day.

Miss Margaret Jackson of Lexington and Miss Nora Hughes and Miss Norma Frederic of Heppner were dinner guests at the home of Mrs. Phil Brady in Ione last Sunday. Miss Cherry of Portland, who is visiting at the Brady home, was the guest of honor.

Keeping Your Account Good

There are two parts to every check book issued to depositors—the check itself and the check stub.

When you issue a check, post the data to the check stub. Carry the balance forward, add to it the amount of deposits, subtract the amount of each check.

The check stub is a little ledger for your private use, to show you when you have funds to loan out, or when you need to borrow to keep your account good.
