SUMMONS FOR PUBLICATION IN FORECLOSURE OF TAX LIEN.
In the Circuit Court of the State of Oregon, for Morrow County.
W. R. Walpole, Plaintiff vs.
Danbury Land Company, a corporation, Defendant.

corporation. Defendant.
To Danbury Land Company, a corporation, the above named defendant IN THE NAME OF THE STATE OF OREGON:

You are hereby notified that W. R. Walpole, the holder of Certificate of Delinquency numbered 256 issued on the First day of March, 1919, by the Tax Collector of the County of Morrow, State of Oregon, for the amount of Three and 80/100 Dollars, the same being the amount then due and delinquent for taxes for the year 1914 together with penalty, interest and costs thereon upon the real property assessed to you, of which you are the owner as appears of record, situated in said County and State, and particularly bounded and described as follows, to-wit:

Lots 5, 6, 7 and 8, Block 7 East, Section 39, Township 5 North, Range 27 East of the Willamette Meridian. (Complete description in deed being as follows:

Beginning at the South quarter corner of Section Numbered 19 in Township Numbered 5 North, of Range Numbered 27 East of the Willamette Meridian; running thence North No degrees Six minutes West (N 0 degrees 6 min. W) Eleven Hundred Fifty-eight and Five-tenths (1158.5) feet, thence South Seventy-six degrees Five minutes West (S 76 degrees 5 min. W) following a line Thirty (30) feet out from the Oregon Railroad and Navigation Company's right of way, three hundred forty and three-tenths (340.3) feet; thence South No degrees Six minutes East (S 0 degrees 6 min. THREE good fresh milk cows for sale. Ora E. Adkins, Eight Mile.

New Hort Man Appointed. Frank J. Rimoldi, assistant professor of horticulture at the Rhode Island Agricultural College, has been made assistant pomologist at the O. A. C. Experiment station and instructor in the college.

Remarkable results were obtained by feeding hay and silage to feeding cattle in the branch experiment station yards at Union. Fed on alfalfa hay alone the average gain was .58 pound per day from 37.7 pounds of hay. On mixed rations the steers gained 1.93 pounds per day from 23.15 pounds alfalfa and 25.5 pounds of silage.

Malheur Women Find Profit. Twenty-two farm bureau women of Malheur county have learned to make dress forms and are now helping others learn. Eight committees were represented and will receive indirect benefits from the work.

Dairy Cows Need Grain. The heavy yielding dairy cow even on the best of pasture must be fed grain if she is to maintain through a normal lactation period her high production, say the O. A. C. dairy specialists. Profits are determined by the difference between cost of production and value of products throughout the entire year, not on the apparent profit for the most favorable period. The low producer will not pay for grain at any time of year.

WANTED—A second hand reed baby carriage in good condition. Phone 612.

FOR RENT—Residence property in north Heppner. See Geo. M. Schlempp, 45-4t.

Guarantees of Satisfaction

The buyers of printing who employ The Gazette-Times to execute their printing orders have the following guarantees of satisfaction:

Equipment The equipment of The Gazette-Times is of the latest and best for the purpose for which it was designed. The Babcock Optimus and Chandler & Price presses and the Mergenthaler Linotype are all leaders in their field and have no superiors. Added to these are punching machine, perforator, wire stitchers, paper cutters, and the best in all kinds of paper stock. New, large fonts of the latest designs in type are on hand to dress and embellish every job. This equipment guarantees to the buyer that, mechanically, his job is the best that can be had.

Workmanship This up-to-the-minute equipment is made use of by expert workmen, with years of experience, who keep up on the latest phases of their craft and who are not afraid to work to get the best results from the copy submitted. This guarantees the buyer pleasing typographical appearance and unexcelled workmanship which performs those little niceties that raise a job from mere printing into the realms of typographical art.

Service All the facilities of the entire shop at the command of the buyer of printing to assist him in preparing his copy, choosing style of composition and kind and quality of stock. Our long experience in the business quite often enables us to be of great assistance to our customers.

Price The use of the Franklin Printing Price List, almost universally used by the best printing offices in the United States, guarantees the buyer that the price of his job is neither too much nor too little, but the only correct one.
