

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Ray McAllister, Lexington business man, was here on Monday.

James Luper, Heppner Flat farmer, spent the week end in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Gorkle of Pendleton were visitors in Heppner the first of the week.

Emil Carlson, prominent Gooseberry farmer, spent a few hours in Heppner last Saturday.

Erve Bennett and Jack Devore have returned to Heppner after spending the summer in Idaho.

Miss Elverda Winnard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Winnard, left on Tuesday for Portland.

Mrs. J. H. Will of Ione returned home recently after visiting with her daughter in Sherman county.

Born in this city on Tuesday, October 19, to Dr. and Mrs. Fred E. Farrow, a son weighing 5 1/2 pounds.

Roy Scott has returned to Heppner after spending the summer months in the mountains near Granite.

Position on ranch wanted by man and wife of several years farming experience. Inquire at this office.

Ed Neill and Chas. Bartholomew prominent Butter creek farmers and stockmen, were Tuesday business callers in Heppner.

While stropping a razor last week, Lee Sprinkle cut a gash in his left hand which required three stitches to close up.—Ione Independent.

John S. Johnson, well known farmer and Chas. E. Sperry, prominent Ione business man, were in Heppner last Saturday from the Egg City.

County Clerk Waters issued a marriage license on Tuesday to Harley E. Sperry and Winnifred Stanney, both popular young people of Ione.

FOR SALE—Three and a half ton G. M. C. truck in A-1 running condition. For terms and price call on or write to E. A. Zochert, Lexington, Oregon.

Miss Ella D. Funk, who taught music in the local schools a number of years ago, is here on a visit and is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Thomson.

Gus Williamson, the Blue Mountain poet, writes us that he is back at the Wigginsworth ranch on Butter creek after spending the summer months in the high mountains.

W. T. Wheeler was a business visitor in the city Wednesday. Mr. Wheeler is offering a good tractor outfit for sale at a bargain and his ad will be found in another column.

Ernest Merritt and son Earl and Clarence Merritt returned the first of the week from an auto tour of Interior Oregon, where they attended a number of county fairs and race meets.

There is a strong demand for Ford cars, says Chas. Latourel, local distributor, but he is unable to get any at the present time. Ford has a big supply but it does not yet equal the demand.

M. R. Mathew, the portly traveling man from The Dalles, who knows every business man in Eastern Oregon by his front name, spent several days in Heppner and vicinity the first of the week.

Wesley McNabb, Jr., was unable to take his place on the Ione high school football team which played in Lexington last Saturday, due to a severe wound inflicted by an axe with which he was cutting wood.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gambill and children of Ione have returned to their home in that city after visiting for some time with relatives in the Willamette Valley. Mr. Gambill is with the Standard Oil Company at Ione.

Mrs. Bundy of Lexington, who has been in Heppner for some time for medical attendance, at the home of Mrs. J. J. Casserly, will visit her sister, Mrs. Stockard on the Tabor ranch before returning home.—Hermiston Herald.

Georg D. Anderson and Jack Knox, who spent the summer in the vicinity of Granite in charge of Hynd Brothers' sheep, returned the last of the week from the interior. Mr. Anderson left Sunday for La Grande to attend to some land business.

Lewis J. Padberg, who used to farm on an extensive scale in the Clark's Canyon section, was up from his Portland home last week and spent a few days in Heppner. His ranch is now being farmed by Dave and Ralph Jackson of Lexington.

W. W. Smead returned home Tuesday after spending a month attending the state fair, the Multnomah county fair, where he had charge of the Morrow county exhibit, and the annual convention of the Grand Lodge, Knights of Pythias at Marshfield.

L. P. Davidson of Ione, who will be a Morrow county commissioner after the first of the year, spent Tuesday in Heppner on business. Mr. Davidson owns one of the largest ranches in Morrow county, the land lying on the western side of the county.

Initiative measure number 310 on the ballot to be voted in November will give to Oregon a port equal to any port on the Pacific Coast. You are vitally interested in the passage of this bill. It will not increase your taxes. The cost is borne by the Port of Portland but all Oregon must vote on the measure. Vote 310 YES on the ballot November 2nd.

Ollie Ferguson was in the city Tuesday from Sand Hollow with a big smile on his face as the result of the public sale which he held last Saturday. Under the direction of Auctioneer F. A. McMennamin, the stuff all brought a good price, one team selling for $140. Ollie says he sure wants to recommend McMennamin to anyone contemplating a sale.

Dan R. Stalter, president of the Heppner Mining Company, returned the first of the week from the company's holdings, the Mayflower group in the Greenhorn. Mr. Stalter reports a successful season at the mines and in spite of his promise to us that he would stay over there all winter, the approach of severe cold weather induced him to come down onto the lower levels to a milder climate.

H. R. Smith and Henry Smouse, prominent farmers of the west side, were Tuesday business visitors in Heppner. These gentlemen were partners for a number of years on rented land. Recently, however, they have been buying farms of their own. Mr. Smith becoming the possessor of a fine stock ranch on Rock creek and Mr. Smouse the purchaser of about 1400 acres of fine wheat land on the hill just north of the Jordan Sliding warehouse.

E. E. Kiddle, member of the state highway commission, came over from La Grande the first of the week and spent a few days in company with Judge W. T. Campbell going over the highways and by-ways of Morrow county. An article relating Mr. Kiddle's stand on the local highway situation will be found in another column of this issue.

While returning from Boardman last Saturday, Dave Wilson and Harley Fear met with an accident near Lexington which came near proving disastrous. Coming down a steep grade at the outskirts of the town, something went wrong with Mr. Wilson's car and it came within an inch or two of plunging over a steep bank. The boys received a bad scare. The car was so badly damaged that it was left at Lexington for repairs.

Harry R. Lamly, who travels for the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, met with a lot of tough luck last week when he attempted to drive his car from Spray to Hardman. Real winter weather was met by Mr. Lamly and he was forced to return to Spray after he had proceeded twenty miles. The roads were terribly mucky and he says he spent two hours trying to get his car turned around in the road before he could return to Spray. There was four inches of snow in the Spray country the first of the week.

TO THE PUBLIC.

This is an invitation to every person to attend the greatest and most interesting meeting ever held in Heppner. Try and be seated by 8 o'clock Friday night at the Fair Pavilion, October 22. There will be seats for one thousand persons. You must fill every seat.

I have written some verses on Candidate Cox that are the best yet. I shall read all the verses I have written on the campaign and sing my song and give you a good entertainment on my violin. I will take a straw vote and challenge the Cox wollipers to stuff it. I have wired Chairman Tongue to send Mr. Stanfield and at least one other good speaker. The meeting will begin immediately after the crowd assembles. No picture show or stuffy foul air. You have always treated me mighty nice. It is the duty of every person interested in good government to respond to this call.

Cordially, HARRY CUMMINGS.

It would be hard to find a man of very great business experience who could be persuaded to keep either his own money or his own counsel in transactions. He's learned that too great a responsibility is involved in either case for one lone individual.

At the First National Bank he not only has the natural advantages of a strong institution but thirty-three years of actual experience to rely upon.
