MANY CASES ON CIR-CUIT COURT DOCKET

Court Convened Monday by Judge G. W. Phelps and Criminal Cases are Taken Up.-Blake Not Guilty.

The November term of Circuit court nday morning, Judge and jury have been busy grinding out the grist of the accumulated cases of many months

In the case of the State of Oregon va. July was selected and the case went to trial. The defendant was represented by Woodson & Sweek and District Attorney Notson prosecuted for the case went to the real property in this county, Mr. bell also owned considerable property in Spokane. After deliberating on the case for nearly twenty-four hours, the jury was unable to reach a verdict and was dis- Given Out by Census Bureau missed by Judge Phelps.

A similar case to that of the state versus Coats was the case of State versus John Blake who was charged with a statutory offense against Verma Hymer. The Hymer girl and Opal Fieming were the chief witnesses for the state, while Blake testified in his own 1920. This is an increase of $3,708,745 behalf. "Up In Mary's Attic" at Star.

"Up In Mary's Attic" will be the feature offering at the Star theater next Wednesday. The charming Eve Novak and the funny Harry Gribbon are the principal players. In this big comedy eature Fine Arts Pictures have established a precedent. They have been eble to present a six-reel comedy which is free of slapstick and grotesque anand which presents a genuine slice of life. Generally the average comedy is crowned with foolish incident. "Up In Mary's Attic" offers a situation seminary.

The picture tells a comic story of romance founded in a boarding school Now everyone knows it is against the rules for students to become married submit to the President the name of the during their affiliation with an institution of higher learning. So one of pressing the fact that she is married dence of such applicant disqualifies to the athletic instructor.

marriage is kept a secret for a time, but evidence comes out when it is discovered that they have a baby. Their attempts to hide the infant and keet and thrills of the highest order. The picture gets off to a flying start and travels on high to its conclusion.

Probably the best way to improve the range of Oregon is to practice rotation grazing, keeping the stock off

American Legion Promises That Real Spirit of Armistice Day Shall Never Be Lost

By Col. F. W. Galbraith,

The swift triumph of our gallant allies which two. years ago gave us the victory, the anniversary of which we observe today, marks the high-light of the present century in American affairs. Victories such as Armistice Day commemorates are not the issues solely of clashes of flesh and steel. They have a finer quality than that. They are the triumphs, as well of an unconquerable spirit.

No victory, however com- F.W. plete, long can survive the Galbreith Jr. plete with example: splendid triumphs in behalf of splen-dure.

Morrow Farmers Buy Eighty Miles of Strong Wire Fencing

Wire fencing, sufficient in its combined length to reach from Heppner to The Dalles, was recently purchased by Morrow county farmers through the local farm bureau.

Fifteen farmers pooled their order, which was placed directly to the factory in Pittsburgh, Pa., and the car load was shipped to Heppner direct and unloaded in this city under the supervision of County agent, L. A. Hunt, on

Owing to the size of the order, and the directness with which the wire was bought, the farmers made a saving of arly three thousand dollars. In the shipment were 43 miles of woven wire and 37 miles of barbed wire. Gilliam & Bisbee, local hardware merchants, isted in assembling the order.

The reproduction of the old time ounty fair, which was held in Leach Hall under the auspices of the Ladies Guild of the Christian church recently, was an unqualified success. There was nothing missing that went with the old shell game.

Various booths, where fortune telling and other gyp games were open

A feature of the fair was the booth jar was filled with pennies. It was the opportunity of everyone visiting this oth, to make a guess on the number of coppers contained in the jar. Strange as it may seem, the guesses ranged in their estimates from 150 to 20,000 pennies. As a matter of fact, there were 357 pennies by actual count, and W. P. Mc Millan won first prize by guessing 351.

But there were many high class features at the fair, all due respect to the fortune telling and guessing contests. There were eating places, hot dog stands, embroidery markets, etc.

There was an excellent program of adings and music. Herman Hill and on Holmes put on a little stunt entitled "The First Railroad in Morrow County." Nothing more or less than two boys riding the third upon a rail. There were no tar and feathers, how
