C. W. Valentine and wife, of Sourdough canyon, were in this city on Saturday, and this office acknowledged a pleasant call from them.

Mrs. J. H. Padberg from Heppner Plat was shopping in Heppner on Saturday. She was accompanied by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Orris Padberg.

J. W. Morrow, right of way and tax agent for the O. W. R. & N. company, was in Heppner over Sunday and Monday, looking after business affairs here.

Harold Dobyns, government trapper and hunter, with headquarters at the present on Little Butter creek, was in Heppner for a short time on Saturday.

The protracted meeting in the Christian church at Ione, conducted by Mr. and Mrs. Livingstone, closed on Sunday evening with twenty-eight additions to the church.

Mr. and Mrs. Phill Cohn were called to San Francisco the past week in answer to a telegram announcing the death of a sister of Mrs. Cohn residing in that city.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Benne and the children motored to Pendleton Friday, where they visited with Mrs. Barnett, a sister of Mr. Benne. They returned home on Sunday.

W. T. McRoberts, proprietor of the Red Front livery stable of this city, has just returned from a visit with his family at Oregon City, and reports they are getting along nicely.

Lexington high school and Condon high will cross bats in a game of ball at Lexington on Saturday afternoon. We look for the Lexington boys to win as they are putting up good ball.

LOST—Two head of horses, one bay 3-year-old mare, branded S on left shoulder, and one bay 2-year-old horse, branded cross on left shoulder. Notify H. C. Hapgood, Heppner, Oregon. 21.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Zink were up from their home near Ione on Saturday. Mr. Zink, who has been in poor health for several months past, is remaining over in Heppner and taking medical treatment at the hands of Dr. Chick.

Chief Bergstrom was in from Eight Mile Tuesday. Referring to the good rain that was falling, Mr. Bergstrom says, "This is what we call bad weather," but had a smile when he said it. Rain at this time is doing a lot of good for both the fall and spring sown grain.

Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Olden, farmers of the Fairview section, were visitors in Heppner on Saturday. Grain is coming along well at the Olden farm and Herb says he would be glad to see the weather warm up a little so that vegetation of all kinds might grow a little better.

Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Spencer went over to Pendleton Saturday afternoon, remaining over Sunday to visit with relatives and friends. They were accompanied by Mrs. George D. Fell who had been spending several days the past week visiting at the Spencer home in this city.

Father P. J. O'Rourke, accompanied by his niece, Miss Peggy O'Rourke, arrived from The Dalles Monday and have been spending the week visiting with their many friends here. Father O'Rourke is pastor of the Catholic church at The Dalles, and this is his first visit to Heppner in a couple of years.

Tom Boylen is preparing to start spring shearing at his Butter creek ranch this week. There is a plant on upper Butter creek owned by the sheep men of that neighborhood and a crew from Heppner does the work. Lambing is still under way on the Nellie Howard and Wiglesworth ranches—Echo News.

The marriage of John F. Vaughn and Miss Muriel Cason, who were formerly residents of this city, took place at Kelso, Wash., on Wednesday, April 14th, according to an item appearing in the Oregonian. From friends here it is learned that Mr. and Mrs. Vaughn have taken apartments in Portland and will make that city their home.

Dr. J. L. Calloway sends us a copy of the Mountain Home Republican of April 2, which contains the announcement of the death in that city of his mother, Mrs. Laura Virginia Calloway. Dr. Calloway, who is quite well known in this city, is now the only surviving member of the family, and has been caring for his mother in her declining years.

Mrs. J. B. Gilham, who with her husband has resided in New York City for the past two years, arrived on Tuesday last on a visit to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Otis Patterson. Mrs. Gilham came via Washington, D. C., where she visited her uncle, Alvah W. Patterson, who is an attorney of that city. Mrs. Gilham will remain in the west for the summer—Canyon City Eagle.

E. G. Haverstick, one of the leading agriculturists of the middle Rhea creek section, was in Heppner on Saturday. Mr. Haverstick has quite a large number of fruit trees on his farm and he fears that the freezing weather of the past week has done considerable damage to the peaches, pears and apricots but was yet unable to tell whether the entire crop for the coming season had been killed. He hopes it has not.

W. B. Tucker, who farms several hundred acres of good land a few miles north of Heppner, was in town Saturday, and states that in his many years of experience as a farmer in this county he has never had better crop prospects. His neighbors are all enjoying this splendid outlook also, and should present indications hold good, the Swagart Butte country will turn out the biggest yield of grain this fall in its history.

W. B. Barratt is back on the job as a common citizen this week, having arrived home on Sunday with a ten days' furlough from official duties, to help with the marking of new lambs at the Barratt sheep ranch. This is real recreation to Billy and in this duty he will find success from the onerous task of straightening out the tangles in the work of the state highway commission. By the way, Mr. Barratt is giving ample proof that he is just as good a road builder as he has been a successful rancher and sheep man.

Harold Cohn is home after having spent some six weeks on a business trip which took him to New York, Washington and Richmond. He was in Washington at the time of the inauguration of President Harding and was greatly impressed with the big crowd and the ceremonies. Speaking of business conditions, Mr. Cohn states that from what he gathered on his trip the return to normal conditions will be slow; this being especially true of the wool situation, which is not expected to get back on a stable basis shortly of two years, Mr. Cohn giving this as his opinion of President Hagenhart of the National Woolgrowers Association, with whom he talked while in Washington. Harold's visit to Washington was on business before the U. S. Patent office and he visited with relatives in New York.

SERVICE that is not based upon price alone, but upon the requirements and desires of each individual customer. SERVICE that demands that each job be the best it is possible to give for the purpose it is supposed to serve. SERVICE that is possible because it is backed up by a REAL printing plant—not a collection of worn-out, obsolete machinery and type—a plant completely equipped with modern machinery, each machine the best possible to procure for the work which it is intended to perform, and the latest faces of new type. SERVICE at a price no greater than that of the ordinary brand of country printing. The price of G.-T. printing is based upon the Franklin Printing Price List, the one-price-everything-marked-in-plain-figures idea applied to printing, and insures a square deal to the customer as well as the printer. It is used in over 10,000 printing plants all over the United States. The Gazette-Times'
