

LIVE LOCAL ITEMS

One address and family of Eight Mile street in Heppner on Saturday last.

Curie C. Rhea and wife of Rhea creek, were Saturday visitors in this city.

Miss Amelia, Hauch, of Goldendale, Wash., is visiting with Miss Alma Akers of this city.

Mr. and Mrs. John Olden, Rhea creek residents, were visitors in this city on Saturday.

Mrs. Dr. Arlet Brock, of Portland, is visiting this week at the home of her brother, L. V. Gentry.

Adam Knoblock departed for Albany on Sunday, going down to attend the grand lodge meeting of the I. O. O. F. as a representative from Willow Lodge No. 66.

The ladies of the Congregational church of Lexington will hold an apron and cooked food sale, at the church, Saturday, May 28th. All are invited to attend.

George W. Dykstra is enjoying a visit this week with his son, M. V. Dykstra, of Bend. Mr. Dykstra is engaged in ranching and stockraising in the Bend country.

Mrs. Susan Greiner, of San Diego, Calif., who has been visiting her niece, Mrs. Ed Breslin, in this city for a week, departed for Condon, her former home, on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. French Burroughs, who possess one of the best places on Rhea creek a short distance above Jordan Riding, were visitors in Heppner for a short time on Wednesday.

C. H. Erwin, extensive wheat grower of the Jordan Butte country south of Jone, was a visitor in Heppner on Friday and reports wheat coming along fine with plenty of moisture.

Mrs. Frank Turner and little son, Robert, went to Portland on Sunday to remain for the week. While in the city the boy will receive treatment at the hands of an ear specialist.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Berwick came in from Shaniko yesterday, and this afternoon returned home in their auto. Mr. Berwick is running the locomotive on the Shaniko branch.

The commencement exercises of Lexington high school will be held on Friday evening, May 20 at the high school auditorium. The commencement address will be delivered by Dr. J. F. Brumbaugh of O. A. C. On Sunday, May 22nd, the baccalaureate services will be held at the Congregational church, the address to be delivered by the pastor, Rev. J. C. Hall. These services will be at 2:00 o'clock in the afternoon.

W. T. Matlock this week closed a deal with Frank Wilkinson, of Portland, for the lower half of the Hager ranch of Heppner. The place contains 1840 acres, about 100 acres being in alfalfa and the balance range and wheat land. Mr. Wilkinson expects to move onto the place at once and will erect a home there as well as other suitable buildings. The place at the present time contains none of these conveniences.

Andrew Reaney, of Lexington, was a pleasant caller at this office while in town Wednesday. Of course Mr. Reaney is delighted with present weather conditions and is appreciative of the good rains the wheat section is receiving. He is looking forward to an abundant yield of grain at harvest time and the prospects were never brighter. He was accompanied to Heppner by his brother, Frank Reaney, of Soap Lake, Wash., who is making a visit at the Reaney home at Lexington.

J. H. Cox got rid of a portion of two of his fingers on Monday. While dressing up some lumber on a small planer in the workshop of W. G. McCarty, he pushed the fingers into the machine and they were neatly trimmed. Mr. Cox has had somewhat similar experiences before, and he is about to conclude that he is up against an "evening up" process that will eventually make his fingers all the same length. The operation is a little painful but Mr. Cox is convinced that a machine of this kind will do the job quickly and well.

MRS. CLAIRE P. HARTER, Clerk, Boardman, Oregon.

UNAPPEARED.

They had enjoyed a little tilt at the breakfast table, but during the day he felt as though he might have been a trifle unkind, and so took home a pretty peace offering. He placed the package in a conspicuous position, but, very pointedly, she ignored it.

is in the box?" he finally coaxed. "No," was the unbending reply. "Well, it is something for the one I love best of all in the world," he declared ardently.

"Oh!" she responded with something very near a sniff. "I guess, then, that it is that pair of suspenders you said you needed?"—Emmett C. Hall in Judge.

J. J. Davis, Secretary of Labor, speaking at a Moose testimonial banquet in his honor at Pittsburg, said: "If you could visit Ellis Island, and see the undesirables turned back from our shores you would awake to the danger of the situation. It is time for us to register all aliens that we may know where they are. The communist group among them is well organized. They do not come here to learn the principles of our government. We must adopt a system of education to offset this communist propaganda. There is no room in America for any man that preaches the overthrow of this government."
