

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Cotter of Ione were in the city on Monday.

Mike Marshall, prominent north end sheepman, spent the week end in Heppner on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Ashbaugh were Heppner callers on Monday from their mill south of Hardman.

John Piper of Piper canyon, accompanied by his son Arnold, was in the city on business Monday.

Position On Ranch wanted by man and wife of several years farming experience. Inquire at this office.

Ed Farnsworth and family will leave the coming week for Salem where they expect to spend the coming winter.

George Chapin, W. W. Brannon and Wm. Lowen, all of Hardman, were Monday business visitors in Heppner.

Mrs. C. H. Bartholomew, of Pine City, was a visitor in Heppner yesterday, accompanied by her young daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith of Lexington were in the city on Saturday, Mr. Smith coming up to take treatments from the doctor.

Chas. W. Acock, well known farmer and stockman who resides a few miles northeast of Heppner, was in town on Monday.

Chas. Thomson and Dr. J. P. Conder are in the mountains this week and are enjoying a bear hunt in the vicinity of Herreg's Mill.

Miss Jeanne Farris is here from her home in Portland for a visit of several weeks at the home of her brother, Dr. Fred E. Farris.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Kerber of near Lexington, were Monday visitors in Heppner. Mr. Kerber is holding a public sale at his ranch today.

E. C. McDowell, traveling representative for the Pacific Stationery & Printing Company of Portland was calling on the Heppner trade on Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Don James, of Oregon City, arrived in Heppner last evening on a visit of a few days at the home of his brother, Prof. Howard M. James.

Eleanor McDuffee, a small daughter of Sheriff George McDuffee, is very sick at the home of her parents in this city. She is suffering from uremic poisoning.

Henry Sims arrived in the city Sunday and spent a few days visiting at the home of his brother, C. M. Sims of the Farmers & Stockgrowers National Bank.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Claphaw of South Bend, Wash., visited in Heppner during the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward. They went to Monument from here.

George W. Milholland, special agent of the Standard Oil Co. at this place, left this morning on a two-weeks vacation to the interior country, where he expects to spend his vacation in hunting big game.

FOR SALE—One dwelling with rolling mill at $5000.00. New residence adjoining $1500.00. New house for rent until sold. Terms $4000 down, balance 1 to 2 years at 6 per cent interest. Phone 135 or call on Geo. Schempp.

Olin Smith, little son of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith, who live on their ranch north of Lexington, has returned to his home after visiting for two weeks at the home of his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Olin S. Hodson of College Place, Wash.

"You can tell 'em my ranch isn't for sale," said O. M. Scott, Black Horse farmer, who was a business caller in Heppner. "As long as I farm, it is Morrow county for me and I am content to stay on a good ranch when I get there." Mr. Scott has refused sixty dollars an acre for his ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Ausburn of north Lexington were in the city on Saturday. Mr. Ausburn recently took charge of his ranch again, after spending a couple of years in the east. He says he is glad to get back to Morrow county, and as J. A. and his wife are mighty good people and good farmers, Morrow county is glad to have them back.

W. L. Barlow was a Monday business visitor in Heppner from Eight Mile. Mr. Barlow is preparing to hold a big public auction sale at the N. A. Clark ranch on Eight Mile in the near future, when he will dispose of a number of horses, farming machinery and other personal property. See his advertisement in another column of The Gazette-Times.

"My ranch was formerly the old race track of Morrow and Umatilla counties and for a number of years after I started farming there, I would plow up old whips, spurs and other pieces of riding paraphernalia," said J. A. Troedson who was in the city from Morgan last Saturday. Mr. Troedson's farm is situated five or six miles east of Morgan. "The ditch of the proposed John Day project goes right through my ranch," said Mr. Troedson.

Herbert Driskell, who is working on the O. C. Wageman ranch in Black Horse canyon, met with a "thriller" one day last week while hauling wheat into Heppner. In making a turn where the road makes a short bend, the horses pulled the wagons too close to the edge of the road, and the wagons and horses and wheat piled up in the ditch. Mr. Driskell jumped from the upper side of the wagon before it turned over. No damage was done.

Notice of Hibernian Meeting.
All members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are hereby notified that the regular meeting will be held on Sunday, October 17, in the I. O. O. F. Hall. This is the first meeting of the local lodge since last March and an important business will be discussed. It is imperative that all members be present.

Chas. Vaughn and Dean T. Goodman, local garage men, were business visitors in the lone country on Wednesday.

Mrs. Eugene Shocum and little daughter returned Wednesday from a visit of several days with relatives and friends in Portland.

Miss Melba Griffiths, one of the teachers in the Heppner schools, was called to Corvallis on Saturday because of the serious illness of her mother who resides in that city.

Miss Turner a teacher in the Heppner schools, was called to Portland last Monday on account of the serious illness of an aunt. Since reaching that city, Miss Turner has been quite ill herself, suffering an attack of appendicitis. Her place in the school here is being filled by Mrs. Joseph Nye.

Cashier S. W. Spencer of the Farmers & Stockgrowers Bank, spent a few days the first of the week in shooting Mongolian pheasants down on Butter creek at the Ralph Stanfield place. He was successful in bagging the limit. A large number of nimrods from Heppner spent Sunday on Lower Butter creek in quest of the same game birds.

Mrs. Byrd Davidson of Monument underwent a very serious operation on Friday, during which a large tumor was removed which had grown fast to most of the abdominal organs. Her age and weakened condition made it appear so critical that her recovery was doubtful. Dr. McMurdo is glad to report at this time that she is about past the danger period and is doing nicely.

W. D. Newlon, who is a large stockholder in the Green River Petroleum Company of Wyoming, spent a few days in Heppner on business the first of the week. At the present time Mr. Newlon's company is drilling a well on their holdings in the La Barge district near Kemmerer, Wyoming, with Mr. Newlon personally supervising the drilling. He says that the well is now down over 800 feet and they are expecting to bring the well in at most any time now. Quite a number of Oregon people own stock in Mr. Newlon's company. Mr. Newlon met with success drilling wells in Morrow county.

Hon. Oliver H. Shoup,
Governor of the State of Colorado, says:

"Most Americans are good earners; only a few are good savers."

"To be a money maker may be a gift, but to be thrifty requires special effort on the part of most of us. If success is worth anything it is worth the sacrifice of a few pleasures."

"SPENT dollars never draw interest."
