

More Bucking Horses This Year Than Ever Before

Pendleton, Ore., Sept. 15.—Seven bucking horses, more than ever before, will be available for the best cowboy and cowgirl bucking riders in the country at the Pendleton Round-Up which opens Thursday Sept. 23, for its eleventh annual presentation. These earthquakes on legs have been brought in from mountain pastures and from the ranges of Wyoming and are in prime shape for wild riding.

Just as there are more bucking horses, more performers and more Indians than ever before lined up for the performing end of the Round-Up, so do indications point to an attendance that will surpass previous records. Advance sales of reserved seats never were as brisk as this year and a keen demand is expected each morning for the east and west section grandstand seats which are withheld from the advance sale in order that those who come late may have a chance to obtain reserved seats.

Pendleton will be quite a convention city during Round-Up week. The State Federation of Labor will meet here, with between 300 and 400 delegates, opening on Sunday and ending Wednesday night. The rest of the week is to be used by most of the delegates in seeing Round-Up and Happy Canyon. The sheriffs and county clerks of Oregon, each with its own association, will also convene here, using the mornings of the three days for sessions. These three meetings will bring hundreds to Pendleton.

John C. McIntire, south Heppner farmer and stockman, was a prominent Monday visitor in town. Mr. McIntire had a big job of harvesting on his large ranch this summer but reports that he has about finished.

REMOVES TO SOUTHERN OREGON.

Mr. Frank Parker, his wife Matilda and their son Oral, who have been respected fellow citizens and townsmen of Heppner, Lexington and Ione for the past 25 years, recently left Heppner by automobile, to take up their permanent residence in Gold Hill, Jackson county, where they have purchased property. They all explain that they are not leaving Heppner, because they love this city and their many friends less, but are responding to the clarion call of the Old Homestead, the "Ole Swimmin' Hole," and the boyhood and girlhood scenes of the place where they grew up in the first mile-stone of their lives. All their many friends in Eastern Oregon join in saying that the loss of this section of Oregon is distinctly the gain of Southern Oregon in this change of residence.

Last Sunday, a reunion and farewell dinner was given to our departing friends at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John F. McMillan, Lexington, at which were present the many relatives of this estimable family. Mrs. Clyde Wells, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Parker, accompanied her parents to their newly acquired home and will visit there for a few weeks, returning by way of Portland to visit at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Parker before returning home.

A FRIEND,
W. O. Hill and George McMillan, Cashier and director of the Lexington State Bank, were business callers in Heppner on Tuesday.

Mike Curran, who recently underwent an operation for appendicitis at the Moore hospital, was removed to his home last Thursday and his condition is said to be improving.
