

LOCAL HAPPENINGS

Frank Akers, Eight Mile farmer, is here on business today.

Eddie Rietmann of Ione was a week-end visitor in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Beymer have gone to Portland for the holidays.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Acock on Sunday, December 12, a daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. Olaf Bergstrom of Eight Mile were Monday visitors in Heppner.

Ralph Adkins, Eight Mile farmer, was a first of the week business visitor in this city.

SALE—Notice new prices on Shoes 30 per cent to 40 per cent less at E. N. GONTY SHOE STORE.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Ayers have motored to Portland where they will remain until after the holidays.

Fred Griffin, Gooseberry farmer, spent several days in Heppner the first of the week.

Born—At the Ture Peterson ranch south of Hardman to Mr. and Mrs. Ashburn on Saturday, December 11, a son.

Mrs. E. E. Miller of Ione visited the first of the week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Albert Hennig, in this city.

LOST—Sunday, one wheel for Maxwell car with Goodyear tires. Return to Humphreys Drug Co. and receive reward.

Mrs. W. B. Munkers of Lexington was in Heppner on Monday, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Willis Ward of Black Horse.

Dr. H. T. Allison and Mrs. Allison departed last week for Morten, Wash., where they will become permanently located.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Ritchie and Mr. and Mrs. H. L. Duvall of the north Lexington section, were Friday visitors in Heppner.

Mr. and Mrs. Tilman Hogue who sold their ranch in the upper Gooseberry section some time ago, were in Heppner on Tuesday.

Born—In this city at the maternity hospital of Mrs. G. C. Aiken on Sunday, December 12, to Mr. and Mrs. Alcott Lundell, a son.

Sixteen of Morrow county's teachers are taking examinations at the court house this week. C. W. Shurte is conducting the tests.

Pat Foley and James Hart came up from The Dalles the first of the week to superintend the placing of the new furniture in the hotel.

Miss Virginia Barlow has resumed her position at the local postoffice after being kept to her home for several days on account of illness.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Wingfield of Monument were guests at the first of the week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Emmet Cochran in this city.

Miss Bernice Dafe, music teacher in the local schools, is planning to spend the Christmas holidays with friends and relatives in Montana.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Barlow of Eight Mile are planning to live in Heppner the balance of the winter and were here on Monday looking for rooms.

Sam H. Boardman, the man who literally put the town of Boardman on the map, was over from his namesake city by the river, on Wednesday.

Mrs. S. W. Spencer and Mrs. A. L. Ayers recently entertained informally at bridge for twenty of their friends and a very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Mrs. D. T. Goodman and young son have gone to The Dalles and Portland for the holidays. They will be joined in Portland by Mr. Goodman on the 20th.

The Misses Marie and Helen Curran, who are students at Mount Angel College, have arrived home to spend the holidays. They were met at The Dalles by Mrs. Curran.

C. W. McNamer, Ione's retail meat merchant who is also interested in the Central Market here, spent Friday and Saturday in this city looking after business interests.

George Chaney, section foreman of Ione, spent Tuesday evening in Heppner and was wearing a broad smile as the result of the arrival of a son at his home recently.

Clyde Wright of Hardman spent a few hours in Heppner on Wednesday on business matters. He reports that the Hardman country is covered with a mantle of snow at the present.

Thos. Boyd, who looks after the iron horse at the local depot, had the misfortune this week to step on a nail, which penetrated his foot an inch or more, effecting a painful injury.

Miss Lorena Palmateer, instructor in the local high school, has received an invitation from Mrs. Albert Amort to spend the holidays with her in Salem and Miss Palmateer will probably accept.

Mrs. Rader and daughter, Mrs. Eugenie Meyer and son Frederick Rader passed through Heppner on Monday, enroute to their home at Long Creek after spending the week in Pendleton.

Ray M. Oviatt has purchased the Henry Aiken residence property in north Heppner and the Aikens are moving into the Stacy Roberts residence on Center street recently vacated by B. L. Lewis.

Mack Smith has gone to Rochester, Minnesota, where he will receive an examination at the hands of the famous Mayo Brothers and may undergo an operation while there. He has been suffering for a long time.

Egbert Young, who farms in the Liberty section was in town Wednesday and says he has a hard time now days fooling his flivver with watered gas. The car runs fine as long as he gets the proper mixture, but still along as it were, after the gas quality is used up.

W. B. Finley, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Finley of North Morrow were in the city on Wednesday. W. B. has bought a five acre tract near Hermiston and will move there in the near future to reside. He says, however, that he is not really leaving Morrow county, but will be here from time to time. He still owns large farming interests out north of Lexington.

Fred Raymond and Arthur Erwin, prominent farmers of the Ione country were Wednesday business visitors in Heppner. Mr. Raymond, who is a new arrival in Morrow county, bought the E. L. Padberg ranch on Rhea creek last summer. He formerly farmed in the Prescott country in Washington. Mr. Raymond had his name added to the Gazette-Times roll while here.

LIVE CECIL NEWS ITEMS

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Morgan and family were callers in Cecil on Friday.

A Finley carpenter of Ione, is busy at Buttery Flats for a few days.

John Currie of Wells Springs was a busy man around Cecil on Monday.

Mrs. Ellis and daughter Miss May of Ewing were callers in Cecil on Monday.

Miss Zella Kelly was the week-end guest of Miss Mildred Middlestone at Ithea Sliding.

J. Michael of Morgan was a prospective hay buyer on Willow creek during the week.

Elvin Miller of Highview ranch was the guest of Jackie Hynd at Buttery Flats on Sunday.

W. G. Palmateer of Windysook and Albert Lindstrom of Morgan were callers at Cecil on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. George A. Miller of Highview ranch were visitors at the county seat on Monday.

J. M. Melton of the Lookout, who has been on the sick list for some time, made a short visit in Cecil Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Deas of the Willows spent Sunday as the guests of Mrs. Jack Hynd of Buttery Flats.

Misses Lois Easterly and Ester Winter and Ralph Winter of Four Mile were business callers in Cecil Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Krebs of the Last Camp, visited with Mr. and Mrs. Phil Brady at their home near Ione on Saturday.

Mr. T. W. May of Lone Star ranch and Mrs. Edwin Fanchiers of Four Mile were calling on their friends in Cecil on Sunday.

Peter Hauerliend left Cecil Monday for Ione and Heppner where he will attend to business in connection with the late Peter Benson's estate.

Oral Henriksen of the Snuggery arrived at his home on Saturday from Portland and all his friends are glad to see him looking so well after his operation.

J. P. Hymmer, contractor for the cement bridges in the Cecil district and who has been at work on the bridges, left for Ione on Friday for a few days before finishing up his Cecil work.

What was the reason that the Mayor of Cecil escorted six young ladies to church on December 5 while visiting in the county seat and left his deputy standing alone at the corner of the street?

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bradford and children left on the local Friday morning for Prairie City where they were called by the sudden illness of Mr. Bradford's father. Mr. Bradford has been working for J. F. Hymmer on the bridge work.

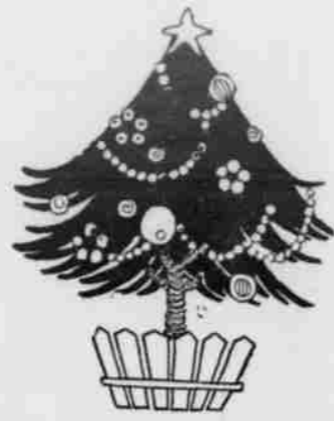

A. W. Watts, engineer of encroachments on the G. W. R. & N., accompanied by Stephen Quale, construction superintendent of the highway on Willow creek, made a short call in Cecil on their way to Portland on Sunday.

A. Henriksen, the prominent stockman of Willow creek, was a busy man on Wednesday receiving two carloads of fine cattle at Cecil depot. Mr. Main from Portland delivered the cattle. Mr. Henriksen declares it won't take long to feed off his cattle on the hay which is grown on his ranch the feeding qualities are so good.

N. Paulson, representing the colonization department of the Canadian Pacific Railroad, spent Wednesday in Heppner, calling on local business men and pointing out the great potential possibilities of the Dominion.

Frank Wilson and Leonard Douglas of Ione were Saturday business visitors in Heppner. Mr. Douglas is an extensive wheat farmer of the Ione section, being the purchaser of the Wilson farm. Mr. Wilson recently purchased acreage near Huntington Beach, Cal.

Gilbert Mahoney, a former Heppner boy and son of Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Mahoney now of Portland, was recently elected sergeant-at-arms of the June 21 class of Jefferson high school. His picture appeared with a number of his class mates in the Sunday Oregonian of December 12.

Christmas EATS

ALSO Candy, Nuts, Fruits and Vegetables
Phelps Grocery Company

Far Better Bread!

THE KIND YOU'VE BEEN HANKERING FOR!

Here It Is!

Heppner bread is a FULL, PLUMP loaf, with the same BODY to it that MOTHER used to make!

Does it go down EASY?

Better BELIEVE it does! Greatest domestic bread in the world!

20c the large size; 10c the small

For sale at Thomson Bros. and Phelps Grocery Co.

SEND FOR SOME TODAY

Heppner Bakery

Pre-Inventory Sale

Entire stock reduced prices

10 Per Cent to 40 Per Cent

$15.00 Mattress, Now $9.50.

$150.00 Phonograph $25 Worth FREE RECORDS, Now $100.00

Christmas Shoppers
Bargain Store

Case Furniture Company

Pocket Billiards

at Gurdane & Son Billiard Parlors
December 22 and 23.

There will be 2 games of Tournament Pocket Billiards, 250 points in each block, between PETE SHIVELY and L. VAN MALTER for a purse. Both are local billiardists. This will be good. Don't miss it. It is free to everybody. Games start at 8 P. M.

WHERE TO EAT
The Question Is Settled

DINE WITH US

Our New Big Dining Room is not exclusive to transient trade. It's for the folks of Heppner First, Last and All the Time.

—Give the wife a rest and a treat—a Sunday dinner here.

SHORT ORDERS, TOO

Elkhorn Restaurant
Willow Street

S
A
F
E
T
Y
&

S
E
R
V
I
C
E

You Can't Pick the Winner

In the state of Illinois in seven months, 416 licenses were issued to stock dealers. Three-fourths of the companies were new promotions, showing no income accounts, and offering stock to the public in oil and mining, tire, wheel, auto and film promotions.

Records show the mortality in such concerns to be exceedingly high. A majority are unsuccessful, whether offered direct or through the mail.

First National Bank

HEPPNER, OREGON

What to Buy for Christmas

1920

MINOR & CO.

has made your Xmas Shopping easy for you and we are displaying a great many beautiful gifts for all members of the family.

WE SUGGEST HERE A FEW FOR THE MEN AND BOYS:

Leather Moccasin Slippers and Felt Slippers

All leather belts with sterling buckle for monogram.

"Interwoven" silk and wool socks.

Leather collar and handkerchief cases, etc.

Ties in many beautiful patterns.

Handkerchiefs in silk and linen—fancy and plain.

Shirts, Arm Bands, Garters, Suspenders, Gloves and hundreds of other suitable gifts.

Be Sure to See Our

Toy Department

Something for the kiddies

Minor & Company