

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Nineteen more days until election.

Roy Mastlind of Black Horse was a Saturday caller in Heppner.

J. P. Vaughn came down from Walla Walla the first of the week.

Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Jakes of Ione were Wednesday visitors in Heppner.

Harold Cobb and Del Ward were business visitors in Ione last Saturday.

Ray McAllister of Lexington spent a few hours in Heppner on business last Monday.

FOR SALE—Piano and household furniture. Inquire at once of Mrs. R. J. Vaughan. Phone 744.

Harry Bartholomew, the Stanfield sheepman, was a business visitor in Heppner on Monday.

Mrs. W. E. Brock and son Harold of Pendleton were in Heppner Sunday on a visit to relatives here.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Ball on October 4, a nine pound son. Mr. Ball is a farmer southwest of Ione.

Mrs. E. G. Noble left Sunday for Monmouth in response to a telegram saying that her father is seriously ill.

H. H. Peck, Sagenhurst farmer, came in from his Rhea creek home on Monday to attend to some business matters.

Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Whitehead of Portland are visiting at the home of their niece, Mrs. Herert Olden of Rhea creek.

Chas. H. Latourel spent a few days this week on the trail of the elusive deer in the mountains south of Heppner.

The Franklin High School concert orchestra of Portland will furnish music for a dance at the Fair pavilion on Saturday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Vinton of Ione spent the week-end in Heppner at the home of Mrs. Vinton's mother, Mrs. John McCullough.

L. A. Hunt went over to Irrigon last Saturday to attend to some agricultural business in connection with the office as county agent.

Hon. J. W. Morrow, tax and right of way agent for the O.-W. R. & N. Co. with offices in Portland, spent Monday in Heppner on business.

Floyd Fraser, who travels for a well known marble works company in Pendleton, is spending a few days in Morrow county this week. Mr. Fraser says business is good.

O. A. Starford, of Stanfield, accompanied by O. G. Tyler and M. H. Cline of Portland, passed through Heppner Sunday enroute to the mountains on a hunting expedition.

Mrs. Kate Vaughn, Mrs. C. L. Freeman, Mrs. Chas. Vaughn, Mrs. Bert Stone and Mrs. John McCullough motored over to Pendleton last Thursday. They returned home on Saturday.

John and Oscar Cochran of Ione were Monday visitors here. Oscar runs a confectionery store in the Egg City and John spends a considerable part of his time hunting and killing predatory animals.

Erik Bergstrom and son of Gooseberry were Saturday business visitors in Heppner. Mr. Bergstrom says this is the best fall for seedling that he can remember. Mr. Bergstrom expects to have his crop all seeded within a few more days.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Flemming came over from Heppner recently, and Mr. Flemming is now employed on the improvements at the plant of the Standard Oil Company. Mr. Flemming resided in this city 21 years ago.—Gordon Globe-Times.

Born—In this city on Tuesday, Oct. 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Ira W. Thornton, at the family residence on Center street, a son weighing 8 1/2 pounds. Both mother and child are reported doing nicely. The young man has been named Ira W. Junior.

Mrs. Carrie Vaughn and daughter, Mrs. Spencer Akers, returned Tuesday from an extensive Eastern trip, where they spent several weeks visiting relatives. A considerable portion of their time was spent in Chicago and other Illinois cities.

The Kerber auction sale last Thursday afternoon was a big success according to Auctioneer Miller, who was in the city last Saturday from his Ione home. Everything brought a good price and Mr. Kerber is well satisfied, says Mr. Miller.

Harney county people are opposed to the Roosevelt Bird Refuge bill which will appear on the November ballot. While outsiders are boosting the measure, Harney people contend that it will cut the heart out of their county and make a duck pond of it for city sports.

D. E. Gilman, who returned the first of last week from a business trip to the Willamette Valley, says he witnessed a severe storm there, with considerable thunder and lightning mixed with the rain. While rain in the Valley is more common than sunshine, lightning and thunder is rather rare.

R. J. Kirkwood, vice-president and general manager of the Union Savings & Loan Association of Portland, was here on business last Thursday. While here, Mr. Kirkwood received a telegram from Portland, telling of the death of Elias Brong, general agent of the company. Mr. Brong had been in the real estate business in Portland for many years and had a wide acquaintanceship throughout the state.

Wm. H. Padberg, extensive wheat farmer out west of Heppner, was in town on Saturday for a few hours. Mr. Padberg says that the harvest season on his ranches will soon be over, as haring rain and accidents, the boys will wind up in about thirteen days. Mr. Padberg had rather an extensive run this year, as he had 7000 acres of his own grain to harvest, besides taking on a neighbor or two.

As a result of Gordon Globe-Times advertising "School Superintendent Wanted" three Gilliam county women have come forward and will make the race for the office. No candidate had filed previous to the ad in the Globe-Times. All three of the women, Mrs. Edith Balston, Mrs. W. H. Reynolds and Mrs. Jean K. Porter are said to be well qualified by former teaching experience, to fill the office.

Stephen Irwin, local tire service man, spent Tuesday in Ione on business.

Earl Whitesworth, Butte creek sheep owner, was in the city Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hale of Bitter were visitors in Heppner this week.

W. O. Hill, cashier of the Lexington State Bank, made a brief visit here on Tuesday.

S. E. Notson, local district attorney, spent a few days in Portland on business this week.

C. L. Sweek, local attorney, made a trip to Monmouth the last of the week, where he visited with relatives.

Mrs. Richard Wells left last week for Butte, Montana, where she will visit with her sister, Mrs. Herbert Fant.

Tuesday was a legal holiday and was generally observed by banks, lawyers and county officials. It was "Columbus Day."

Francis A. McMenamin, local attorney, made a business trip over to his Washington sheep ranch the first of the week.

H. M. Light, who has extensive farming interests west of Morgan, spent Tuesday in Heppner transacting business.

Mrs. R. E. Crego returned Tuesday from The Dalles, where she visited with relatives. She was met at Arlington by Mr. Crego.

Mrs. F. A. Anderson has returned to her Heppner home after making a visit in The Dalles at the home of her sister, Mrs. Willis McCarty.

Pat Foley, The Dalles hotel man who is interested in taking the lease on the new hotel here, spent a few busy hours in Heppner last Saturday.

John H. Hayes, former Morrow county citizen, is spending a few days in Heppner this week from his Portland home, looking after interests here.

J. M. Hayes and son Glenn, who formerly resided in Morrow county but now make their home in Pendleton, are Heppner business visitors this week.

Frank Gilliam, of the firm of Gilliam & Hilde, has been confined to his home the past week on account of illness. His condition is reported improved at this time.

Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Carter, who recently purchased the Nelson property near the depot, are erecting a new house on the lot and making other improvements.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin S. Hodson of College Place, Wash., are in Heppner this week, being called here on account of the serious illness of Mrs. Hodson's son, Bert Smith.

The picture of Miss Ina Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John E. Johnson, appeared in the recent columns of the Sunday Oregonian recently. Miss Johnson was visiting in Portland as a guest of her aunt, Mrs. Frank Stevens.

A number of prominent stockmen were in the city on Tuesday, among them being Al Henriksen of Cecil, Jas. Carty of Tub Springs, John Kilkenny of Hinton creek and John J. Kelly of Rock creek.

Don't overlook the public sale which Ollie Ferguson will hold at the Jay Devin ranch in Sand Hollow next Saturday. Mr. Ferguson is offering a lot of good stuff for sale.

William Lewis took his daughter Della to Heppner Tuesday to have her broken arm examined through the x-ray. It doesn't seem to be doing as it should.—Long Creek Ranger.

O. B. Gates, a stockholder and officer of the Heppner Light & Water Company, was here last week to attend the rate case hearing. He was accompanied by Mrs. Gates. Mr. and Mrs. Gates make their home in Hillsboro.

Dave Jackson of Lexington was an interested spectator at the Heppner-Lexington football game in this city last Friday. Mr. Jackson had coached the Lexington team to some extent and is quite proud of the good showing made against the heavier Heppner team.

Dr. Howard Gove, who taught school in Morrow county a number of years ago, before he went into the business of looking after peoples' teeth, came over from Fossil Monday and spent a few days here on business, and meeting his many old friends. He was accompanied by Mrs. Gove.

Notice of Hibernian Meeting.
All members of the Ancient Order of Hibernians are hereby notified that the regular meeting will be held on Sunday, October 17, in the I. O. O. F. Hall. This is the first meeting of the local lodge since last March and as important business will be discussed it is imperative that all members be present.
JOE KENNY, Secretary.

KNOWING HOW—
and serving well

Cleaning, Pressing, Dyeing and Repairing for the Whole Family
TAILORING FOR THE MEN

Come in and save money
Lloyd Hutchinson
Abhaugh Building Heppner, Oregon

SAVE
Up to $20.00

on your Fall suit or overcoat.
Thru large purchases of surplus woolsens from the woolen mills,
UNIVERSAL TAILORING COMPANY
THE ALL WOOL LINE
are making special reductions on Fall and Winter suitings and overcoatings.

EVERY FABRIC ALL WOOL

Come in as soon as you can and look over the big display of fabrics at reduced prices.
We are also making a 7 per cent reduction on our own stock, made up here.

Heppner Tailoring & Cleaning Shop
Main St. G. FRANZKE Heppner

L. MONTERESTELLI
Marble and Granite Works
PENDLETON, OREGON.
Fine Monument and Cemetery Work

All parties interested in getting work in my line should get my prices and estimates before placing their orders

All Work Guaranteed

Stove time NOW

THE experienced householder does not wait until zero weather to know that it is time to look to stoves for the home. Cold days will come—just as certain as Christmas, so why not select now while lines are complete and deliveries assured?

Stoves for the Living Rooms; Stoves for the Kitchen

Peoples Hardware Co.

WHERE TO EAT

The Question Is Settled
DINE WITH US

Our New Big Dining Room is not exclusive to transient trade. It's for the folks of Heppner First, Last and All the Time.

—Give the wife a rest and a treat—a Sunday dinner here.

SHORT ORDERS, TOO
Elkhorn Restaurant
Willow Street

S A F E T Y &

S E R V I C E

The More Experienced the Man—the More He Appreciates Having a Banking Connection.

It would be hard to find a man of very great business experience who could be persuaded to keep either his own money or his own counsel in transactions. He's learned that too great a responsibility is involved in either case for one lone individual.

At the First National Bank he not only has the natural advantages of a strong institution but thirty-three years of actual experience to rely upon.

First National Bank
HEPPNER, OREGON

CASE FURNITURE COMPANY

Our Store Is the Gateway to the Organized Efficiency of E. J. Price & Co.
TAILORING

The good old way of tailoring has given place to a new better way. The individual tailor who once worked at his own bench has joined our organization of two thousand individual tailors working side by side under one roof—each man specializing on the part that he can do best. The result is—

- More finely finished detail, making a better complete garment.
- Great buying power through volume.
- More economical operation through unity and specialization.

It will be interesting to every man who appreciates real quality woolens to see our offerings priced in the neighborhood of $60 tailored to individual measurement.

We assume the responsibility of fitting you and pleasing you in every respect.

What's your tailor?

Minor & Company