

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Karl L. Beach, of Lexington, were visitors in this city on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Palmer, who reside near Lexington, visited in this city Monday last.

Parkers Mill precinct came near making it unanimous. There was one lone democratic vote cast there.

W. G. Scott, president, and W. O. Hill, cashier of the Lexington State Bank, were doing business in Heppner Monday.

A daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. Neil Doherty at the maternity home of Mrs. Geo. C. Aiken in this city on Sunday, Oct. 24th.

Jeff Neal is over from Pendleton in the vicinity of the Umatilla metropolis for several months past.

Al Henriksen and Jack Hynd, prominent Cecilites, were in town on Wednesday, much interested in getting the latest election returns.

Fred Akers brought in the election returns from Eight Mile on Wednesday, and reports a very quiet time at the polls in that precinct.

Dwight Misner, who is a successful wheatraiser of the Ione section, was in Heppner for a short time Wednesday. He was accompanied by Mrs. Misner.

Mr. and Mrs. Ira Lewis of Lexington departed on Tuesday morning on a visit to Southern Oregon. They go to Drain, where a daughter of Mrs. Lewis, Mrs. Helen W. Prieze, lives. They expect to be absent from home for several weeks.

Hon. C. E. Woodson was quietly passing around some excellent cuts of venison among his friends in Heppner the past week, having succeeded in getting a deer on his trip to the mountains a few days before the season ended.

Joe T. Knappenberg arrived from Portland Sunday evening to remain for a short time. He joined Mrs. Knappenberg, who has been visiting with her relatives in this county for the past week or more and was a guest for the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Ward.

E. O. Colvin and Lillian Orr, who have been conducting the Gem Cafe in this city for several months past, have disposed of the same to Messrs. Bing Do and Leo Quai, two gentlemen of the Orient, who have taken charge of the same. They opened up this morning under the name of the Oregon Restaurant, and the new management promise the best of service to the public.

Charley Bartholomew, leading farmer of the Pine City section, was in town yesterday. Mr. Bartholomew now has one of the finest farm residences in the entire county. It is of concrete construction and thoroughly modern in all its appointments. Having just treated it to a thorough painting, the home certainly presents a fine appearance at this time.

Eating Your Cake

You are no doubt familiar with the old saying: "You can not have your cake and eat it, too."

We say you can. The man who invested interest solved that problem. Money in a savings account, money at interest, remains yours, yet earns more money for you, like eating the cake. Money on deposit in a reliable bank, like ours, grows so that you have its earnings to spend and do not need to spend the principal.

Are your vault or papers safe from fire or theft? If not we have just the kind of place you need for them.

HEPPNER, OREGON

NOTICE

Notice is hereby given that H. G. Colvin and Lillian P. Orr have sold their interest in the Gem Cafe, in Heppner, Oregon, to Bing Do and Leo Quai and Company, and that hereafter the said restaurant will be operated by the said company under the name of Oregon Restaurant.

All persons having claims against the vendors of said restaurant are hereby notified to present their statements for payment on or before the 15th day of November, 1920.

BING DO AND LEO QUAI & CO.

O. H. Colvin and Gus Read were visitors in Heppner yesterday. Mr. Colvin was formerly a resident of Morrow county, living in the Ione section for a number of years. He now resides near Junction City in Lane county. Mr. Read makes his home at Corvallis. He and Mrs. Read were called to Ione the past week on account of the death of Mrs. Read's father, Wesley T. McNabb, and they may decide to take up their residence here again for the winter. Mr. Colvin was also related to Mr. McNabb.

Mrs. Michael Kenny left the first of the week for Portland.

Mrs. C. L. Keithley came over from Walla Walla the latter part of the week and spent several days in Heppner. Mr. and Mrs. Keithley are arranging to make their permanent home in the Garden City.

Portland.—All of the export business of the Aladdin company, national manufacturers of ready-built houses, is to be handled through this port, according to announcement by the manager. Shipments will soon be going to Manila, China, Japan, New Zealand and South America. Next spring the plant is to be increased by two more units and will be enabled to turn out 75 houses a week.

Salem.—Flax grown in the Willamette valley is equal to that of any part of the United States and superior to much of the domestic product, according to George H. Street, general manager of the Flax Products company of New York, a recent visitor. He was looking over the field with a view to locating a flax plant at Salem and stated that he would probably make such recommendation to his company.

Portland.—Sale of 4000 acres of high class timber on the Eccles logging railroad in the Nehalem country was completed for a consideration of $1,250,000, an unusually good price. This is 45 per thousand feet. The purchasers are Seattle and Portland lumbermen.

Scarcity of Telephone Equipment

As new subscribers a numbers of individuals have recently placed orders with us for telephones. Old subscribers have asked for service at new locations. They have been told by our representatives that immediate compliance with their desires was impossible owing to lack of "telephone facilities" in a particular locality. "Why," one will say, "The poles and wires are on the street and the house is already wired."

We wish that the problem were as simple as it sounds. There may be poles and wires, but every wire may be in use in giving service to others. There may be a cable but every circuit in it may be assigned to telephones already installed. There may be spare wires and circuits but no switchboard apparatus at the central office to which they can be connected. There may even be sections of switchboard but not available for operation on account of the lack of necessary accessories such as ringing keys, relays, etc.

The reason for the shortage of telephone equipment is simple. During the war period we were unable to maintain our reserve stock plant as the same materials we use were required and taken for Government purposes and for industries properly favored by the Government. Since the war, with the unexpectedly prolonged problems of reconstruction, production and delivery of materials needed to meet even current demand have been delayed. Every business concern is having similar experiences. The manufacturers of telephone equipment have been bending every effort to fill our orders, but they in turn are meeting the same difficulties in securing rubber, paper, silk, glass, porcelain, tin, thread, shellac, metal parts, and other articles not generally associated in the public mind with telephone service.

At the same time with this abnormal situation with reference to materials there exists an unprecedented demand for telephone service, and even under these circumstances our record is one of fulfillment of demand. In the first eight months of this year we have added 6863 telephones in the State of Oregon. In the eight months prior to our declaration of war we gained 2655 telephones.

We desire to give service as much as a patron wishes to receive it. We desire to promptly comply with the suggestions of public authorities who have taken a proper interest in the situation. We are facing abnormal conditions but we will—of necessity gradually—overcome our difficulties.
