IRISH HERE OBSERVE ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Fitting Services are Held at the Catholic Church and Hibernians Attend in Body.—Banquet at Hotel in Evening.

A splendid banquet, enjoyed by some 125 members of the Order of Hibernians and their friends at the Patrick hotel on Thursday evening last, at which time there was much speaking and general good cheer, was a fitting end to the celebration in Heppner on St. Patrick's day.

There was a meeting of the Hibernians in the forenoon and the order went in a body to St. Patrick's church, where they listened to an eloquent discourse by Father Cantwell and also observed the religious rites of the day. There was a large number of Irish people of the county in town and the entire 17th of March was celebrated, even to a late hour in the evening and a splendid good time had by all.

At the banquet in the evening there was speaking by different parties, and Francis A. McMenamin acted in the capacity of toastmaster. Gathered about the big banquet tables were not only a large number of the members of the order of Hibernians and their families but many citizens of the city were there as invited guests. The meeting took on something of the nature of a presentation of the claims of Ireland to recognition as an independent nation, and much of the history of the people of that little island that is suffering so much under present conditions was presented.

P. H. D'Arcy of Salem, an Irishman born in this country, and who, by the way, has been a resident of the city of Salem for more than a half century past, was the principal speaker of the evening. He had been preceded by John Mollahan, president of the local Hibernians, and who is an orator of much native ability and made a very forceful address, and Father Cantwell, pastor of St. Patrick's church of Heppner. Father Cantwell has not appeared in public address in Heppner, but his effort on this occasion shows him to be an orator of much ability and he was listened to with intense interest as he presented Ireland's position and made a plea that her claims be given the fair and impartial treatment at the hands of America that is characteristic of her citizens.

Judge D'Arcy was a little handicapped in his effort as some of the time that he should have had to bring out the full force of his address had been consumed and he was obliged to leave out much that would have been very interesting, we are sure. He is a very gifted and pleasing speaker, and occupying the position of a protestant he was prepared to handle the Irish question purely from the standpoint of its merits and entirely free of any religious bias. His argument was conclusive from the standpoint and we are sure that all those who heard Judge D'Arcy on this occasion will hereafter be safe in asserting that so far as the British government is concerned in its dealings with the Irish people, the matter of religion cuts no figure; Catholics and Protestants alike have been martyrs to the cause of Irish freedom and have each likewise come under the condemnation of the British power.

The banquet was a complete success, the chef at the hotel having put up a spread fit for the gods. He also caught the spirit of the occasion, and the green was made prominent in many of the courses served. Others on the program and who delighted the banqueters were Mrs. R. J. Vaughan, Mrs. Chester Darbee and Patricia Mahoney, each of them rendering vocal solos that called forth hearty encores.

Albert Bowker arrived from Spokane last evening. He has been residing at the city by the falls for the past couple of months.

Dr. Chick reports the arrival of a son at the home of James Stockard, of Lexington, this Thursday, a m. and all parties concerned are doing well.

Miss Odile Groshens spent the past week in Portland where she had a very delightful visit with friends. She returned home on Sunday, being accompanied by her sister, Mrs. E. L. Vinton.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Crawford are rejoicing over the arrival of a new son, born to them early last Sunday morning at the maternity home of Mrs. G. C. Alken in this city. The young man has been named John Spencer, and both babe and mother are doing fine. Dad Crawford is hardly able yet to get his hat on, but the swelling in his cranium is being gradually reduced.

Sheepmen Pleas'd. Local sheepmen are well pleased with the appointment of Frank Hagenbarth of Salt Lake as a member of the Interstate Commerce Commission. Hagenbarth is president of the National Wool Growers' Association, and also of the American National Livestock Association—East Oregonians.

PLAY BY PINE CITY HIGH SCHOOL SUCCESS

Through the kindness of one of the pupils of the Pine City high school we can give the following report of the play given by the pupils of the school on the 12th inst.

The play was meant as a good natured parody on the women's rights movement. In it the ladies held all civil offices and the men attended to household affairs. Mary Bartholomew, alias Eve Greenway, acted as mayor of Pine City and carried off the honors of the evening. Louis Carlson, alias Lester Farmer, made a very domestic looking young man in his role of the mayor's husband. The rest of the cast held well balanced parts and carried out the idea of "women's rights."

The class realized that it was to be presented to the school in the form of a stereopticon lantern and slides. Home-made candy was sold between the acts of the play.

Suffering from Very Severe Case of Blood Poisoning

C. D. Huston is confined to his home in this city, suffering from a very severe case of blood poisoning. At the present time Mr. Huston is a very sick man, though it is the opinion of his attending physician, Dr. McMurdo, that the danger point has been passed, and that his patient will fully recover in due course of time.

Firemen Will Hold Meeting For the Election of Officers

A meeting of Heppner's volunteer fire department is called by President Nelson for next Monday evening at the council chambers. This meeting is of importance as it is the time for the annual election of officers of the company, and President Nelson insists that all those who are anxious to have another big fire in Heppner come out to take part. He means all those who are interested in having an efficient fire fighting force in the city should attend this meeting, and this means practically every citizen of the community. Let there be a good attendance.

NOTICE

As I have sold my battery business in Heppner to I. R. Clabough & Sons, I would be very thankful to anyone owing me to kindly make settlement of account as quickly as possible. I wish to take this opportunity of thanking my friends for their liberal patronage during the two years that I have been in Heppner, and hope that my successors will be accorded the same liberal treatment at your hands.

JOS. W. FRITSCH.

MAYOR PROCLAIMS BIG CLEAN-UP DAY FOR CITY

Tuesday, April 12 is the Day Set and a Thorough Cleaning of Yards, Vacant Lots, Alleys and Streets is Ordered—City to Haul Off All Trash.

Mayor Eugene G. Noble has set Tuesday, April 12 as a clean-up day for Heppner, and he is looking forward to a complete and unanimous response by our citizens to his proclamation.

All front and back yards, alley ways, vacant lots and streets of the city should be thoroughly cleaned of all rubbish. Ash piles, rock piles, old tin cans, boxes, manure piles and everything of this sort is to be disposed of and the entire city cleaned.

Such stuff as can be burned shall be taken care of by the property owners and occupants of the premises, and permission will be granted to make fires for this purpose. All other rubbish is to be placed in sacks or boxes at the edge of the sidewalk in convenient shape to be gathered up by the drayman, and this will all be removed at the expense of the city.

Mayor Noble is looking forward to a clean Heppner, and it should not be long before he will be able to begin the work. These are good days to be getting at it and have all the work done so that by the 12th of April our little city will put on its bright clean attire. Let everyone get busy now.

At the Arthur Dykstra sale on Saturday, April 2nd, there will be offered an additional 15 head of mixed cattle, as item that was omitted in the bills and other advertising. This bunch of cattle is good stuff and should interest buyers that are looking for both young and older animals.

A DIFFICULT ACT

URGES ADOPTION OF THE NEW SCHOOL UNIT PLAN

Oregon's new school district law authorized by the passage of House Bill No. 215 is characterized by prominent educators and editors as the best school district law in the United States.

There was a time many years ago when "the little old red school houses" served the purpose of the then isolated communities very well, and there are some who think it is still good enough.

The demand for secondary education was for many years supplied by religious and private academies, but these were in the main fee schools and did not serve all the people. Then came housing and equipment, untrained teachers and lack of funds. Every child, poor or rich, city or rural, should have an equal chance, under equal conditions to get an education that will make him a first class citizen, able to satisfactorily perform the ordinary political duties of civil life; make him economically independent—self-supporting, and so train him that he will know how to spend his leisure time profitably without interfering with others.

The idea back of the new law is to supply these equalizing conditions and influences, to raise the standard of rural education, and to secure efficient supervision of the same.

This act applied to Morrow county would put all the schools of the county under the jurisdiction of the county board of five members. Since there is no district in the county unless it will be Heppner, that would have 500 pupils on the census. If they have they would be a town district and would retain their present organization. All the other schools would be under the county board.

The theory is that it is far easier to secure from the county five very able men than 150 or more as at present required. The county district board assumes control of all school property and all indebtedness against the same, within the district. The first county board would be made up of five chairmen of existing boards and at the next annual election a new board would be elected. There would be a regular meeting place.

The duties of the new board would be: To employ a school clerk, fix his compensation, fix his term of office and compensation including necessary traveling expenses. (Present superintendents would serve out their term.) To employ a school clerk fix his compensation, bonds, etc.

To employ all necessary assistant superintendents, supervisors, teachers, janitors, and assistants and fix their compensation.

To lease and build school houses, buy and lease lands for school purposes, furnish all supplies, etc.

To prepare annual budget, levy taxes, make annual printed report to tax payers, consolidate schools and arrange for transportation of pupils, fix tuition, and determine boundaries to be served by each school house, etc.

It will be seen that provision is made for efficient supervision of all schools; that consolidation will be encouraged; that economy in management and in the purchase and distribution of supplies will be secured, and that the blanket tax covering the whole county will lessen the tax for 75 per cent of the districts, which are now paying 10 to 20 mills or more. Umatilla county has figured that a six mill blanket tax will supply all the money now required to run the schools. Even the increased supervision charge would not raise the tax more than two mills.

Other features of bill allow for the election of a local school committee of three the same as now. (Present boards serve until the next annual election.) This committee cares for the school property, determines its use for civic purposes, visits the school (as now) reports to the superintendent the progress and needs of the school and wishes of the people concerning same, and recommends improvements.

GLEE CLUB CONCERT IS VARIED AND INTERESTING

Varied and interesting from beginning to end, the program of the University of Oregon's Glee club to be given in the auditorium of the school building in Heppner on April 1 under the management of the high school, promises to furnish the cities of the Cascades a rare treat, according to information carried in the University publication, the Oregon Daily Emerald of a recent date.

The girls have been practicing constantly for many months and Leland A. Coon, director of the club, says he would have no fear to stage a concert in any city in the state.

John Stark Evans, assistant dean of the school of music at the state university, in a criticism of the glee club following the home concert in Eugene on February 23 says, "Playing to a crowded house in Eugene theater Saturday night, the Glee club under the supervision of Leland A. Coon of the school of music gave the best concert that the organization has given in several years. The program, which was varied and interesting from beginning to end, showed most excellent training, meticulous care in phrasing and a high degree of finish throughout. The performance does credit to them, to Mr. Coon, the director, and the university."

The program to be given on the tour of eastern Oregon is well balanced, containing songs never before heard in the west. Soloists who have studied under some of the best artists of the west have been given prominent places in the concert. The feature, "When the Clock Strikes Twelve," composed by Miss Letcher, who will appear with the club as accompanist. The girls have made their own costumes for this stunt, a surprise feature which aroused much favorable comment on the campus and in the university town following the performance.

The soloists of the glee club are Genevieve Clancy, soprano; Laura Rand, contralto; Louise Letcher, pianist; and Margaret Phelps, violinist. The girls have made their own costumes for this stunt, a surprise feature which aroused much favorable comment on the campus and in the university town following the performance.

The twenty two girls, Professor Coon and Manager Don Davis will leave for the tour of the eastern counties immediately after the term examination on March 25. The first performance will be staged in Hillsboro and then the club will take the long jump to Enterprise. From Pendleton the organization of singers and musicians will come to Heppner for their scheduled concert.

Ann Thompson Favored. Ann Thompson, mayor of Echo and one of the prominent citizens of Umatilla county, is the personal choice of Senator R. N. Stanfield for United States marshal, should Senator Stanfield be given the right to appoint the marshal. As yet, Senators Stanfield and McNary have not yet decided upon a division of federal patronage. Should Senator Stanfield have the right to appoint the United States district attorney it is thought his choice would be P. J. Gallagher of Ontario. As a member of the state legislature, Gallagher fostered the straight party ballot bill—Pendleton E. O.

MORROW COUNTY FAIR SEPT. 15-17

Local Talent to Replace Former Class of Entertainment—Old Time Objectionable Features to Be Eliminated Under New Plan.

The dates for the coming Morrow County Fair have been set for September 15 to 17, according to arrangements completed at the meeting of the newly organized fair board recently held. At this meeting Oscar Keithley was chosen president, A. Henriksen, vice-president, Lena Snull Shurtz, superintendent of children's department and W. W. Smead, secretary-manager.

Manager Smead will take full charge of the arrangements for the coming fair, and he states to this paper that there will be some radical changes made regarding the entertainment features. Heretofore it seemed impossible to get some of the necessary and innocent amusements without taking on a lot of stuff that was not clean, and there has always been a complaint because of many features that were presented. This is to be entirely eliminated, and features of a local nature will be added and mostly local talent will be used. Manager Smead announced that this plan is to be tried out, and the large amount of funds heretofore paid to managers of attractions coming from the outside will be retained at home.

Mr. Smead is able to state at this time that one day of suitable entertainment is already provided. The Farm Bureau has taken it upon themselves to furnish the attractions for this date, and it is expected that arrangements can be made with the American Legion to supply the features for another day. In connection with what other towns and communities of the county can supply, and the co-operation of the local schools. It is fully expected that sufficient entertainment of a high order will be provided. The manager is going to give it a thorough tryout and hopes to be able to get the hearty support of the entire community in his efforts to thus eliminate the objectionable features of former fairs.

New Manager for Tri-State Company Named at Heppner

R. G. Sigbee has been made local manager of the Tri-State Terminal company at Heppner, W. D. Hayden, who has been holding down that position since the company opened for business in this city, having been transferred to the head office at Portland. The change was made at the end of the week. Mr. Hayden and wife going at once to Portland.

Mr. Sigbee has been bookkeeper in the office of the Farmers Elevator Co. and the Tri-State Terminal Co. for the past two years, and has acquired a thorough knowledge of the business that fits him to take charge as manager, and so far as the Heppner public is concerned, no better and more satisfactory selection could have been made.

We also congratulate Mr. Hayden upon his advancement to a better position with the company at headquarters.

Heppner Girl Candidate for May Queen at Willamette U.

Willamette University, Salem, March 23.—Three girls of the senior class were candidates for the office of May Queen at the office of Mr. Schill, McClure of Portland, Mayor of Heppner and Charlotte Croxson of Salem. Thirteen girls received votes.

The nominations will be balloted upon Wednesday the winner becoming May Queen and the others maids of honor. Edward Nelson of Heppner is May day manager. The May Queen will be crowned at the annual May day festival, May 6 and 7.

Irrigan to Have Ferry.

Irrigan people are rejoicing over news from Patterson, Wash., that Gordon Holmes has closed a deal for a ferry boat to operate between Holmes landing on the Washington side and a point suitable for a landing place about two miles west of Irrigan. The boat is known as the Snake river ferry, practically new, 32 feet long, 18 feet beam, carrying five large or seven small automobiles. It will be put into operation within 30 days. This will give direct connection with Central and Northern Washington with the Columbia river highway on the Oregon side and with the Irrigan-Heppner road south, saving tourists hundreds of miles of rough roads—East Oregonians.

Dr. Stephen D. Phelps, who has had charge of the work as pastor of the Federated church for the past several months, is compelled to give up his place here because of failing health. Dr. Phelps, who is past 52 years of age, is a very vigorous man for his years and puts a great deal of energy and enthusiasm into his work, and he finds that largely an account of the high altitude of Heppner he is not going to be able to continue and will go to Vancouver, Wash. We understand where he has a daughter residing. Heppner people will be sorry to learn that Dr. Phelps is compelled to leave our city, as they have learned to love him very much as a scholarly Christian gentleman.

Pete Prophet is down from Hardman today. It is reported that he contemplated opening up a store here.

COMMERCIAL CLUB WILL MEET TOMORROW NIGHT

A meeting of Heppner Commercial club is called for tomorrow, Friday evening at the Hotel Patrick. Some matters of importance are to be presented and it is the desire of President McMenamin that there be a goodly attendance of the members.

INTERESTING NEWS OF UMATILLA NAT. FOREST

At the last reading of the know-stakes stake No. 44 at the head of Big Butte creek registered 22 inches and No. 21 at the head of Ditch creek registered 28. The snow contained a large amount of moisture. The large amount of snow and the excessive moisture content insures plenty of water for mountain forage and for irrigation in the Irrigan next season.

The Willow creek sawmill, Moore and Hassenemus, proprietors, have about completed the moving of their mill to a location farther up Willow creek and expect to begin sawing in a short time. They have about four hundred thousand feet of logs in the yard of Big Butte creek has over three hundred fifty thousand feet of logs on the skids and expect to begin sawing about the first of April. The heavy snow during the winter was quite favorable for logging.

The Five Mile Cattle and Horse association have awarded to Albert Peterson about twelve miles of new drift fence on their range in Gardano district of the Umatilla national forest. The association has decided, also, to reconstruct the old drift fence extending north from Squaw flat to the forest boundary, a distance of about three miles. Specifications were recently drawn up by S. R. Woods, forest ranger at Gardano, and it is expected that developments asking for bids will soon be out. When completed this will make about fifteen miles of fence on the Five Mile Cattle and Horse range and will fence part of the north all of the west and a part of the south boundary of the range. It will also battle with drifting onto the sheep allotments. The forest service is supplying the wire and other material and the association does the constructing.

LOVE PIRATES OF HAWAII MADE BIG HIT

Light Opera by High School is Entire Success.—Pupils Cover Themselves With Glory and Heppner Public Shows Appreciation.

"Two splendid audiences greeted the presentation of 'Love Pirates of Hawaii,' a light opera in two acts presented by the pupils of the high school at the Star theater on Tuesday afternoon and Tuesday evening.

The opera had been prepared for presentation to the Heppner public after more than three weeks of work under the direction of Miss Bernice Dafeo, and the final performance of the pupils was ample proof that the work had been well done. Miss Dafeo demonstrated her ability to handle so many young folks, and while the opera is not considered to be difficult, yet it was not over done with the ordinary work of music in the school and contains a large number of special parts that required work and ability to get it in shape for presentation. Both pupils and instructor worked hard and each participant had thoroughly memorized every line and part.

Before the curtain the band gave a couple of numbers, and one number under the act. This being followed by a beautiful solo by Mrs. Chester Darbee entitled "The Swallow." Mrs. Darbee was at her best and this selection was rendered in a very delightful manner. The Scotch sketch by Velma Case, Leola Bennett and Mary Clark was good and brought forth rounds of applause, while Maester Kenneth Merritt demonstrated his ability as a coming soloist by two selections on the saxophone. Ted Young gave some words to the wise in his usual entertaining fashion and Elinor Cohn and "Pat" Mahoney did a beautiful song and dance. This was a part of the program that filled in between the acts and added much to the entertainment.

A capacity house filled the theater in the evening and we are sure that none came away disappointed with the performance of the high school boys and girls. They could not be otherwise than delighted, and on the other hand the faculty and pupils are highly pleased with the splendid appreciation shown by the citizens of the community in giving them such a splendid hearing. The financial results were nearly $300 and the student body treasury has been greatly strengthened. We are all proud of the showing that is being made by the pupils of the school this season; proud of the faculty for the good work they are doing and glad to know that many of the present force of teachers will remain for the coming year. Miss Dafeo, who is getting along so well with the music in the school has decided to remain and carry on the good work already under way, and we feel assured that if she undertakes another entertainment of the nature of "Love Pirates of Hawaii," she will receive even greater honors than those bestowed upon this present occasion.
