MORROW COUNTY OFFICIAL PAPER

Foreign Advertising Representatives THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

Oh, What a Wall!

We had some reason to regret when it was announced a couple of weeks ago that Addison Bennett of the Oregonian...

It was, for the greater part, nothing short of a sad and wail setting out at length and in dismal detail all of the sad misfortunes...

Mr. Bennett certainly got off on the wrong foot, and it would appear that because of the fact that he failed to make a "go" of the irrigation project...

The faint praise doled out in the latter part of the article does not in the least compensate for the injustice done in the main portion.

It was some sad wail, indeed.

The County Agent and the Community.

Cooperation between the county newspapers and the county agents is beginning to be a great force in this county.

County agents and other agricultural authorities who are receiving the support of their local newspapers in carrying on their work among farmers...

"Many of them are boosting the local paper all they can," declares the North Carolina Extension Farm News.

"More power to these agents and to all other friends of the country press—now is the time to rally around your home paper and do everything possible to insure its weathering the present situation.

Morrow county feels proud to be honored by the appointment of one of its citizens as the State Highway Commissioner.

What Are the Outstanding Features of Our Industrial Future?

The Manufacturer.

Managers of industries, corporations and banking institutions are facing responsibilities for the next two years that would stagger generals of armies and statesmen.

State and federal instrumentalities must become more constructive and helpful if the big factors in the national prosperity status are not to be handicapped and crippled beyond resurrection.

What are the two greatest factors in restoring normalcy and preventing a national collapse industrially and financially? We have passed through a "consumers strike" and are now in the throes of an industrial stage...

The readjustment that will take place in the next two years will be attended by declining prices and wages. Capital, Labor and Agriculture will have to absorb their share of the shrinkage in values and economic losses.

Twenty billions spent in world war, and as much more lost through individual extravagance and inefficiency, and morale lowered through the excitement of a great world struggle against military autocracy...

How can we maintain the high walls of the American Zion and the high standards of comfort and prosperity to which we are accustomed?

Development of our country if every family of five could put in the next two years the great shell-

It should not be difficult for the average man or woman to lay aside one holiday a year for the next two years and it would restore our equities and avert a debate.

It is with actual judgment and common sense in public affairs, this nation is the most prosperous period of its existence.

Have faith in your country, your business, your fellow man. Nobody ever played the United States short and won.

Starving World Needs Our Farm Products.

Despite the awful slump in the price of his products during the last half of 1920, the American farmer can be well assured that he is going to have a big market for years to come.

The economic crisis has gone much further than question of cost or of money. The nation is heading for something much worse than bankruptcy.

W. B. Lawson is one of the greatest of England's economists. In a very recent issue of London Financial News, he says:

The economic crisis has gone much further than question of cost or of money. The nation is heading for something much worse than bankruptcy.

to enable to feed the poor starving wretches. But now every succeeding year brings us within reach of the universal peril. There is no occasion to echo the emotional alarms of Mr. Hoover and other American food experts.

Yes, the American farmer's market is cut out for him for a quarter of a century. It is up to him to see that our policies of credit, etc., should be such as to make it easier for the foreign nations to buy his products.

It was evening and several callers were chatting in the parlor, when a patter of little feet was heard at the head of the stairs.

Mrs. K. raised her hand for silence. "Hush, the children are going to deliver their good-night message," she said softly.

RAISES THE QUALITY — LOWERS THE COST OF ALL BAKINGS

It received highest Awards, World's Pure Food Exposition, Chicago — Paris Exposition, Paris, France — positive proof of its superior merit.

It is used by more housewives, domestic scientists and chefs than any other brand. That would not be the case, if it were possible to secure a higher quality leavener.

It is sold at a moderate price. All you have to do is to compare costs to determine how much you can save by buying Calumet.

Pound can of Calumet contains full 16 oz. Some baking powders come in 12 oz. instead of 16 oz. cans. Be sure you get a pound when you want it.
